5 SECTION 1. ORS 137.103 is amended to read:

6 137.103. As used in ORS 137.101 to 137.109, 137.540, 161.675 and 161.685:

7 (1) "Criminal activities" means any offense with respect to which the defendant is convicted or 8 any other criminal conduct admitted by the defendant.

9 (2) [Pecuniary damages means all special damages, but not general damages, which a person 10 could recover against the defendant in a civil action arising out of the facts or events constituting the 11 defendant's criminal activities and shall include, but not be limited to, the money equivalent of property
12 taken, destroyed, broken or otherwise harmed, and losses such as medical expenses and costs of psy-13 chological treatment or counseling.] "Economic damages" has the meaning given that term in 14 ORS 31.710, except that "economic damages" does not include future impairment of earning 15 capacity.

16 (3) "Restitution" means full, partial or nominal payment of [pecuniary] economic damages to a 17 victim. Restitution is independent of and may be awarded in addition to a compensatory fine
18 awarded under ORS 137.101.

19 (4) "Victim" means:

20 (a) The person against whom the defendant committed the criminal offense, if the court
21 determines that the person has suffered economic damages as a result of the offense.

22 (b) Any person not described in paragraph (a) of this subsection whom the court determines

New sections are in boldfaced type.

1 (5) "Victim" [shall] does not include any coparticipant in the defendant's criminal activities.

2 SECTION 2. ORS 137.106 is amended to read:

3 137.106. (1) When a person is convicted of a crime, or a violation as described in ORS 153.008, 4 that has resulted in [pecuniary] economic damages, the district attorney shall investigate and 5 present to the court, prior to the time of sentencing, evidence of the nature and amount of [such]
6 the damages. If the court finds from the evidence presented that a victim suffered [pecuniary] eco- 7 nomic damages, in addition to any other sanction it may impose, the court shall:

8 (a) Include in the judgment a requirement that the defendant pay the victim restitution in a 9 specific amount that equals the full amount of the victim's [pecuniary] economic damages as deter-10 mined by the court; or

11 (b) Include in the judgment a requirement that the defendant pay the victim restitution, and that 12 the specific amount of restitution will be established by a supplemental judgment based upon a de-
13 termination made by the court within 90 days of entry of the judgment. In the supplemental judg-14 ment, the court shall establish a specific amount of restitution that equals the full amount of the 15 victim's [pecuniary] economic damages as determined by the court. The court may extend the time 16 within which the determination and supplemental judgment may be completed for good cause. The 17 lien, priority of the lien and ability to enforce the specific amount of restitution established under 18 this paragraph by a supplemental judgment relates back to the date of the original judgment that 19 is supplemented.

20 (2) After the district attorney makes a presentation described in subsection (1) of this section, 21 if the court is unable to find from the evidence presented that a victim suffered [pecuniary] eco-
22 nomic damages, the court shall make a finding on the record to that effect.

23 (3) No finding made by the court or failure of the court to make a finding under this section 24 limits or impairs the rights of a person injured to sue and recover damages in a civil action as 25 provided in ORS 137.109.

26 (4) If a judgment or supplemental judgment described in subsection (1) of this section includes 27 restitution, a court may delay the enforcement of the monetary sanctions, including restitution, only 28 if the defendant alleges and establishes to the satisfaction of the court the defendant's inability to 29 pay the judgment in full at the time the judgment is entered. If the court finds that the defendant 30 is unable to pay, the court may establish or allow an appropriate supervising authority to establish 31 a payment schedule, taking into consideration the financial resources of the defendant and the bur-32 den that payment of restitution will impose, with due regard to the other obligations of the defend-33 ant.

34 (5) If the defendant objects to the imposition, amount or distribution of the restitution, the court 35 shall allow the defendant to be heard on such issue at the time of sentencing or at the time the 36 court determines the amount of restitution.

37 SECTION 3. ORS 137.109 is amended to read:

38 137.109. (1) Nothing in ORS 137.103 to 137.109, 137.540, 144.102, 144.275, 161.675 and 161.685
39 limits or impairs the right of a person injured by a defendant's commission of a crime, or by a de-40 fendant's commission of a violation described in ORS 153.008, to sue and recover damages from the 41 defendant in a civil action. Evidence that the defendant has paid or been ordered to pay restitution
42 pursuant to ORS 137.103 to 137.109, 137.540, 144.102, 144.275, 161.675 and 161.685 may not be intro-43 duced in any civil action arising out of the facts or events [which] that were the basis for the 44 restitution. However, the court shall credit any restitution paid by the defendant to a victim against 45 any judgment in favor of the victim in such civil action.

1 (2) If conviction in a criminal trial necessarily decides the issue of a defendant's liability for 2 [pecuniary] economic damages of a victim, that issue is conclusively determined as to the defendant
3 if it is involved in a subsequent civil action.

4 SECTION 4. ORS 137.295 is amended to read:

5 137.295. (1) When a defendant convicted of a crime or violation in the circuit, justice or munic-6 ipal court, or allowed diversion in such a case, makes a payment of money to be credited against

40 municipal court shall monthly transfer the moneys credited under category 3 to the Department of
