30       “(2) ‘Utility or service’ has the meaning given that term in ORS 90.315.

35 any utility or service line, and bills the tenant directly; and 36       “(B) The landlord does not act as a provider.

37       “(b) A relationship between the landlord, tenant and utility or service provider in which:

38       “(A) The provider provides the utility or service to the landlord;

39       “(B) The landlord provides the utility or service directly to the tenant’s space or to a 40 common area available to the tenant as part of the tenancy; and 41       “(C) The landlord includes the cost of the utility or service in the tenant’s rent or bills 42 the tenant for a utility or service charge separately from the rent in an amount determined 43 by apportioning the provider’s charge to the landlord as measured by a master meter.

44       “(c) A relationship between the landlord, tenant and utility or service provider in which:

5 shall give the tenant a written notice stating the amount of the utility or service charge that 6 the tenant is to pay the landlord, and the due date for making the payment. The due date 7 may not be less than 14 days from the date of service of the notice.

8       “(3) A utility or service charge is not rent or a fee. Nonpayment of a utility or service 9 charge is not grounds for termination of a rental agreement for nonpayment of rent under 10 ORS 90.400, but is grounds for termination of a rental agreement for cause under ORS 90.630.

11       “(4) The landlord is responsible for maintaining the utility or service system, including 12 any submeter, consistent with ORS 90.730. After any installation or maintenance of the sys-

14 as or better than the condition of the space before the installation or maintenance.

15       “(5) A landlord may not assess a utility or service charge for water unless the water is 25 poses of ORS chapter 757.

26       “SECTION 7. (1) If a written rental agreement so provides, a landlord using the billing 27 method described in section 6 (1)(b) of this 2005 Act may require a tenant to pay to the 28 landlord a utility or service charge that has been billed by a utility or service provider to the 29 landlord for a utility or service provided directly to the tenant’s space or to a common area 30 available to the tenant as part of the tenancy.

31       “(2) A utility or service charge that is assessed to tenants for the tenants’ spaces under 32 this section must be allocated among the tenants by a method that reasonably apportions 33 the cost among the affected tenants and that is described in the rental agreement. Methods 34 that reasonably apportion the cost among the tenants include, but are not limited to, meth-35 ods that divide the cost based on the number of occupied spaces in the facility or on the 36 square footage in each dwelling, home or space.

37       “(3) A utility or service charge to be assessed to a tenant for a common area must be 38 described in the written rental agreement separately and distinctly from the utility or ser-39 vice charge for the tenant’s space.

40       “(4) A landlord may not increase the utility or service charge to the tenant by adding any 41 costs of the landlord, such as a handling or administrative charge, other than those costs 42 billed to the landlord by the provider for utilities or services.

43       “SECTION 8. (1) If a written rental agreement so provides, a landlord using the billing 44 method described in section 6 (1)(c) of this 2005 Act may require a tenant to pay to the 45 landlord a utility or service charge that has been billed by a utility or service provider to the

1 landlord for utility or service provided directly to the tenant's space as measured by a sub-2 meter.

3 "(2) A utility or service charge to be assessed to a tenant under this section may consist 4 of:

5 "(a) The cost of the utility or service provided to the tenant's space and under the ten-6 ant's control, as measured by the submeter, at a rate no greater than the average rate billed 7 to the landlord by the utility or service provider, not including any base or service charge;

8 "(b) The cost of any sewer service for stormwater or wastewater as a percentage of the 9 tenant's water charge as measured by a submeter, if the utility or service provider charges 10 the landlord for sewer service as a percentage of water provided; and 11 "(c) A pro rata portion of any base or service charge billed to the landlord by the utility 12 or service provider, including but not limited to any tax passed through by the provider.

13 "(3) A utility or service charge to be assessed to a tenant under this section may not 14 include:

15 "(a) Any additional charge, including any costs of the landlord, for the installation, 16 maintenance or operation of the utility or service system or any profit for the landlord; or 17 "(b) Any costs to provide a utility or service to common areas of the facility.

18 "SECTION 9. (1) A landlord may unilaterally amend a rental agreement to convert a 19 tenant's existing utility or service billing method from a method described in section 6 (1)(b) 20 of this 2005 Act to a submeter billing method described in section 6 (1)(c) of this 2005 Act.
21 The landlord must give the tenant not less than 180 days' written notice before converting 22 to a submeter billing method.

23 "(2) A landlord must give notice as provided in ORS 90.725 before entering a tenant's 24 space to install or maintain a utility or service line or a submeter that measures the amount 25 of a provided utility or service.

26 "(3) If the cost of the tenant's utility or service was included in the rent before the 27 conversion to submeters, the landlord shall reduce the tenant's rent upon the landlord's first 28 billing of the tenant using the submeter method. The rent reduction may not be less than 29 an amount reasonably comparable to the amount of the rent previously allocated to the 30 utility or service cost averaged over at least the preceding six months. Before the landlord 31 first bills the tenant using the submeter method, the landlord shall provide the tenant with 32 written documentation from the utility or service provider showing the landlord's cost for 33 the utility or service provided to the facility during at least the six preceding months.

34 "(4) During the six months following a conversion to submeters, the landlord may not 35 raise the rent to recover the costs of installing, maintaining or operating the utility or ser-36 vice system or of new lines or submeters. Except as part of the rent, a landlord may not 37 charge the tenant for the cost of installation or for any capital expenses related to the con-38 version to submeters or for the cost of maintenance or operation of the utility or service 39 system. As used in this subsection, 'operation' includes, but is not limited to, reading the 40 submeter.

41 "(5) A rental agreement amended under this section shall include language that fairly 42 describes the provisions of this section.

43 "(6) If a landlord installs a submeter on an existing utility or service line to a space or 44 common area that is already served by that line, unless the installation causes a system 45 upgrade, a local government may not assess a system development charge as defined in ORS

1 223.299 as a result of the installation.

2 “SECTION 10. In addition to any other right of entry granted under ORS 90.725, a land-3 lord or the landlord’s agent may enter a tenant’s space without consent of the tenant and 4 without notice to the tenant for the purpose of reading a submeter. An entry made under 5 authority of this section is subject to the following restrictions:

6 “(1) The landlord or landlord’s agent may not remain on the space for a purpose other 7 than reading the submeter.

44 or any lienholder or owner in the following circumstances:
45           “(a) The tenancy has ended by termination or expiration of a rental agreement or by 41 cludes a manufactured dwelling or floating home, the dwelling or home shall be stored on the rented 42 space;

43 “(d) The tenant or any lienholder or owner, except as provided by subsection (18) of this section, 44 may arrange for removal of the personal property by contacting the landlord at a described tele-
45 phone number or address on or before the specified date;

1 “(e) The landlord shall make the personal property available for removal by the tenant or any 2 lienholder or owner, except as provided by subsection (18) of this section, by appointment at rea-
3 sonable times;

4 “(f) If the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to subsection (2)(a) or (b) 5 of this section, the landlord may require payment of removal and storage charges, as provided by 6 subsection (7)(d) of this section, prior to releasing the personal property to the tenant or any 7 lienholder or owner;

8 “(g) If the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to subsection (2)(c) of this 9 section, the landlord may not require payment of storage charges prior to releasing the personal 10 property;

11 “(h) If the tenant or any lienholder or owner fails to contact the landlord by the specified date, 12 or after that contact, fails to remove the personal property within 30 days for recreational vehicles, 13 manufactured dwellings and floating homes or 15 days for all other personal property, the landlord
14 may sell or dispose of the personal property. If the landlord reasonably believes that the personal 15 property will be eligible for disposal pursuant to subsection (10)(b) of this section and the landlord 16 intends to dispose of the property if it is not claimed, the notice shall state that belief and intent; 17 and

18 “(i) If the personal property includes a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating 19 home and if applicable, there is a lienholder or owner that has a right to claim the recreational 20 vehicle, dwelling or home, except as provided by subsection (18) of this section.

21 “(6) For purposes of subsection (5) of this section, the specified date by which a tenant, 22 lienholder or owner must contact a landlord to arrange for the disposition of abandoned personal 23 property shall be:

24 “(a) For abandoned recreational vehicles, manufactured dwellings or floating homes, not less 25 than 45 days after personal delivery or mailing of the notice; or

26 “(b) For all other abandoned personal property, not less than five days after personal delivery 27 or eight days after mailing of the notice.

28 “(7) After notifying the tenant as required by subsection (3) of this section, the landlord:

29 “(a) Shall store any abandoned manufactured dwelling or floating home on the rented space and 30 shall exercise reasonable care for the dwelling or home;

31 “(b) Shall store all other abandoned personal property of the tenant, including goods left inside 32 a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home or left upon the rented space outside 33 a recreational vehicle, dwelling or home, in a place of safekeeping and shall exercise reasonable 34 care for the personal property, except that the landlord may:

35 “(A) Promptly dispose of rotting food; and

36 “(B) Allow an animal control agency to remove any abandoned pets or livestock. If an animal 37 control agency will not remove the abandoned pets or livestock, the landlord shall exercise reason-38 able care for the animals given all the circumstances, including the type and condition of the ani-39 mals, and may give the animals to an agency that is willing and able to care for the animals, such 40 as a humane society or similar organization;

41 “(c) Except for manufactured dwellings and floating homes, may store the abandoned personal 42 property at the dwelling unit, move and store it elsewhere on the premises or move and store it at 43 a commercial storage company or other place of safekeeping; and

44 “(d) Is entitled to reasonable or actual storage charges and costs incidental to storage or dis-
45 posal, including any cost of removal to a place of storage. In the case of an abandoned manufactured

1 dwelling or floating home, the storage charge shall be no greater than the monthly space rent last 2 payable by the tenant.

3 “(8) If a tenant, lienholder or owner, upon the receipt of the notice provided by subsection (3) 4 or (4) of this section or otherwise, responds by actual notice to the landlord on or before the spec-5 ified date in the landlord’s notice that the tenant, lienholder or owner intends to remove the per-6 sonal property from the premises or from the place of safekeeping, the landlord must make that 7 personal property available for removal by the tenant, lienholder or owner by appointment at rea-
8 sonable times during the 15 days or, in the case of a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling
9 or floating home, 30 days following the date of the response, subject to subsection (18) of this sec-
10 tion. If the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to subsection (2)(a) or (b) of 11 this section, but not pursuant to subsection (2)(c) of this section, the landlord may require payment 12 of removal and storage charges, as provided in subsection (7)(d) of this section, prior to allowing the 13 tenant, lienholder or owner to remove the personal property. Acceptance by a landlord of such 14 payment does not operate to create or reinstate a tenancy or create a waiver pursuant to ORS 15 90.415.

16 “(9) Except as provided in subsections (18) to (20) of this section, if the tenant, lienholder or 17 owner of a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home does not respond within the 18 time provided by the landlord’s notice, or the tenant, lienholder or owner does not remove the per-19 sonal property within the time required by subsection (8) of this section or by any date agreed to 20 with the landlord, whichever is later, the tenant’s, lienholder’s or owner’s personal property is con-
21 clusively presumed to be abandoned. The tenant and any lienholder or owner that have been given 22 notice pursuant to subsection (3) or (4) of this section shall, except with regard to the distribution 23 of sale proceeds pursuant to subsection (13) of this section, have no further right, title or interest 24 to the personal property and may not claim or sell the property.

25 “(10) If the personal property is presumed to be abandoned under subsection (9) of this section, 26 the landlord then may:

27 “(a) Sell the personal property at a public or private sale, provided that prior to the sale of a 28 recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home:

29 “(A) The landlord may seek to transfer the certificate of title and registration to the personal 30 property by complying with the requirements of the appropriate state agency; and

31 “(B) The landlord shall:

32 “(i) Place a notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the recreational 33 vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home is located. The notice shall state:

37 or floating home is located, and if actually known to the landlord, the plate, registration or other 38 identification number as noted on the certificate of title;

39 “(IV) Whether the sale is by private bidding or public auction;

40 “(V) Whether the landlord is accepting sealed bids and, if so, the last date on which bids will 41 be accepted; and

2 with certificate of mailing;

3 “(iii) Obtain an affidavit of publication from the newspaper to show that the notice required 4 under sub-subparagraph (i) of this subparagraph ran in the newspaper at least one day in each of 5 two consecutive weeks prior to the date scheduled for the sale or the last date bids will be accepted; 6 and

7 “(iv) Obtain written proof from the county that all property taxes on the manufactured dwelling 8 or floating home have been paid or, if not paid, that the county has authorized the sale, with the 9 sale proceeds to be distributed pursuant to subsection (13) of this section;

10 “(b) Destroy or otherwise dispose of the personal property if the landlord determines that:

11 “(A) For a manufactured dwelling or floating home, the current market value of the property is 12 $8,000 or less as determined by the county assessor; or

13 “(B) For all other personal property, the reasonable current fair market value is $500 or less 14 or so low that the cost of storage and conducting a public sale probably exceeds the amount that 15 would be realized from the sale; or

16 “(c) Consistent with paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, sell certain items and destroy or 17 otherwise dispose of the remaining personal property.

18 “(11)(a) A public or private sale authorized by this section shall:

19 “(A) For a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home, be conducted consist-20 ent with the terms listed in subsection (10)(a)(B)(i) of this section. Every aspect of the sale including 21 the method, manner, time, place and terms must be commercially reasonable; or

22 “(B) For all other personal property, be conducted under the provisions of ORS 79.0610.

23 “(b) If there is no buyer at a sale of a manufactured dwelling or floating home, the personal 24 property is considered to be worth $8,000 or less, regardless of current market value, and the land-25 lord shall destroy or otherwise dispose of the personal property.

26 “(12) Notwithstanding ORS 446.155 (1) and (2), unless a landlord intentionally misrepresents the 27 condition of a manufactured dwelling or floating home, the landlord is not liable for the condition 28 of the dwelling or home to:

29 “(a) A buyer of the dwelling or home at a sale pursuant to subsection (10)(a) of this section, with 30 or without consideration; or

31 “(b) A person or nonprofit organization to whom the landlord gives the dwelling or home pur-32 suant to subsection (1)(b), (10)(b) or (11)(b) of this section.

33 “(13)(a) The landlord may deduct from the proceeds of the sale:

34 “(A) The reasonable or actual cost of notice, storage and sale; and 35 “(B) Unpaid rent.

36 “(b) If the sale was of a manufactured dwelling or floating home, after deducting the amounts 37 listed in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the landlord shall remit the remaining proceeds, if any, to 38 the county tax collector to the extent of any unpaid property taxes owed on the dwelling or home.

39 “(c) If the sale was of a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home, after de-40 ducting the amounts listed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, if applicable, the landlord
41 shall remit the remaining proceeds, if any, to any lienholder to the extent of any unpaid balance 42 owed on the lien on the recreational vehicle, dwelling or home.

43 “(d) After deducting the amounts listed in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this subsection, if ap-44 plicable, the landlord shall remit to the tenant or owner the remaining proceeds, if any, together 45 with an itemized accounting.

1 “(e) If the tenant or owner cannot after due diligence be found, the remaining proceeds shall 2 be deposited with the county treasurer of the county in which the sale occurred, and if not claimed 3 within three years shall revert to the general fund of the county available for general purposes.

4 “(14) The county tax collector shall cancel all unpaid property taxes owed on a manufactured 5 dwelling or floating home, as provided under ORS 311.790, only under circumstances described in 6 paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d) of this subsection:

7 “(a) The landlord disposes of the manufactured dwelling or floating home after a determination 8 described in subsection (10)(b) of this section.

9 “(b) There is no buyer of the manufactured dwelling or floating home at a sale described under 10 subsection (11) of this section.

11 “(c)(A) There is a buyer of the manufactured dwelling or floating home at a sale described under 12 subsection (11) of this section;

13 “(B) The current market value of the manufactured dwelling or floating home is $8,000 or less;
14 and

15 “(C) The proceeds of the sale are insufficient to satisfy the unpaid property taxes owed on the 16 dwelling or home after distribution of the proceeds pursuant to subsection (13) of this section.

17 “(d)(A) The landlord buys the manufactured dwelling or floating home at a sale described under 18 subsection (11) of this section;

19 “(B) The current market value of the manufactured dwelling or floating home is more than 20 $8,000;

21 “(C) The proceeds of the sale are insufficient to satisfy the unpaid property taxes owed on the 22 manufactured dwelling or floating home after distribution of the proceeds pursuant to subsection (13) 23 of this section; and

24 “(D) The landlord disposes of the manufactured dwelling or floating home.

25 “(15) The landlord is not responsible for any loss to the tenant, lienholder or owner resulting 26 from storage of personal property in compliance with this section unless the loss was caused by the 27 landlord’s deliberate or negligent act. In the event of a deliberate and malicious violation, the 28 landlord is liable for twice the actual damages sustained by the tenant, lienholder or owner.

29 “(16) Complete compliance in good faith with this section shall constitute a complete defense in 30 any action brought by a tenant, lienholder or owner against a landlord for loss or damage to such 31 personal property disposed of pursuant to this section.

32 “(17) If a landlord does not comply with this section:

33 “(a) The tenant is relieved of any liability for damage to the premises caused by conduct that 34 was not deliberate, intentional or grossly negligent and for unpaid rent and may recover from the 35 landlord up to twice the actual damages sustained by the tenant;

36 “(b) A lienholder or owner aggrieved by the noncompliance may recover from the landlord the 37 actual damages sustained by the lienholder or owner. ORS 90.255 does not authorize an award of 38 attorney fees to the prevailing party in any action arising under this paragraph; and

39 “(c) A county tax collector aggrieved by the noncompliance may recover from the landlord the 40 actual damages sustained by the tax collector, if the noncompliance is part of an effort by the 41 landlord to defraud the tax collector. ORS 90.255 does not authorize an award of attorney fees to 42 the prevailing party in any action arising under this paragraph.

43 “(18) In the case of an abandoned recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home, 44 the provisions of this section regarding the rights and responsibilities of a tenant to the abandoned 45 vehicle, dwelling or home shall also apply to any lienholder except that the lienholder may not sell

1 or remove the vehicle, dwelling or home unless:

2 “(a) The lienholder has foreclosed its lien on the recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling 3 or floating home;

4 “(b) The tenant or a personal representative or designated person described in subsection (20) 5 of this section has waived all rights under this section pursuant to subsection (24) of this section; 6 or

7 “(c) The notice and response periods provided by subsections (6) and (8) of this section have 8 expired.

9 “(19)(a) In the case of an abandoned manufactured dwelling or floating home but not including 10 a dwelling or home abandoned following a termination pursuant to ORS 90.429 and except as pro-
11 vided by subsection (20)(d) and (e) of this section, if a lienholder makes a timely response to a notice
12 of abandoned personal property pursuant to subsections (6) and (8) of this section and so requests, 13 a landlord shall enter into a written storage agreement with the lienholder providing that the 14 dwelling or home may not be sold or disposed of by the landlord for up to 12 months. A storage 15 agreement entitles the lienholder to store the personal property on the previously rented space 16 during the term of the agreement, but does not entitle anyone to occupy the personal property.

17 “(b) The lienholder’s right to a storage agreement arises upon the failure of the tenant, owner 18 or, in the case of a deceased tenant, the personal representative, designated person, heir or devisee 19 to remove or sell the dwelling or home within the allotted time.

20 “(c) To exercise the right to a storage agreement under this subsection, in addition to contacting
21 the landlord with a timely response as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the lienholder 22 must enter into the proposed storage agreement within 60 days after the landlord gives a copy of 23 the agreement to the lienholder. The landlord shall give a copy of the proposed storage agreement
24 to the lienholder in the same manner as provided by subsection (4)(b) of this section. The landlord 25 may include a copy of the proposed storage agreement with the notice of abandoned property re-
26 quired by subsection (4) of this section. A lienholder enters into a storage agreement by signing a 27 copy of the agreement provided by the landlord and personally delivering or mailing the signed copy 28 to the landlord within the 60-day period.

29 “(d) The storage agreement may require, in addition to other provisions agreed to by the land-30 lord and the lienholder, that:

31 “(A) The lienholder make timely periodic payment of all storage charges, as described in sub-32 section (7)(d) of this section, accruing from the commencement of the 45-day period described in 33 subsection (6) of this section. A storage charge may include a utility or service charge, as described 34 in [ORS 90.510 (8)] section 6 of this 2005 Act, if limited to charges for electricity, water, sewer 35 service and natural gas and if incidental to the storage of personal property. A storage charge may 36 not be due more frequently than monthly;

37 “(B) The lienholder pay a late charge or fee for failure to pay a storage charge by the date re-38 quired in the agreement, if the amount of the late charge is no greater than for late charges de-39 scribed in the rental agreement between the landlord and the tenant; and

40 “(C) The lienholder maintain the personal property and the space on which the personal prop-41 erty is stored in a manner consistent with the rights and obligations described in the rental agree-42 ment between the landlord and the tenant.

43 “(e) During the term of an agreement described under this subsection, the lienholder shall have 44 the right to remove or sell the property, subject to the provisions of its lien. Selling the property 45 includes a sale to a purchaser who wishes to leave the dwelling or home on the rented space and

1 become a tenant, subject to any conditions previously agreed to by the landlord and tenant regard-
2 ing the landlord's approval of a purchaser or, if there was no such agreement, any reasonable con-3 ditions by the landlord regarding approval of any purchaser who wishes to leave the dwelling or 4 home on the rented space and become a tenant. The landlord also may condition approval for oc-
5 cupancy of any purchaser of the property upon payment of all unpaid storage charges and mainte-6 nance costs.

7 “(f)(A) If the lienholder violates the storage agreement, the landlord may terminate the agree-8 ment by giving at least 90 days' written notice to the lienholder stating facts sufficient to notify the 9 lienholder of the reason for the termination. Unless the lienholder corrects the violation within the 10 notice period, the agreement terminates as provided and the landlord may sell or dispose of the 11 dwelling or home without further notice to the lienholder.

12 “(B) After a landlord gives a termination notice pursuant to subparagraph (A) of this paragraph 13 for failure of the lienholder to pay a storage charge and the lienholder corrects the violation, if the 14 lienholder again violates the storage agreement by failing to pay a subsequent storage charge, the 15 landlord may terminate the agreement by giving at least 30 days' written notice to the lienholder
16 stating facts sufficient to notify the lienholder of the reason for termination. Unless the lienholder 17 corrects the violation within the notice period, the agreement terminates as provided and the land-18 lord may sell or dispose of the property without further notice to the lienholder.

19 “(C) A lienholder may terminate a storage agreement at any time upon at least 14 days' written 20 notice to the landlord and may remove the property from the rented space if the lienholder has paid 21 all storage charges and other charges as provided in the agreement.

22 “(g) Upon the failure of a lienholder to enter into a storage agreement as provided by this sub-23 section or upon termination of an agreement, unless the parties otherwise agree or the lienholder 24 has sold or removed the manufactured dwelling or floating home, the landlord may sell or dispose 25 of the property pursuant to this section without further notice to the lienholder.

26 “(20) If the personal property consists of an abandoned manufactured dwelling or floating home 27 and is considered abandoned as a result of the death of a tenant who was the only tenant and who 28 owned the dwelling or home, this section applies, except as follows:

29 “(a) Any personal representative named in a will or appointed by a court to act for the deceased 30 tenant or any person designated in writing by the tenant to be contacted by the landlord in the 31 event of the tenant's death has the same rights and responsibilities regarding the abandoned dwell-32 ing or home as a tenant.

33 “(b) The notice required by subsection (3) of this section shall be:

34 “(A) Sent by first class mail to the deceased tenant at the premises; and 35 “(B) Personally delivered or sent by first class mail to any personal representative or designated 36 person if actually known to the landlord.

37 “(c) The notice described in subsection (5) of this section shall refer to any personal represen-38 tative or designated person, instead of the deceased tenant, and shall incorporate the provisions of 39 this subsection.

40 “(d) If a personal representative, designated person or other person entitled to possession of the 41 property, such as an heir or devisee, responds by actual notice to a landlord within the 45-day period 42 provided by subsection (6) of this section and so requests, the landlord shall enter into a written 43 storage agreement with the representative or person providing that the dwelling or home may not 44 be sold or disposed of by the landlord for up to 90 days or until conclusion of any probate pro-
45 ceedings, whichever is later. A storage agreement entitles the representative or person to store the

1 personal property on the previously rented space during the term of the agreement, but does not
2 entitle anyone to occupy the personal property. If such an agreement is entered, the landlord may 3 not enter a similar agreement with a lienholder pursuant to subsection (19) of this section until the 4 agreement with the personal representative or designated person ends.

5 “(e) If a personal representative or other person requests that a landlord enter into a storage
6 agreement, subsection (19)(c), (d) and (f)(C) of this section applies, with the representative or person 7 having the rights and responsibilities of a lienholder with regard to the storage agreement.

8 “(f) During the term of an agreement described under paragraph (d) of this subsection, the rep-9 resentative or person shall have the right to remove or sell the dwelling or home, including a sale 10 to a purchaser or a transfer to an heir or devisee where the purchaser, heir or devisee wishes to 11 leave the dwelling or home on the rented space and become a tenant, subject to any conditions 12 previously agreed to by the landlord and tenant regarding the landlord’s approval for occupancy of 13 a purchaser, heir or devisee or, if there was no such agreement, any reasonable conditions by the 14 landlord regarding approval for occupancy of any purchaser, heir or devisee who wishes to leave the 15 dwelling or home on the rented space and become a tenant. The landlord also may condition ap-16 proval for occupancy of any purchaser, heir or devisee of the dwelling or home upon payment of all 17 unpaid storage charges and maintenance costs.

18 “(g) If the representative or person violates the storage agreement, the landlord may terminate 19 the agreement by giving at least 30 days’ written notice to the representative or person stating facts
20 sufficient to notify the representative or person of the reason for the termination. Unless the rep-21 resentative or person corrects the violation within the notice period, the agreement terminates as 22 provided and the landlord may sell or dispose of the dwelling or home without further notice to the 23 representative or person.

24 “(h) Upon the failure of a representative or person to enter into a storage agreement as pro-25 vided by this subsection or upon termination of an agreement, unless the parties otherwise agree 26 or the representative or person has sold or removed the manufactured dwelling or floating home, the 27 landlord may sell or dispose of the property pursuant to this section without further notice to the 28 representative or person.

29 “(21) If a governmental agency determines that the condition of a manufactured dwelling, float-30 ing home or recreational vehicle abandoned under this section constitutes an extreme health or 31 safety hazard under state or local law and the agency determines that the hazard endangers others 32 in the immediate vicinity and requires quick removal of the property, the landlord may sell or dis-33 pose of the property pursuant to this subsection. The landlord shall comply with all provisions of 34 this section, except as follows:

35 “(a) The date provided in subsection (6) of this section by which a tenant, lienholder, owner, 36 personal representative or designated person must contact a landlord to arrange for the disposition 37 of the property shall be not less than 15 days after personal delivery or mailing of the notice re-38 quired by subsection (3) of this section.

39 “(b) The date provided in subsections (8) and (9) of this section by which a tenant, lienholder, 40 owner, personal representative or designated person must remove the property shall be not less than 41 seven days after the tenant, lienholder, owner, personal representative or designated person contacts 42 the landlord.

43 “(c) The notice required by subsection (3) of this section shall be as provided in subsection (5) 44 of this section, except that:

45 “(A) The dates and deadlines in the notice for contacting the landlord and removing the property shall be consistent with this subsection;

“(B) The notice shall state that a governmental agency has determined that the property constitutes an extreme health or safety hazard and must be removed quickly; and

“(C) The landlord shall attach a copy of the agency’s determination to the notice.

“(d) If the tenant, a lienholder, owner, personal representative or designated person does not remove the property within the time allowed, the landlord or a buyer at a sale by the landlord under subsection (11) of this section shall promptly remove the property from the facility.

“(e) A landlord is not required to enter into a storage agreement with a lienholder, owner, personal representative or designated person pursuant to subsection (19) of this section.

“(22) In the case of an abandoned recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home that is owned by someone other than the tenant, the provisions of this section regarding the rights and responsibilities of a tenant to the abandoned vehicle, dwelling or home shall also apply to that owner, with regard only to the vehicle, dwelling or home, and not to any goods left inside or outside the vehicle, dwelling or home.

“(23) In the case of an abandoned motor vehicle, the procedure authorized by ORS 98.830 and 98.835 for removal of abandoned motor vehicles from private property may be used by a landlord as an alternative to the procedures required in this section.

“(24)(a) A landlord may sell or dispose of a tenant’s abandoned personal property without complying with the provisions of this section if, after termination of the tenancy or no more than seven days prior to the termination of the tenancy, the following parties so agree in a writing entered into in good faith:

“(A) The landlord;

“(B) The tenant, or for an abandonment as the result of the death of a tenant who was the only tenant, the personal representative, designated person or other person entitled to possession of the personal property, such as an heir or devisee, as described in subsection (20) of this section; and “(C) In the case of a manufactured dwelling, floating home or recreational vehicle, any owner and any lienholder.

“(b) A landlord may not, as part of a rental agreement, require a tenant, a personal representative, a designated person or any lienholder or owner to waive any right provided by this section.

“(25) Until personal property is conclusively presumed to be abandoned under subsection (9) of this section, a landlord does not have a lien pursuant to ORS 87.152 for storing the personal property.

“SECTION 18. ORS 90.425, as amended by section 57, chapter 655, Oregon Laws 2003, is amended to read:

“90.425. (1) As used in this section:

“(a) ‘Current market value’ means the amount in cash, as determined by the county assessor, that could reasonably be expected to be paid for a manufactured dwelling or floating home by an informed buyer to an informed seller, each acting without compulsion in an arm’s-length transaction occurring on the assessment date for the tax year or on the date of a subsequent reappraisal by the county assessor.

“(b) ‘Dispose of the personal property’ means that, if reasonably appropriate, the landlord may throw away the property or may give it without consideration to a nonprofit organization or to a person unrelated to the landlord. The landlord may not retain the property for personal use or benefit.

“(c) ‘Goods’ includes those goods left inside a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or

1 floating home or left upon the rental space outside a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling 2 or floating home, whether the recreational vehicle, dwelling or home is located inside or outside of 3 a facility.

4 “(d) ‘Lienholder’ means any lienholder of an abandoned recreational vehicle, manufactured 5 dwelling or floating home, if the lien is of record or the lienholder is actually known to the landlord.

6 “(e) ‘Of record’ means:

7 “(A) For a recreational vehicle that is not a manufactured structure as defined in ORS 446.561, 8 that a security interest has been properly recorded with the Department of Transportation pursuant 9 to ORS 802.200 (1)(a)(A) and 803.097.

10 “(B) For a manufactured dwelling or recreational vehicle that is a manufactured structure as 11 defined in ORS 446.561, that a security interest has been properly recorded for the manufactured 12 dwelling or recreational vehicle in the records of the Department of Consumer and Business Ser-13 vices pursuant to ORS 446.611 or on a certificate of title issued by the Department of Transportation 14 prior to July 1, 2004.

15 “(C) For a floating home, that a security interest has been properly recorded with the State
16 Marine Board pursuant to ORS 830.740 to 830.755 for a home registered and titled with the board
17 pursuant to ORS 830.715.

18 “(f) ‘Owner’ means any owner of an abandoned recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or 19 floating home, if different from the tenant and either of record or actually known to the landlord.

20 “(g) ‘Personal property’ means goods, vehicles and recreational vehicles and includes manufac-21 tured dwellings and floating homes not located in a facility. ‘Personal property’ does not include 22 manufactured dwellings and floating homes located in a facility and therefore subject to being 23 stored, sold or disposed of as provided under ORS 90.675.

24 “(2) A landlord may not store, sell or dispose of abandoned personal property except as provided 25 by this section. This section governs the rights and obligations of landlords, tenants and any 26 lienholders or owners in any personal property abandoned or left upon the premises by the tenant 27 or any lienholder or owner in the following circumstances:

28 “(a) The tenancy has ended by termination or expiration of a rental agreement or by 29 relinquishment or abandonment of the premises and the landlord reasonably believes under all the 30 circumstances that the tenant has left the personal property upon the premises with no intention 31 of asserting any further claim to the premises or to the personal property;

32 “(b) The tenant has been absent from the premises continuously for seven days after termination 33 of a tenancy by a court order that has not been executed; or 34 “(c) The landlord receives possession of the premises from the sheriff following restitution pur-35 suant to ORS 105.161.

36 “(3) Prior to selling or disposing of the tenant’s personal property under this section, the land-37 lord must give a written notice to the tenant that must be:

38 “(a) Personally delivered to the tenant; or

39 “(b) Sent by first class mail addressed and mailed to the tenant at:

40 “(A) The premises;

41 “(B) Any post-office box held by the tenant and actually known to the landlord; and 42 “(C) The most recent forwarding address if provided by the tenant or actually known to the 43 landlord.

44 “(4)(a) In addition to the notice required by subsection (3) of this section, in the case of an 45 abandoned recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home, a landlord shall also give

1 a copy of the notice described in subsection (3) of this section to:

2 “(A) Any lienholder of the recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home;

3 “(B) Any owner of the recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home;

4 “(C) The tax collector of the county where the manufactured dwelling or floating home is lo-

5 cated; and

6 “(D) The assessor of the county where the manufactured dwelling or floating home is located.

7 “(b) The landlord shall give the notice copy required by this subsection by personal delivery or

8 first class mail, except that for any lienholder, mail service must be both by first class mail and by

9 certified mail with return receipt requested.

10 “(c) A notice to lienholders under paragraph (a)(A) of this subsection must be sent to each

11 lienholder at each address:

12 “(A) Actually known to the landlord;

13 “(B) Of record; and

14 “(C) Provided to the landlord by the lienholder in a written notice that identifies the personal

15 property subject to the lien and that was sent to the landlord by certified mail with return receipt

16 requested within the preceding five years. The notice must identify the personal property by de-

17 scribing the physical address of the property.

18 “(5) The notice required under subsection (3) of this section must state that:

19 “(a) The personal property left upon the premises is considered abandoned;

20 “(b) The tenant or any lienholder or owner must contact the landlord by a specified date, as 21 provided in subsection (6) of this section, to arrange for the removal of the abandoned personal

22 property;

23 “(c) The personal property is stored at a place of safekeeping, except that if the property in-

24 cludes a manufactured dwelling or floating home, the dwelling or home must be stored on the rented

25 space;

26 “(d) The tenant or any lienholder or owner, except as provided by subsection (18) of this section,

27 may arrange for removal of the personal property by contacting the landlord at a described tele-

28 phone number or address on or before the specified date;

29 “(e) The landlord shall make the personal property available for removal by the tenant or any

30 lienholder or owner, except as provided by subsection (18) of this section, by appointment at rea-

31 sonable times;

32 “(f) If the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to subsection (2)(a) or (b)

33 of this section, the landlord may require payment of removal and storage charges, as provided by

34 subsection (7)(d) of this section, prior to releasing the personal property to the tenant or any

35 lienholder or owner;

36 “(g) If the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to subsection (2)(c) of this

37 section, the landlord may not require payment of storage charges prior to releasing the personal

38 property;

39 “(h) If the tenant or any lienholder or owner fails to contact the landlord by the specified date,

40 or after that contact, fails to remove the personal property within 30 days for recreational vehicles,

41 manufactured dwellings and floating homes or 15 days for all other personal property, the landlord

42 may sell or dispose of the personal property. If the landlord reasonably believes that the personal

43 property will be eligible for disposal pursuant to subsection (10)(b) of this section and the landlord

44 intends to dispose of the property if the property is not claimed, the notice shall state that belief

45 and intent; and

1           “(i) If the personal property includes a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating 2 home and if applicable, there is a lienholder or owner that has a right to claim the recreational 3 vehicle, dwelling or home, except as provided by subsection (18) of this section.

4           “(6) For purposes of subsection (5) of this section, the specified date by which a tenant, 5 lienholder or owner must contact a landlord to arrange for the disposition of abandoned personal 6 property is:

7           “(a) For abandoned recreational vehicles, manufactured dwellings or floating homes, not less 8 than 45 days after personal delivery or mailing of the notice; or

9           “(b) For all other abandoned personal property, not less than five days after personal delivery 10 or eight days after mailing of the notice.

11           “(7) After notifying the tenant as required by subsection (3) of this section, the landlord:

12           “(a) Shall store any abandoned manufactured dwelling or floating home on the rented space and 13 shall exercise reasonable care for the dwelling or home;

14           “(b) Shall store all other abandoned personal property of the tenant, including goods left inside 15 a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home or left upon the rented space outside 16 a recreational vehicle, dwelling or home, in a place of safekeeping and shall exercise reasonable 17 care for the personal property, except that the landlord may:

18           “(A) Promptly dispose of rotting food; and

19           “(B) Allow an animal control agency to remove any abandoned pets or livestock. If an animal 20 control agency will not remove the abandoned pets or livestock, the landlord shall exercise reason-21 able care for the animals given all the circumstances, including the type and condition of the ani-22 mals, and may give the animals to an agency that is willing and able to care for the animals, such 23 as a humane society or similar organization;

24           “(c) Except for manufactured dwellings and floating homes, may store the abandoned personal 25 property at the dwelling unit, move and store it elsewhere on the premises or move and store it at 26 a commercial storage company or other place of safekeeping; and

27           “(d) Is entitled to reasonable or actual storage charges and costs incidental to storage or dis-
28 posal, including any cost of removal to a place of storage. In the case of an abandoned manufactured 29 dwelling or floating home, the storage charge may be no greater than the monthly space rent last 30 payable by the tenant.

31           “(8) If a tenant, lienholder or owner, upon the receipt of the notice provided by subsection (3) 32 or (4) of this section or otherwise, responds by actual notice to the landlord on or before the spec-33 ified date in the landlord’s notice that the tenant, lienholder or owner intends to remove the per-34 sonal property from the premises or from the place of safekeeping, the landlord must make that 35 personal property available for removal by the tenant, lienholder or owner by appointment at rea-
36 sonable times during the 15 days or, in the case of a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling
37 or floating home, 30 days following the date of the response, subject to subsection (18) of this sec-
38 tion. If the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to subsection (2)(a) or (b) of 39 this section, but not pursuant to subsection (2)(c) of this section, the landlord may require payment 40 of removal and storage charges, as provided in subsection (7)(d) of this section, prior to allowing the 41 tenant, lienholder or owner to remove the personal property. Acceptance by a landlord of such 42 payment does not operate to create or reinstate a tenancy or create a waiver pursuant to ORS 43 90.415.

44           “(9) Except as provided in subsections (18) to (20) of this section, if the tenant, lienholder or 45 owner of a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home does not respond within the

1 time provided by the landlord's notice, or the tenant, lienholder or owner does not remove the per-
2 sonal property within the time required by subsection (8) of this section or by any date agreed to 3 with the landlord, whichever is later, the tenant's, lienholder's or owner's personal property is con-
4 clusively presumed to be abandoned. The tenant and any lienholder or owner that have been given
5 notice pursuant to subsection (3) or (4) of this section shall, except with regard to the distribution
6 of sale proceeds pursuant to subsection (13) of this section, have no further right, title or interest 7 to the personal property and may not claim or sell the property.

8 "(10) If the personal property is presumed to be abandoned under subsection (9) of this section, 9 the landlord then may:

10 "(a) Sell the personal property at a public or private sale, provided that prior to the sale of a 11 recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home:

12 "(A) The landlord may seek to transfer ownership of record of the personal property by com-13 plying with the requirements of the appropriate state agency; and

14 "(B) The landlord shall:

15 "(i) Place a notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the recreational 16 vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home is located. The notice shall state:

17 "(I) That the recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home is abandoned; 18 "(II) The tenant's and owner's name, if of record or actually known to the landlord; 19 "(III) The address and any space number where the recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling 20 or floating home is located, and any plate, registration or other identification number for a recre-21 ational vehicle or floating home noted on the certificate of title, if actually known to the landlord;

22 "(IV) Whether the sale is by private bidding or public auction;

23 "(V) Whether the landlord is accepting sealed bids and, if so, the last date on which bids will 24 be accepted; and

25 "(VI) The name and telephone number of the person to contact to inspect the recreational ve-26 hicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home;

27 "(ii) At a reasonable time prior to the sale, give a copy of the notice required by sub-28 subparagraph (i) of this subparagraph to the tenant and to any lienholder and owner, by personal 29 delivery or first class mail, except that for any lienholder, mail service must be by first class mail 30 with certificate of mailing;

31 "(iii) Obtain an affidavit of publication from the newspaper to show that the notice required 32 under sub-subparagraph (i) of this subparagraph ran in the newspaper at least one day in each of 33 two consecutive weeks prior to the date scheduled for the sale or the last date bids will be accepted; 34 and

35 "(iv) Obtain written proof from the county that all property taxes and assessments on the man-36 ufactured dwelling or floating home have been paid or, if not paid, that the county has authorized 37 the sale, with the sale proceeds to be distributed pursuant to subsection (13) of this section;

38 "(b) Destroy or otherwise dispose of the personal property if the landlord determines that:

39 "(A) For a manufactured dwelling or floating home, the current market value of the property is 40 $8,000 or less as determined by the county assessor; or

41 "(B) For all other personal property, the reasonable current fair market value is $500 or less 42 or so low that the cost of storage and conducting a public sale probably exceeds the amount that 43 would be realized from the sale; or

44 "(c) Consistent with paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, sell certain items and destroy or 45 otherwise dispose of the remaining personal property.

1       “(11)(a) A public or private sale authorized by this section must:

2       “(A) For a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home, be conducted consist-

3       ent with the terms listed in subsection (10)(a)(B)(i) of this section. Every aspect of the sale including

4       the method, manner, time, place and terms must be commercially reasonable; or

5       “(B) For all other personal property, be conducted under the provisions of ORS 79.0610.

6       “(b) If there is no buyer at a sale of a manufactured dwelling or floating home, the personal

7       property is considered to be worth $8,000 or less, regardless of current market value, and the land-

8       lord shall destroy or otherwise dispose of the personal property.

9       “(12) Notwithstanding ORS 446.155 (1) and (2), unless a landlord intentionally misrepresents the

10       condition of a manufactured dwelling or floating home, the landlord is not liable for the condition

11       of the dwelling or home to:

12       “(a) A buyer of the dwelling or home at a sale pursuant to subsection (10)(a) of this section, with

13       or without consideration; or

14       “(b) A person or nonprofit organization to whom the landlord gives the dwelling or home pur-

15       suant to subsection (1)(b), (10)(b) or (11)(b) of this section.

16       “(13)(a) The landlord may deduct from the proceeds of the sale:

17       “(A) The reasonable or actual cost of notice, storage and sale; and 18       “(B) Unpaid rent.

19       “(b) If the sale was of a manufactured dwelling or floating home, after deducting the amounts

20       listed in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the landlord shall remit the remaining proceeds, if any, to 21       the county tax collector to the extent of any unpaid property taxes and assessments owed on the 22       dwelling or home.

23       “(c) If the sale was of a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home, after de-

24       ducting the amounts listed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, if applicable, the landlord

25       shall remit the remaining proceeds, if any, to any lienholder to the extent of any unpaid balance

26       owed on the lien on the recreational vehicle, dwelling or home.

27       “(d) After deducting the amounts listed in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this subsection, if ap-

28       plicable, the landlord shall remit to the tenant or owner the remaining proceeds, if any, together

29       with an itemized accounting.

30       “(e) If the tenant or owner cannot after due diligence be found, the landlord shall deposit the 31       remaining proceeds with the county treasurer of the county in which the sale occurred. If not

32       claimed within three years, the deposited proceeds revert to the general fund of the county and are 33       available for general purposes.

34       “(14) The county tax collector shall cancel all unpaid property taxes and assessments owed on 35       a manufactured dwelling or floating home, as provided under ORS 311.790, only under one of the 36       following circumstances:

37       “(a) The landlord disposes of the manufactured dwelling or floating home after a determination

38       described in subsection (10)(b) of this section.

39       “(b) There is no buyer of the manufactured dwelling or floating home at a sale described under

40       subsection (11) of this section.

41       “(c)(A) There is a buyer of the manufactured dwelling or floating home at a sale described under

42       subsection (11) of this section;

43       “(B) The current market value of the manufactured dwelling or floating home is $8,000 or less;

44       and

45       “(C) The proceeds of the sale are insufficient to satisfy the unpaid property taxes and assess-

1 ments owed on the dwelling or home after distribution of the proceeds pursuant to subsection (13) 2 of this section.

3 “(d)(A) The landlord buys the manufactured dwelling or floating home at a sale described under 4 subsection (11) of this section;

5 “(B) The current market value of the manufactured dwelling or floating home is more than 6 $8,000;

7 “(C) The proceeds of the sale are insufficient to satisfy the unpaid property taxes and assess-8 ments owed on the manufactured dwelling or floating home after distribution of the proceeds pur-9 suant to subsection (13) of this section; and 10 “(D) The landlord disposes of the manufactured dwelling or floating home.

11 “(15) The landlord is not responsible for any loss to the tenant, lienholder or owner resulting 12 from storage of personal property in compliance with this section unless the loss was caused by the 13 landlord’s deliberate or negligent act. In the event of a deliberate and malicious violation, the 14 landlord is liable for twice the actual damages sustained by the tenant, lienholder or owner.

15 “(16) Complete compliance in good faith with this section shall constitute a complete defense in 16 any action brought by a tenant, lienholder or owner against a landlord for loss or damage to such 17 personal property disposed of pursuant to this section.

18 “(17) If a landlord does not comply with this section:

19 “(a) The tenant is relieved of any liability for damage to the premises caused by conduct that 20 was not deliberate, intentional or grossly negligent and for unpaid rent and may recover from the 21 landlord up to twice the actual damages sustained by the tenant;

22 “(b) A lienholder or owner aggrieved by the noncompliance may recover from the landlord the 23 actual damages sustained by the lienholder or owner. ORS 90.255 does not authorize an award of 24 attorney fees to the prevailing party in any action arising under this paragraph; and

25 “(c) A county tax collector aggrieved by the noncompliance may recover from the landlord the 26 actual damages sustained by the tax collector, if the noncompliance is part of an effort by the 27 landlord to defraud the tax collector. ORS 90.255 does not authorize an award of attorney fees to 28 the prevailing party in any action arising under this paragraph.

29 “(18) In the case of an abandoned recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home, 30 the provisions of this section regarding the rights and responsibilities of a tenant to the abandoned 31 vehicle, dwelling or home also apply to any lienholder except that the lienholder may not sell or 32 remove the vehicle, dwelling or home unless:

33 “(a) The lienholder has foreclosed its lien on the recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling 34 or floating home;

35 “(b) The tenant or a personal representative or designated person described in subsection (20) 36 of this section has waived all rights under this section pursuant to subsection (24) of this section; 37 or

38 “(c) The notice and response periods provided by subsections (6) and (8) of this section have 39 expired.

40 “(19)(a) In the case of an abandoned manufactured dwelling or floating home but not including 41 a dwelling or home abandoned following a termination pursuant to ORS 90.429 and except as pro-
42 vided by subsection (20)(d) and (e) of this section, if a lienholder makes a timely response to a notice
43 of abandoned personal property pursuant to subsections (6) and (8) of this section and so requests, 44 a landlord shall enter into a written storage agreement with the lienholder providing that the 45 dwelling or home may not be sold or disposed of by the landlord for up to 12 months. A storage

1 agreement entitles the lienholder to store the personal property on the previously rented space
2 during the term of the agreement, but does not entitle anyone to occupy the personal property.

3 “(b) The lienholder’s right to a storage agreement arises upon the failure of the tenant, owner
4 or, in the case of a deceased tenant, the personal representative, designated person, heir or devisee
5 to remove or sell the dwelling or home within the allotted time.

6 “(c) To exercise the right to a storage agreement under this subsection, in addition to contacting
7 the landlord with a timely response as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the lienholder 8 must enter into the proposed storage agreement within 60 days after the landlord gives a copy of 9 the agreement to the lienholder. The landlord shall give a copy of the proposed storage agreement
10 to the lienholder in the same manner as provided by subsection (4)(b) of this section. The landlord 11 may include a copy of the proposed storage agreement with the notice of abandoned property re-
12 quired by subsection (4) of this section. A lienholder enters into a storage agreement by signing a 13 copy of the agreement provided by the landlord and personally delivering or mailing the signed copy 14 to the landlord within the 60-day period.

15 “(d) The storage agreement may require, in addition to other provisions agreed to by the land-16 lord and the lienholder, that:

17 “(A) The lienholder make timely periodic payment of all storage charges, as described in sub-18 section (7)(d) of this section, accruing from the commencement of the 45-day period described in 19 subsection (6) of this section. A storage charge may include a utility or service charge, as described 20 in [ORS 90.510 (8)] section 6 of this 2005 Act, if limited to charges for electricity, water, sewer 21 service and natural gas and if incidental to the storage of personal property. A storage charge may 22 not be due more frequently than monthly;

23 “(B) The lienholder pay a late charge or fee for failure to pay a storage charge by the date re-24 quired in the agreement, if the amount of the late charge is no greater than for late charges de-25 scribed in the rental agreement between the landlord and the tenant; and

26 “(C) The lienholder maintain the personal property and the space on which the personal prop-27 erty is stored in a manner consistent with the rights and obligations described in the rental agree-28 ment between the landlord and the tenant.

29 “(e) During the term of an agreement described under this subsection, the lienholder has the 30 right to remove or sell the property, subject to the provisions of the lien. Selling the property in-31 cludes a sale to a purchaser who wishes to leave the dwelling or home on the rented space and 32 become a tenant, subject to any conditions previously agreed to by the landlord and tenant regard-
33 ing the landlord’s approval of a purchaser or, if there was no such agreement, any reasonable con-34 ditions by the landlord regarding approval of any purchaser who wishes to leave the dwelling or 35 home on the rented space and become a tenant. The landlord also may condition approval for oc-36 cupancy of any purchaser of the property upon payment of all unpaid storage charges and mainte-37 nance costs.

38 “(f)(A) If the lienholder violates the storage agreement, the landlord may terminate the agree-39 ment by giving at least 90 days’ written notice to the lienholder stating facts sufficient to notify the 40 lienholder of the reason for the termination. Unless the lienholder corrects the violation within the 41 notice period, the agreement terminates as provided and the landlord may sell or dispose of the 42 dwelling or home without further notice to the lienholder.

43 “(B) After a landlord gives a termination notice pursuant to subparagraph (A) of this paragraph 44 for failure of the lienholder to pay a storage charge and the lienholder corrects the violation, if the 45 lienholder again violates the storage agreement by failing to pay a subsequent storage charge, the

1 landlord may terminate the agreement by giving at least 30 days' written notice to the lienholder
2 stating facts sufficient to notify the lienholder of the reason for termination. Unless the lienholder 3 corrects the violation within the notice period, the agreement terminates as provided and the land-4 lord may sell or dispose of the property without further notice to the lienholder.

5 “(C) A lienholder may terminate a storage agreement at any time upon at least 14 days' written 6 notice to the landlord and may remove the property from the rented space if the lienholder has paid 7 all storage charges and other charges as provided in the agreement.

8 “(g) Upon the failure of a lienholder to enter into a storage agreement as provided by this sub-9 section or upon termination of an agreement, unless the parties otherwise agree or the lienholder 10 has sold or removed the manufactured dwelling or floating home, the landlord may sell or dispose 11 of the property pursuant to this section without further notice to the lienholder.

12 “(20) If the personal property consists of an abandoned manufactured dwelling or floating home 13 and is considered abandoned as a result of the death of a tenant who was the only tenant and who 14 owned the dwelling or home, this section applies, except as follows:

15 “(a) Any personal representative named in a will or appointed by a court to act for the deceased 16 tenant or any person designated in writing by the tenant to be contacted by the landlord in the 17 event of the tenant's death has the same rights and responsibilities regarding the abandoned dwell-18 ing or home as a tenant.

19 “(b) The notice required by subsection (3) of this section must be:

20 “(A) Sent by first class mail to the deceased tenant at the premises; and 21 “(B) Personally delivered or sent by first class mail to any personal representative or designated 22 person if actually known to the landlord.

23 “(c) The notice described in subsection (5) of this section must refer to any personal represen-24 tative or designated person, instead of the deceased tenant, and must incorporate the provisions of 25 this subsection.

26 “(d) If a personal representative, designated person or other person entitled to possession of the 27 property, such as an heir or devisee, responds by actual notice to a landlord within the 45-day period 28 provided by subsection (6) of this section and so requests, the landlord shall enter into a written 29 storage agreement with the representative or person providing that the dwelling or home may not 30 be sold or disposed of by the landlord for up to 90 days or until conclusion of any probate pro-
31 ceedings, whichever is later. A storage agreement entitles the representative or person to store the 32 personal property on the previously rented space during the term of the agreement, but does not 33 entitle anyone to occupy the personal property. If such an agreement is entered, the landlord may 34 not enter a similar agreement with a lienholder pursuant to subsection (19) of this section until the 35 agreement with the personal representative or designated person ends.

36 “(e) If a personal representative or other person requests that a landlord enter into a storage
37 agreement, subsection (19)(c), (d) and (f)(C) of this section applies, with the representative or person 38 having the rights and responsibilities of a lienholder with regard to the storage agreement.

39 “(f) During the term of an agreement described under paragraph (d) of this subsection, the rep-40 resentative or person has the right to remove or sell the dwelling or home, including a sale to a 41 purchaser or a transfer to an heir or devisee where the purchaser, heir or devisee wishes to leave 42 the dwelling or home on the rented space and become a tenant, subject to any conditions previously 43 agreed to by the landlord and tenant regarding the landlord's approval for occupancy of a purchaser, 44 heir or devisee or, if there was no such agreement, any reasonable conditions by the landlord re-45 garding approval for occupancy of any purchaser, heir or devisee who wishes to leave the dwelling

1 or home on the rented space and become a tenant. The landlord also may condition approval for 2 occupancy of any purchaser, heir or devisee of the dwelling or home upon payment of all unpaid 3 storage charges and maintenance costs.

4 “(g) If the representative or person violates the storage agreement, the landlord may terminate
5 the agreement by giving at least 30 days’ written notice to the representative or person stating facts
6 sufficient to notify the representative or person of the reason for the termination. Unless the rep-7 resentative or person corrects the violation within the notice period, the agreement terminates as 8 provided and the landlord may sell or dispose of the dwelling or home without further notice to the 9 representative or person.

10 “(h) Upon the failure of a representative or person to enter into a storage agreement as pro-11 vided by this subsection or upon termination of an agreement, unless the parties otherwise agree 12 or the representative or person has sold or removed the manufactured dwelling or floating home, the 13 landlord may sell or dispose of the property pursuant to this section without further notice to the 14 representative or person.

15 “(21) If a governmental agency determines that the condition of a manufactured dwelling, float-16 ing home or recreational vehicle abandoned under this section constitutes an extreme health or 17 safety hazard under state or local law and the agency determines that the hazard endangers others
18 in the immediate vicinity and requires quick removal of the property, the landlord may sell or dis-19 pose of the property pursuant to this subsection. The landlord shall comply with all provisions of 20 this section, except as follows:

21 “(a) The date provided in subsection (6) of this section by which a tenant, lienholder, owner, 22 personal representative or designated person must contact a landlord to arrange for the disposition 23 of the property must be not less than 15 days after personal delivery or mailing of the notice re-24 quired by subsection (3) of this section.

25 “(b) The date provided in subsections (8) and (9) of this section by which a tenant, lienholder, 26 owner, personal representative or designated person must remove the property must be not less than 27 seven days after the tenant, lienholder, owner, personal representative or designated person contacts 28 the landlord.

29 “(c) The notice required by subsection (3) of this section must be as provided in subsection (5) 30 of this section, except that:

31 “(A) The dates and deadlines in the notice for contacting the landlord and removing the prop-32 erty must be consistent with this subsection;

33 “(B) The notice must state that a governmental agency has determined that the property con-34 stitutes an extreme health or safety hazard and must be removed quickly; and 35 “(C) The landlord shall attach a copy of the agency’s determination to the notice.

36 “(d) If the tenant, a lienholder, owner, personal representative or designated person does not 37 remove the property within the time allowed, the landlord or a buyer at a sale by the landlord under 38 subsection (11) of this section shall promptly remove the property from the facility.

39 “(e) A landlord is not required to enter into a storage agreement with a lienholder, owner, 40 personal representative or designated person pursuant to subsection (19) of this section.

41 “(22) In the case of an abandoned recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home 42 that is owned by someone other than the tenant, the provisions of this section regarding the rights 43 and responsibilities of a tenant to the abandoned vehicle, dwelling or home also apply to that owner, 44 with regard only to the vehicle, dwelling or home, and not to any goods left inside or outside the 45 vehicle, dwelling or home.

1 “(23) In the case of an abandoned motor vehicle, the procedure authorized by ORS 98.830 and 2 98.835 for removal of abandoned motor vehicles from private property may be used by a landlord 3 as an alternative to the procedures required in this section.

4 “(24)(a) A landlord may sell or dispose of a tenant’s abandoned personal property without com-
5 plying with the provisions of this section if, after termination of the tenancy or no more than seven 6 days prior to the termination of the tenancy, the following parties so agree in a writing entered into 7 in good faith:

8 “(A) The landlord;

9 “(B) The tenant, or for an abandonment as the result of the death of a tenant who was the only 10 tenant, the personal representative, designated person or other person entitled to possession of the 11 personal property, such as an heir or devisee, as described in subsection (20) of this section; and 12 “(C) In the case of a manufactured dwelling, floating home or recreational vehicle, any owner 13 and any lienholder.

14 “(b) A landlord may not, as part of a rental agreement, require a tenant, a personal represen-15 tative, a designated person or any lienholder or owner to waive any right provided by this section.

16 “(25) Until personal property is conclusively presumed to be abandoned under subsection (9) of 17 this section, a landlord does not have a lien pursuant to ORS 87.152 for storing the personal prop-18 erty.

19 “SECTION 19. ORS 90.510 is amended to read:

20 “90.510. (1) Every landlord who rents a space for a manufactured dwelling or floating home shall 21 provide a written statement of policy to prospective and existing tenants. The purpose of the state-22 ment of policy is to provide disclosure of the landlord’s policies to prospective tenants and to ex-23 isting tenants who have not previously received a statement of policy. The statement of policy is 24 not a part of the rental agreement. The statement of policy shall provide all of the following infor-25 mation in summary form:

26 “(a) The location and approximate size of the space to be rented.

27 “(b) The federal fair-housing age classification and present zoning that affect the use of the 32 facility, whichever period is shorter.

34 “(e) All installation charges imposed by the landlord and installation fees imposed by govern-

2 to the statement of policy. If the recipient of the statement of policy is a tenant, the rental agree-3 ment attached to the statement of policy shall be a copy of the agreement entered by the landlord 4 and tenant.

5           “(3)(a) Prospective tenants shall receive a copy of the statement of policy before signing a rental 6 agreement;

7           “(b) Existing tenants who have not previously received a copy of the statement of policy and 8 who are on month-to-month rental agreements shall receive a copy of the statement of policy at the 9 time a 90-day notice of a rent increase is issued; and 10           “(c) All other existing tenants who have not previously received a copy of the statement of 11 policy shall receive a copy of the statement of policy upon the expiration of their rental agreement 12 and before signing a new agreement.

13           “(4) Every landlord who rents a space for a manufactured dwelling or floating home shall pro-14 vide a written rental agreement, except as provided by ORS 90.710 (2)(d), that shall be signed by the 16 except by:

17           “(a) Mutual agreement of the parties;

23           “(c) The rent per month;

24           “(d) All personal property, services and facilities to be provided by the landlord; 30           “(h) Any conditions the landlord applies in approving a purchaser of a manufactured dwelling 31 or floating home as a tenant in the event the tenant elects to sell the home. Those conditions shall 33 to pets, number of occupants and screening or admission criteria;

34           “(i) That the tenant may not sell the tenant’s manufactured dwelling or floating home to a per-41           “(L) The process by which notices shall be given by either landlord or tenant.

42           “(6) Every landlord who rents a space for a manufactured dwelling or floating home shall pro-43 vide rules and regulations concerning the tenant’s use and occupancy of the premises. A violation 44 of the rules and regulations may be cause for termination of a rental agreement. However, this 45 subsection does not create a presumption that all rules and regulations are identical for all tenants

1 at all times. A rule or regulation shall be enforceable against the tenant only if:

2 “(a) The rule or regulation:

3 “(A) Promotes the convenience, safety or welfare of the tenants;

12 “(7)(a) A landlord who rents a space for a manufactured dwelling or floating home may adopt 13 a rule or regulation regarding occupancy guidelines. If adopted, an occupancy guideline in a facility 14 shall be based on reasonable factors and shall not be more restrictive than limiting occupancy to 15 two people per bedroom.

16 “(b) As used in this subsection:

26 landlord a utility or service charge that has been billed by a utility or service provider to the landlord 27 for utility or service provided directly to the tenant’s dwelling unit or to a common area available to

31 tenant by adding any costs of the landlord, such as a handling or administrative charge, other than 32 those costs billed to the landlord by the provider for utilities or services as provided by this 33 subsection.]

34 “[b) A utility or service charge is not rent or a fee. Nonpayment of a utility or service charge shall 35 not constitute grounds for termination of a rental agreement for nonpayment of rent pursuant to ORS
36 90.400 (2), but shall constitute grounds for termination of a rental agreement for cause pursuant to ORS 37 90.630.]

38 “[c) As used in this section, ‘utility or service’ has the meaning given that term in ORS 90.315 39 (1).]

40 “[9) (8) Intentional and deliberate failure of the landlord to comply with subsections (1) to (3) 41 of this section is cause for suit or action to remedy the violation or to recover actual damages. The 42 prevailing party is entitled to reasonable attorney fees and court costs.

43 “[10) (9) A receipt signed by the potential tenant or tenants for documents required to be de-44 livered by the landlord pursuant to subsections (1) to (3) of this section is a defense for the landlord 45 in an action against the landlord for nondelivery of the documents.

1       “[(11)] (10) A suit or action arising under subsection [(9)] (8) of this section must be commenced 2 within one year after the discovery or identification of the alleged violation.

3       “[(12)] (11) Every landlord who publishes a directory of tenants and tenant services must include 4 a one-page summary regarding any tenants’ association. The tenants’ association shall provide the 5 summary to the landlord.

6       “SECTION 20. ORS 90.630 is amended to read:

7       “90.630. (1) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the landlord may terminate a 8 rental agreement that is a month-to-month or fixed term tenancy for space for a manufactured 9 dwelling or floating home by giving to the tenant not less than 30 days’ notice in writing before the 10 date designated in the notice for termination if the tenant:

12 limited to a material noncompliance with ORS 90.740;

13       “(b) Violates a rule or rental agreement provision related to the tenant’s conduct as a tenant 16       “(c) Fails to pay a:

17       “(A) Late charge pursuant to ORS 90.260;

18       “(B) Fee pursuant to ORS 90.302; or 19       “(C) Utility or service charge pursuant to [ORS 90.510 (8)] section 7 or 8 of this 2005 Act.

20       “(2) A violation making a tenant subject to termination under subsection (1) of this section in-21 cludes a tenant’s failure to maintain the space as required by law, ordinance, rental agreement or 22 rule, but does not include the physical condition of the dwelling or home. Termination of a rental 23 agreement based upon the physical condition of a dwelling or home shall only be as provided in ORS 24 90.632.

25       “(3) The notice required by subsection (1) of this section shall state facts sufficient to notify the 26 tenant of the reasons for termination of the tenancy and state that the tenant may avoid ter- 27 mination by correcting the violation as provided in subsection (4) of this section.

28       “(4) The tenant may avoid termination of the tenancy by correcting the violation within the 29 30-day period specified in subsection (1) of this section. However, if substantially the same act or 30 omission which constituted a prior violation of which notice was given recurs within six months 31 after the date of the notice, the landlord may terminate the tenancy upon at least 20 days’ written 32 notice specifying the violation and the date of termination of the tenancy.

33       “(5) The landlord of a facility may terminate a rental agreement that is a month-to-month or 34 fixed term tenancy for a facility space if the facility or a portion of it that includes the space is to 35 be closed and the land or leasehold converted to a different use, which is not required by the ex-36 ercise of eminent domain or by order of state or local agencies, by:

37       “(a) Not less than 365 days’ notice in writing before the date designated in the notice for ter-38 mination; or

39       “(b) Not less than 180 days’ notice in writing before the date designated in the notice for ter-40 mination, if the landlord finds space acceptable to the tenant to which the tenant can move the 41 manufactured dwelling or floating home and the landlord pays the cost of moving and set-up ex-42 penses or $3,500, whichever is less.

43       “(6) The landlord may:

44       “(a) Provide greater financial incentive to encourage the tenant to accept an earlier termination 45 date than that provided in subsection (5) of this section; or

1           “(b) Contract with the tenant for a mutually acceptable arrangement to assist the tenant’s move.
2           “(7) The Housing and Community Services Department shall adopt rules to implement the pro-3           visions of subsection (5) of this section.
4           “(8)(a) A landlord may not increase the rent for the purpose of offsetting the payments required 5           under this section.
6           “(b) There shall be no increase in the rent after a notice of termination is given pursuant to this 7           section.
8           “(9) This section does not limit a landlord’s right to terminate a tenancy for nonpayment of rent 9           pursuant to ORS 90.400 (2) or for other cause pursuant to ORS 90.380 (5)(b), 90.400 (3) or (9) or 10           90.632 by complying with ORS 105.105 to 105.168.
11           “(10) A tenancy shall terminate on the date designated in the notice and without regard to the 12           expiration of the period for which, by the terms of the rental agreement, rents are to be paid. Un-13           less otherwise agreed, rent is uniformly apportionable from day to day.
14           “(11) Nothing in subsection (5) of this section shall prevent a landlord from relocating a floating 15           home to another comparable space in the same facility or another facility owned by the same owner 16           in the same city if the landlord desires or is required to make repairs, to remodel or to modify the 17           tenant’s original space.
18           “(12)(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section or ORS 90.400, the landlord may 19           terminate the rental agreement for space for a manufactured dwelling or floating home because of 20           repeated late payment of rent by giving the tenant not less than 30 days’ notice in writing before 21           the date designated in that notice for termination and may take possession in the manner provided 22           in ORS 105.105 to 105.168 if: 23           “(A) The tenant has not paid the monthly rent prior to the eighth day of the rental period as 24           described in ORS 90.400 (2)(b)(A) or the fifth day of the rental period as described in ORS 90.400
25           (2)(b)(B) in at least three of the preceding 12 months and the landlord has given the tenant a notice 26           for nonpayment of rent pursuant to ORS 90.400 (2)(b) during each of those three instances of non-27           payment;
28           “(B) The landlord warns the tenant of the risk of a 30-day notice for termination with no right 29           to correct the cause, upon the occurrence of a third notice for nonpayment of rent within a 12-month 30           period. The warning must be contained in at least two notices for nonpayment of rent that precede 31           the third notice within a 12-month period or in separate written notices that are given concurrent 32           with, or a reasonable time after, each of the two notices for nonpayment of rent; and 33           “(C) The 30-day notice of termination states facts sufficient to notify the tenant of the cause for 34           termination of the tenancy and is given to the tenant concurrent with or after the third or a sub-35           sequent notice for nonpayment of rent.
36           “(b) Notwithstanding subsection (2) of this section, a tenant who receives a 30-day notice of 37           termination pursuant to this subsection shall have no right to correct the cause for the notice.
38           “(c) The landlord may give a copy of the notice required by paragraph (a) of this subsection to 39           any lienholder of the manufactured dwelling or floating home by first class mail with certificate of 40           mailing or by any other method allowed by ORS 90.150 (2) and (3). A landlord is not liable to a 41           tenant for any damages incurred by the tenant as a result of the landlord giving a copy of the notice 42           in good faith to a lienholder. A lienholder’s rights and obligations regarding an abandoned manu-43           factured dwelling or floating home shall be as provided under ORS 90.675.
44           “SECTION 21. ORS 90.675 is amended to read:
45           “90.675. (1) As used in this section:

1           “(a) ‘Current market value’ means the amount in cash, as determined by the county assessor, 2 that could reasonably be expected to be paid for personal property by an informed buyer to an in-
3 formed seller, each acting without compulsion in an arm’s-length transaction occurring on the as-4 sessment date for the tax year or on the date of a subsequent reappraisal by the county assessor.

5           “(b) ‘Dispose of the personal property’ means that, if reasonably appropriate, the landlord may 6 throw away the property or may give it without consideration to a nonprofit organization or to a 7 person unrelated to the landlord. The landlord may not retain the property for personal use or 8 benefit.

9           “(c) ‘Lienholder’ means any lienholder of abandoned personal property, if the lien is of record 10 or the lienholder is actually known to the landlord.

11           “(d) ‘Of record’ means:

12           “(A) For a manufactured dwelling, that a security interest has been properly recorded with the 13 Department of Transportation pursuant to ORS 802.200 (1)(a)(A) and 803.097 for a dwelling regis-14 tered and titled by the department pursuant to ORS 820.500.

15           “(B) For a floating home, that a security interest has been properly recorded with the State
16 Marine Board pursuant to ORS 830.740 to 830.755 for a home registered and titled with the board
17 pursuant to ORS 830.715.

18           “(e) ‘Personal property’ means only a manufactured dwelling or floating home located in a fa-
19 cility and subject to ORS 90.505 to 90.840. ‘Personal property’ does not include goods left inside a 20 manufactured dwelling or floating home or left upon a rented space and subject to disposition under 21 ORS 90.425.

22           “(2) A landlord may not store, sell or dispose of abandoned personal property except as provided 23 by this section. This section governs the rights and obligations of landlords, tenants and any 24 lienholders in any personal property abandoned or left upon the premises by the tenant or any 25 lienholder in the following circumstances:

26           “(a) The tenancy has ended by termination or expiration of a rental agreement or by 27 relinquishment or abandonment of the premises and the landlord reasonably believes under all the 28 circumstances that the tenant has left the personal property upon the premises with no intention 29 of asserting any further claim to the premises or to the personal property;

30           “(b) The tenant has been absent from the premises continuously for seven days after termination 31 of a tenancy by a court order that has not been executed; or

32           “(c) The landlord receives possession of the premises from the sheriff following restitution pur-33 suant to ORS 105.161.

34           “(3) Prior to selling or disposing of the tenant’s personal property under this section, the land-35 lord must give a written notice to the tenant that shall be:

36           “(a) Personally delivered to the tenant; or

37           “(b) Sent by first class mail addressed and mailed to the tenant at:

38           “(A) The premises;

39           “(B) Any post-office box held by the tenant and actually known to the landlord; and 40           “(C) The most recent forwarding address if provided by the tenant or actually known to the 41 landlord.

42           “(4)(a) A landlord shall also give a copy of the notice described in subsection (3) of this section 43 to:

44           “(A) Any lienholder of the personal property;

45           “(B) The tax collector of the county where the personal property is located; and

1           “(C) The assessor of the county where the personal property is located.

2           “(b) The landlord shall give the notice copy required by this subsection by personal delivery or 3 first class mail, except that for any lienholder, mail service shall be both by first class mail and by 4 certified mail with return receipt requested.

5           “(c) A notice to lienholders under paragraph (a)(A) of this subsection must be sent to each 6 lienholder at each address:

7           “(A) Actually known to the landlord;

8           “(B) Of record; and

9           “(C) Provided to the landlord by the lienholder in a written notice that identifies the personal 10 property subject to the lien and that was sent to the landlord by certified mail with return receipt 11 requested within the preceding five years. The notice must identify the personal property by de-12 scribing the physical address of the property.

13           “(5) The notice required under subsection (3) of this section shall state that:

14           “(a) The personal property left upon the premises is considered abandoned;

15           “(b) The tenant or any lienholder must contact the landlord by a specified date, as provided in 16 subsection (6) of this section, to arrange for the removal of the abandoned personal property;

17           “(c) The personal property is stored on the rented space;

18           “(d) The tenant or any lienholder, except as provided by subsection (18) of this section, may 19 arrange for removal of the personal property by contacting the landlord at a described telephone 20 number or address on or before the specified date;

21           “(e) The landlord shall make the personal property available for removal by the tenant or any 22 lienholder, except as provided by subsection (18) of this section, by appointment at reasonable times;

23           “(f) If the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to subsection (2)(a) or (b)
24 of this section, the landlord may require payment of storage charges, as provided by subsection (7)(b)
25 of this section, prior to releasing the personal property to the tenant or any lienholder;

26           “(g) If the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to subsection (2)(c) of this 27 section, the landlord may not require payment of storage charges prior to releasing the personal 28 property;

29           “(h) If the tenant or any lienholder fails to contact the landlord by the specified date or fails 30 to remove the personal property within 30 days after that contact, the landlord may sell or dispose 31 of the personal property. If the landlord reasonably believes the county assessor will determine that 32 the current market value of the personal property is $8,000 or less, and the landlord intends to 33 dispose of the property if it is not claimed, the notice shall state that belief and intent; and

34           “(i) If applicable, there is a lienholder that has a right to claim the personal property, except 35 as provided by subsection (18) of this section.

36           “(6) For purposes of subsection (5) of this section, the specified date by which a tenant or 37 lienholder must contact a landlord to arrange for the disposition of abandoned personal property 38 shall be not less than 45 days after personal delivery or mailing of the notice.

39           “(7) After notifying the tenant as required by subsection (3) of this section, the landlord:

40           “(a) Shall store the abandoned personal property of the tenant on the rented space and shall 41 exercise reasonable care for the personal property; and

42           “(b) Is entitled to reasonable or actual storage charges and costs incidental to storage or dis-43 posal. The storage charge shall be no greater than the monthly space rent last payable by the ten-44 ant.

45           “(8) If a tenant or lienholder, upon the receipt of the notice provided by subsection (3) or (4)

1 of this section or otherwise, responds by actual notice to the landlord on or before the specified date 2 in the landlord's notice that the tenant or lienholder intends to remove the personal property from 3 the premises, the landlord must make that personal property available for removal by the tenant or 4 lienholder by appointment at reasonable times during the 30 days following the date of the response,
5 subject to subsection (18) of this section. If the personal property is considered to be abandoned
6 pursuant to subsection (2)(a) or (b) of this section, but not pursuant to subsection (2)(c) of this sec-
7 tion, the landlord may require payment of storage charges, as provided in subsection (7)(b) of this 8 section, prior to allowing the tenant or lienholder to remove the personal property. Acceptance by 9 a landlord of such payment does not operate to create or reinstate a tenancy or create a waiver
10 pursuant to ORS 90.415.

11 “(9) Except as provided in subsections (18) to (20) of this section, if the tenant or lienholder does 12 not respond within the time provided by the landlord's notice, or the tenant or lienholder does not 13 remove the personal property within 30 days after responding to the landlord or by any date agreed 14 to with the landlord, whichever is later, the personal property is conclusively presumed to be 15 abandoned. The tenant and any lienholder that have been given notice pursuant to subsection (3) 16 or (4) of this section shall, except with regard to the distribution of sale proceeds pursuant to sub-17 section (13) of this section, have no further right, title or interest to the personal property and may 18 not claim or sell the property.

19 “(10) If the personal property is presumed to be abandoned under subsection (9) of this section, 20 the landlord then may:

21 “(a) Sell the personal property at a public or private sale, provided that prior to the sale:

22 “(A) The landlord may seek to transfer the certificate of title and registration to the personal 23 property by complying with the requirements of the appropriate state agency; and

24 “(B) The landlord shall:

25 “(i) Place a notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the personal 26 property is located. The notice shall state:

27 “(I) That the personal property is abandoned;

28 “(II) The tenant's name;

29 “(III) The address and any space number where the personal property is located, and if actually 30 known to the landlord, the plate, registration or other identification number as noted on the title;

31 “(IV) Whether the sale is by private bidding or public auction;

32 “(V) Whether the landlord is accepting sealed bids and, if so, the last date on which bids will 33 be accepted; and

34 “(VI) The name and telephone number of the person to contact to inspect the personal property;

35 “(ii) At a reasonable time prior to the sale, give a copy of the notice required by sub-36 subparagraph (i) of this subparagraph to the tenant and to any lienholder, by personal delivery or 37 first class mail, except that for any lienholder, mail service shall be by first class mail with certif-38 icate of mailing;

39 “(iii) Obtain an affidavit of publication from the newspaper to show that the notice required 40 under sub-subparagraph (i) of this subparagraph ran in the newspaper at least one day in each of 41 two consecutive weeks prior to the date scheduled for the sale or the last date bids will be accepted; 42 and

43 “(iv) Obtain written proof from the county that all property taxes on the personal property have 44 been paid or, if not paid, that the county has authorized the sale, with the sale proceeds to be dis-45 tributed pursuant to subsection (13) of this section; or

1       “(b) Destroy or otherwise dispose of the personal property if the landlord determines from the 2 county assessor that the current market value of the property is $8,000 or less.

3       “(11)(a) A public or private sale authorized by this section shall be conducted consistent with 4 the terms listed in subsection (10)(a)(B)(i) of this section. Every aspect of the sale including the 5 method, manner, time, place and terms must be commercially reasonable.

6       “(b) If there is no buyer at a sale described under paragraph (a) of this subsection, the personal 7 property is considered to be worth $8,000 or less, regardless of current market value, and the land-8 lord shall destroy or otherwise dispose of the personal property.

9       “(12) Notwithstanding ORS 446.155 (1) and (2), unless a landlord intentionally misrepresents the 10 condition of personal property, the landlord is not liable for the condition of the personal property 11 to:

12       “(a) A buyer of the personal property at a sale pursuant to subsection (10)(a) of this section, 13 with or without consideration; or

14       “(b) A person or nonprofit organization to whom the landlord gives the personal property pur-15 suant to subsection (1)(b), (10)(b) or (11)(b) of this section.

16       “(13)(a) The landlord may deduct from the proceeds of the sale:

17       “(A) The reasonable or actual cost of notice, storage and sale; and 18       “(B) Unpaid rent.

19       “(b) After deducting the amounts listed in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the landlord shall 20 remit the remaining proceeds, if any, to the county tax collector to the extent of any unpaid prop-21 erty taxes owed on the dwelling or home.

22       “(c) After deducting the amounts listed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, if applicable, 23 the landlord shall remit the remaining proceeds, if any, to any lienholder to the extent of any unpaid 24 balance owed on the lien on the personal property.

25       “(d) After deducting the amounts listed in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this subsection, if ap-26 plicable, the landlord shall remit to the tenant the remaining proceeds, if any, together with an 27 itemized accounting.

28       “(e) If the tenant cannot after due diligence be found, the remaining proceeds shall be deposited 29 with the county treasurer of the county in which the sale occurred, and if not claimed within three 30 years shall revert to the general fund of the county available for general purposes.

31       “(14) The county tax collector shall cancel all unpaid property taxes as provided under ORS 32 311.790 only under circumstances described in paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d) of this subsection:

33       “(a) The landlord disposes of the personal property after a determination described in subsection 34 (10)(b) of this section.

35       “(b) There is no buyer of the personal property at a sale described under subsection (11) of this 36 section.

37       “(c)(A) There is a buyer of the personal property at a sale described under subsection (11) of this 38 section;

39       “(B) The current market value of the personal property is $8,000 or less; and 40       “(C) The proceeds of the sale are insufficient to satisfy the unpaid property taxes owed on the 41 personal property after distribution of the proceeds pursuant to subsection (13) of this section.

42       “(d)(A) The landlord buys the personal property at a sale described under subsection (11) of this 43 section;

44       “(B) The current market value of the personal property is more than $8,000;

45       “(C) The proceeds of the sale are insufficient to satisfy the unpaid property taxes owed on the

1 personal property after distribution of the proceeds pursuant to subsection (13) of this section; and

2 “(D) The landlord disposes of the personal property.

3 “(15) The landlord is not responsible for any loss to the tenant or lienholder resulting from 4 storage of personal property in compliance with this section unless the loss was caused by the 5 landlord’s deliberate or negligent act. In the event of a deliberate and malicious violation, the 6 landlord is liable for twice the actual damages sustained by the tenant or lienholder.

7 “(16) Complete compliance in good faith with this section shall constitute a complete defense in 8 any action brought by a tenant or lienholder against a landlord for loss or damage to such personal 9 property disposed of pursuant to this section.

10 “(17) If a landlord does not comply with this section:

11 “(a) The tenant is relieved of any liability for damage to the premises caused by conduct that 12 was not deliberate, intentional or grossly negligent and for unpaid rent and may recover from the 13 landlord up to twice the actual damages sustained by the tenant;

14 “(b) A lienholder aggrieved by the noncompliance may recover from the landlord the actual 15 damages sustained by the lienholder. ORS 90.255 does not authorize an award of attorney fees to 16 the prevailing party in any action arising under this paragraph; and

17 “(c) A county tax collector aggrieved by the noncompliance may recover from the landlord the 18 actual damages sustained by the tax collector, if the noncompliance is part of an effort by the 19 landlord to defraud the tax collector. ORS 90.255 does not authorize an award of attorney fees to 20 the prevailing party in any action arising under this paragraph.

21 “(18) The provisions of this section regarding the rights and responsibilities of a tenant to the 22 abandoned personal property shall also apply to any lienholder, except that the lienholder may not 23 sell or remove the dwelling or home unless:

24 “(a) The lienholder has foreclosed its lien on the manufactured dwelling or floating home;

25 “(b) The tenant or a personal representative or designated person described in subsection (20) 26 of this section has waived all rights under this section pursuant to subsection (22) of this section; 27 or

28 “(c) The notice and response periods provided by subsections (6) and (8) of this section have 29 expired.

30 “(19)(a) Except as provided by subsection (20)(d) and (e) of this section, if a lienholder makes a 31 timely response to a notice of abandoned personal property pursuant to subsections (6) and (8) of 32 this section and so requests, a landlord shall enter into a written storage agreement with the 33 lienholder providing that the personal property may not be sold or disposed of by the landlord for 34 up to 12 months. A storage agreement entitles the lienholder to store the personal property on the 35 previously rented space during the term of the agreement, but does not entitle anyone to occupy the 36 personal property.

37 “(b) The lienholder’s right to a storage agreement arises upon the failure of the tenant or, in 38 the case of a deceased tenant, the personal representative, designated person, heir or devisee to 39 remove or sell the dwelling or home within the allotted time.

40 “(c) To exercise the right to a storage agreement under this subsection, in addition to contacting
41 the landlord with a timely response as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the lienholder 42 must enter into the proposed storage agreement within 60 days after the landlord gives a copy of 43 the agreement to the lienholder. The landlord shall give a copy of the proposed storage agreement
44 to the lienholder in the same manner as provided by subsection (4)(b) of this section. The landlord
45 may include a copy of the proposed storage agreement with the notice of abandoned property re-

1 quired by subsection (4) of this section. A lienholder enters into a storage agreement by signing a
2 copy of the agreement provided by the landlord and personally delivering or mailing the signed copy 3 to the landlord within the 60-day period.

4 “(d) The storage agreement may require, in addition to other provisions agreed to by the land-5 lord and the lienholder, that:

6 “(A) The lienholder make timely periodic payment of all storage charges, as described in sub-7 section (7)(b) of this section, accruing from the commencement of the 45-day period described in 8 subsection (6) of this section. A storage charge may include a utility or service charge, as described 9 in [ORS 90.510 (8)] section 6 of this 2005 Act, if limited to charges for electricity, water, sewer 10 service and natural gas and if incidental to the storage of personal property. A storage charge may 11 not be due more frequently than monthly;

12 “(B) The lienholder pay a late charge or fee for failure to pay a storage charge by the date re-13 quired in the agreement, if the amount of the late charge is no greater than for late charges imposed 14 on facility tenants;

15 “(C) The lienholder maintain the personal property and the space on which the personal prop-16 erty is stored in a manner consistent with the rights and obligations described in the rental agree-17 ment that the landlord currently provides to tenants as required by ORS 90.510 (4); and

18 “(D) The lienholder repair any defects in the physical condition of the personal property that 19 existed prior to the lienholder entering into the storage agreement, if the defects and necessary re-20 pairs are reasonably described in the storage agreement and, for homes that were first placed on 21 the space within the previous 24 months, the repairs are reasonably consistent with facility stan-22 dards in effect at the time of placement. The lienholder shall have 90 days after entering into the 23 storage agreement to make the repairs. Failure to make the repairs within the allotted time consti-24 tutes a violation of the storage agreement and the landlord may terminate the agreement by giving 25 at least 14 days’ written notice to the lienholder stating facts sufficient to notify the lienholder of 26 the reason for termination. Unless the lienholder corrects the violation within the notice period, the 27 agreement terminates as provided and the landlord may sell or dispose of the property without fur-28 ther notice to the lienholder.

29 “(e) Notwithstanding subsection (7)(b) of this section, a landlord may increase the storage 30 charge if the increase is part of a facility-wide rent increase for all facility tenants, the increase is 31 no greater than the increase for other tenants and the landlord gives the lienholder written notice
32 consistent with the requirements of ORS 90.600 (1).

33 “(f) During the term of an agreement described under this subsection, the lienholder shall have 34 the right to remove or sell the property, subject to the provisions of its lien. Selling the property 35 includes a sale to a purchaser who wishes to leave the property on the rented space and become a 36 tenant, subject to the provisions of ORS 90.680. The landlord may condition approval for occupancy 37 of any purchaser of the property upon payment of all unpaid storage charges and maintenance costs.

38 “(g)(A) Except as provided in paragraph (d)(D) of this subsection, if the lienholder violates the 39 storage agreement, the landlord may terminate the agreement by giving at least 90 days’ written 40 notice to the lienholder stating facts sufficient to notify the lienholder of the reason for the termi-
41 nation. Unless the lienholder corrects the violation within the notice period, the agreement termi-42 nates as provided and the landlord may sell or dispose of the property without further notice to the 43 lienholder.

44 “(B) After a landlord gives a termination notice pursuant to subparagraph (A) of this paragraph 45 for failure of the lienholder to pay a storage charge and the lienholder corrects the violation, if the

1 lienholder again violates the storage agreement by failing to pay a subsequent storage charge, the 2 landlord may terminate the agreement by giving at least 30 days' written notice to the lienholder
3 stating facts sufficient to notify the lienholder of the reason for termination. Unless the lienholder 4 corrects the violation within the notice period, the agreement terminates as provided and the land-5 lord may sell or dispose of the property without further notice to the lienholder.

6 "(C) A lienholder may terminate a storage agreement at any time upon at least 14 days' written 7 notice to the landlord and may remove the property from the facility if the lienholder has paid all 8 storage charges and other charges as provided in the agreement.

9 "(h) Upon the failure of a lienholder to enter into a storage agreement as provided by this 10 subsection or upon termination of an agreement, unless the parties otherwise agree or the lienholder 11 has sold or removed the property, the landlord may sell or dispose of the property pursuant to this 12 section without further notice to the lienholder.

13 "(20) If the personal property is considered abandoned as a result of the death of a tenant who 14 was the only tenant, this section applies, except as follows:

15 "(a) The provisions of this section regarding the rights and responsibilities of a tenant to the 16 abandoned personal property shall apply to any personal representative named in a will or appointed 17 by a court to act for the deceased tenant or any person designated in writing by the tenant to be 18 contacted by the landlord in the event of the tenant's death.

19 "(b) The notice required by subsection (3) of this section shall be:

20 "(A) Sent by first class mail to the deceased tenant at the premises; and 21 "(B) Personally delivered or sent by first class mail to any personal representative or designated 22 person if actually known to the landlord.

23 "(c) The notice described in subsection (5) of this section shall refer to any personal represen-24 tative or designated person, instead of the deceased tenant, and shall incorporate the provisions of 25 this subsection.

26 "(d) If a personal representative, designated person or other person entitled to possession of the 27 property, such as an heir or devisee, responds by actual notice to a landlord within the 45-day period 28 provided by subsection (6) of this section and so requests, the landlord shall enter into a written 29 storage agreement with the representative or person providing that the personal property may not 30 be sold or disposed of by the landlord for up to 90 days or until conclusion of any probate pro-
31 ceedings, whichever is later. A storage agreement entitles the representative or person to store the 32 personal property on the previously rented space during the term of the agreement, but does not 33 entitle anyone to occupy the personal property. If such an agreement is entered, the landlord may 34 not enter a similar agreement with a lienholder pursuant to subsection (19) of this section until the 35 agreement with the personal representative or designated person ends.

36 "(e) If a personal representative or other person requests that a landlord enter into a storage
37 agreement, subsection (19)(c) to (e) and (g)(C) of this section applies, with the representative or 38 person having the rights and responsibilities of a lienholder with regard to the storage agreement.

39 "(f) During the term of an agreement described under paragraph (d) of this subsection, the rep-40 resentative or person shall have the right to remove or sell the property, including a sale to a 41 purchaser or a transfer to an heir or devisee where the purchaser, heir or devisee wishes to leave 42 the property on the rented space and become a tenant, subject to the provisions of ORS 90.680. The 43 landlord also may condition approval for occupancy of any purchaser, heir or devisee of the property 44 upon payment of all unpaid storage charges and maintenance costs.

45 "(g) If the representative or person violates the storage agreement, the landlord may terminate

1 the agreement by giving at least 30 days' written notice to the representative or person stating facts
2 sufficient to notify the representative or person of the reason for the termination. Unless the rep-3 resentative or person corrects the violation within the notice period, the agreement terminates as 4 provided and the landlord may sell or dispose of the property without further notice to the repre-
5 sentative or person.

6 “(h) Upon the failure of a representative or person to enter into a storage agreement as pro-7 vided by this subsection or upon termination of an agreement, unless the parties otherwise agree 8 or the representative or person has sold or removed the property, the landlord may sell or dispose 9 of the property pursuant to this section without further notice to the representative or person.

10 “(21) If a governmental agency determines that the condition of personal property abandoned 11 under this section constitutes an extreme health or safety hazard under state or local law and the 12 agency determines that the hazard endangers others in the facility and requires quick removal of 13 the property, the landlord may sell or dispose of the property pursuant to this subsection. The 14 landlord shall comply with all provisions of this section, except as follows:

15 “(a) The date provided in subsection (6) of this section by which a tenant, lienholder, personal 16 representative or designated person must contact a landlord to arrange for the disposition of the 17 property shall be not less than 15 days after personal delivery or mailing of the notice required by 18 subsection (3) of this section.

19 “(b) The date provided in subsections (8) and (9) of this section by which a tenant, lienholder, 20 personal representative or designated person must remove the property shall be not less than seven 21 days after the tenant, lienholder, personal representative or designated person contacts the landlord.

22 “(c) The notice required by subsection (3) of this section shall be as provided in subsection (5) 23 of this section, except that:

24 “(A) The dates and deadlines in the notice for contacting the landlord and removing the prop-25 erty shall be consistent with this subsection;

26 “(B) The notice shall state that a governmental agency has determined that the property con-27 stitutes an extreme health or safety hazard and must be removed quickly; and 28 “(C) The landlord shall attach a copy of the agency's determination to the notice.

29 “(d) If the tenant, a lienholder or a personal representative or designated person does not re-30 move the property within the time allowed, the landlord or a buyer at a sale by the landlord under 31 subsection (11) of this section shall promptly remove the property from the facility.

32 “(e) A landlord is not required to enter into a storage agreement with a lienholder, personal 33 representative or designated person pursuant to subsection (19) of this section.

34 “(22)(a) A landlord may sell or dispose of a tenant's abandoned personal property without com-
35 plying with the provisions of this section if, after termination of the tenancy or no more than seven 36 days prior to the termination of the tenancy, the following parties so agree in a writing entered into 37 in good faith:

38 “(A) The landlord;

39 “(B) The tenant, or for an abandonment as the result of the death of a tenant who was the only 40 tenant, the personal representative, designated person or other person entitled to possession of the 41 personal property, such as an heir or devisee, as described in subsection (20) of this section; and

42 “(C) Any lienholder.

43 “(b) A landlord may not, as part of a rental agreement, as a condition to approving a sale of 44 property on rented space under ORS 90.680 or in any other manner, require a tenant, a personal 45 representative, a designated person or any lienholder to waive any right provided by this section.

1 “(23) Until personal property is conclusively presumed to be abandoned under subsection (9) of 2 this section, a landlord does not have a lien pursuant to ORS 87.152 for storing the personal prop-
3 erty.

4 “SECTION 22. ORS 90.675, as amended by section 58, chapter 655, Oregon Laws 2003, is 5 amended to read:

6 “90.675. (1) As used in this section:

7 “(a) ‘Current market value’ means the amount in cash, as determined by the county assessor, 8 that could reasonably be expected to be paid for personal property by an informed buyer to an in-
9 formed seller, each acting without compulsion in an arm’s-length transaction occurring on the as-10 sessment date for the tax year or on the date of a subsequent reappraisal by the county assessor.

11 “(b) ‘Dispose of the personal property’ means that, if reasonably appropriate, the landlord may 12 throw away the property or may give it without consideration to a nonprofit organization or to a 13 person unrelated to the landlord. The landlord may not retain the property for personal use or 14 benefit.

15 “(c) ‘Lienholder’ means any lienholder of abandoned personal property, if the lien is of record 16 or the lienholder is actually known to the landlord.

17 “(d) ‘Of record’ means:

18 “(A) For a manufactured dwelling, that a security interest has been properly recorded in the 19 records of the Department of Consumer and Business Services pursuant to ORS 446.611 or on a 20 certificate of title issued by the Department of Transportation prior to July 1, 2004.

21 “(B) For a floating home, that a security interest has been properly recorded with the State
22 Marine Board pursuant to ORS 830.740 to 830.755 for a home registered and titled with the board
23 pursuant to ORS 830.715.

24 “(e) ‘Personal property’ means only a manufactured dwelling or floating home located in a fa-
25 cility and subject to ORS 90.505 to 90.840. ‘Personal property’ does not include goods left inside a 26 manufactured dwelling or floating home or left upon a rented space and subject to disposition under 27 ORS 90.425.

28 “(2) A landlord may not store, sell or dispose of abandoned personal property except as provided 29 by this section. This section governs the rights and obligations of landlords, tenants and any 30 lienholders in any personal property abandoned or left upon the premises by the tenant or any 31 lienholder in the following circumstances:

32 “(a) The tenancy has ended by termination or expiration of a rental agreement or by 33 relinquishment or abandonment of the premises and the landlord reasonably believes under all the 34 circumstances that the tenant has left the personal property upon the premises with no intention 35 of asserting any further claim to the premises or to the personal property;

36 “(b) The tenant has been absent from the premises continuously for seven days after termination 37 of a tenancy by a court order that has not been executed; or

38 “(c) The landlord receives possession of the premises from the sheriff following restitution pur-39 suant to ORS 105.161.

40 “(3) Prior to selling or disposing of the tenant’s personal property under this section, the land-41 lord must give a written notice to the tenant that must be:

42 “(a) Personally delivered to the tenant; or

43 “(b) Sent by first class mail addressed and mailed to the tenant at:

44 “(A) The premises;

45 “(B) Any post-office box held by the tenant and actually known to the landlord; and

1 “(C) The most recent forwarding address if provided by the tenant or actually known to the 2 landlord.

3 “(4)(a) A landlord shall also give a copy of the notice described in subsection (3) of this section 4 to:

5 “(A) Any lienholder of the personal property;

6 “(B) The tax collector of the county where the personal property is located; and 7 “(C) The assessor of the county where the personal property is located.

8 “(b) The landlord shall give the notice copy required by this subsection by personal delivery or 9 first class mail, except that for any lienholder, mail service must be both by first class mail and by 10 certified mail with return receipt requested.

11 “(c) A notice to lienholders under paragraph (a)(A) of this subsection must be sent to each 12 lienholder at each address:

13 “(A) Actually known to the landlord;

14 “(B) Of record; and

15 “(C) Provided to the landlord by the lienholder in a written notice that identifies the personal 16 property subject to the lien and that was sent to the landlord by certified mail with return receipt
17 requested within the preceding five years. The notice must identify the personal property by de-18 scribing the physical address of the property.

19 “(5) The notice required under subsection (3) of this section must state that:

20 “(a) The personal property left upon the premises is considered abandoned;

21 “(b) The tenant or any lienholder must contact the landlord by a specified date, as provided in 22 subsection (6) of this section, to arrange for the removal of the abandoned personal property;

23 “(c) The personal property is stored on the rented space;

24 “(d) The tenant or any lienholder, except as provided by subsection (18) of this section, may 25 arrange for removal of the personal property by contacting the landlord at a described telephone 26 number or address on or before the specified date;

27 “(e) The landlord shall make the personal property available for removal by the tenant or any 28 lienholder, except as provided by subsection (18) of this section, by appointment at reasonable times;

29 “(f) If the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to subsection (2)(a) or (b)
30 of this section, the landlord may require payment of storage charges, as provided by subsection (7)(b) 31 of this section, prior to releasing the personal property to the tenant or any lienholder;

32 “(g) If the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to subsection (2)(c) of this 33 section, the landlord may not require payment of storage charges prior to releasing the personal 34 property;

35 “(h) If the tenant or any lienholder fails to contact the landlord by the specified date or fails 36 to remove the personal property within 30 days after that contact, the landlord may sell or dispose 37 of the personal property. If the landlord reasonably believes the county assessor will determine that 38 the current market value of the personal property is $8,000 or less, and the landlord intends to 39 dispose of the property if the property is not claimed, the notice shall state that belief and intent; 40 and

41 “(i) If applicable, there is a lienholder that has a right to claim the personal property, except 42 as provided by subsection (18) of this section.

43 “(6) For purposes of subsection (5) of this section, the specified date by which a tenant or 44 lienholder must contact a landlord to arrange for the disposition of abandoned personal property 45 must be not less than 45 days after personal delivery or mailing of the notice.

1 “(7) After notifying the tenant as required by subsection (3) of this section, the landlord:
2 “(a) Shall store the abandoned personal property of the tenant on the rented space and shall 3 exercise reasonable care for the personal property; and 4 “(b) Is entitled to reasonable or actual storage charges and costs incidental to storage or dis-
5 posal. The storage charge may be no greater than the monthly space rent last payable by the tenant.
6 “(8) If a tenant or lienholder, upon the receipt of the notice provided by subsection (3) or (4) 7 of this section or otherwise, responds by actual notice to the landlord on or before the specified date 8 in the landlord’s notice that the tenant or lienholder intends to remove the personal property from 9 the premises, the landlord must make that personal property available for removal by the tenant or 10 lienholder by appointment at reasonable times during the 30 days following the date of the response, 11 subject to subsection (18) of this section. If the personal property is considered to be abandoned
12 pursuant to subsection (2)(a) or (b) of this section, but not pursuant to subsection (2)(c) of this sec-
13 tion, the landlord may require payment of storage charges, as provided in subsection (7)(b) of this 14 section, prior to allowing the tenant or lienholder to remove the personal property. Acceptance by 15 a landlord of such payment does not operate to create or reinstate a tenancy or create a waiver
16 pursuant to ORS 90.415.
17 “(9) Except as provided in subsections (18) to (20) of this section, if the tenant or lienholder does 18 not respond within the time provided by the landlord’s notice, or the tenant or lienholder does not 19 remove the personal property within 30 days after responding to the landlord or by any date agreed 20 to with the landlord, whichever is later, the personal property is conclusively presumed to be 21 abandoned. The tenant and any lienholder that have been given notice pursuant to subsection (3)
22 or (4) of this section shall, except with regard to the distribution of sale proceeds pursuant to sub-23 section (13) of this section, have no further right, title or interest to the personal property and may 24 not claim or sell the property.
25 “(10) If the personal property is presumed to be abandoned under subsection (9) of this section, 26 the landlord then may:
27 “(a) Sell the personal property at a public or private sale, provided that prior to the sale:
28 “(A) The landlord may seek to transfer ownership of record of the personal property by com-29 plying with the requirements of the appropriate state agency; and 30 “(B) The landlord shall:
31 “(i) Place a notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the personal 32 property is located. The notice shall state:
33 “(I) That the personal property is abandoned;
34 “(II) The tenant’s name;
35 “(III) The address and any space number where the personal property is located, and any plate, 36 registration or other identification number for a floating home noted on the title, if actually known 37 to the landlord;
38 “(IV) Whether the sale is by private bidding or public auction; 39 “(V) Whether the landlord is accepting sealed bids and, if so, the last date on which bids will 40 be accepted; and
41 “(VI) The name and telephone number of the person to contact to inspect the personal property; 42 “(ii) At a reasonable time prior to the sale, give a copy of the notice required by sub-43 subparagraph (i) of this subparagraph to the tenant and to any lienholder, by personal delivery or 44 first class mail, except that for any lienholder, mail service must be by first class mail with certif-45 icate of mailing;

1 “(iii) Obtain an affidavit of publication from the newspaper to show that the notice required 2 under sub-subparagraph (i) of this subparagraph ran in the newspaper at least one day in each of 3 two consecutive weeks prior to the date scheduled for the sale or the last date bids will be accepted;
4 and

5 “(iv) Obtain written proof from the county that all property taxes and assessments on the per-6 sonal property have been paid or, if not paid, that the county has authorized the sale, with the sale 7 proceeds to be distributed pursuant to subsection (13) of this section; or

8 “(b) Destroy or otherwise dispose of the personal property if the landlord determines from the 9 county assessor that the current market value of the property is $8,000 or less.

10 “(11)(a) A public or private sale authorized by this section must be conducted consistent with 11 the terms listed in subsection (10)(a)(B)(i) of this section. Every aspect of the sale including the 12 method, manner, time, place and terms must be commercially reasonable.

13 “(b) If there is no buyer at a sale described under paragraph (a) of this subsection, the personal 14 property is considered to be worth $8,000 or less, regardless of current market value, and the land-15 lord shall destroy or otherwise dispose of the personal property.

16 “(12) Notwithstanding ORS 446.155 (1) and (2), unless a landlord intentionally misrepresents the 17 condition of personal property, the landlord is not liable for the condition of the personal property 18 to:

19 “(a) A buyer of the personal property at a sale pursuant to subsection (10)(a) of this section, 20 with or without consideration; or

21 “(b) A person or nonprofit organization to whom the landlord gives the personal property pur-22 suant to subsection (1)(b), (10)(b) or (11)(b) of this section.

23 “(13)(a) The landlord may deduct from the proceeds of the sale:

24 “(A) The reasonable or actual cost of notice, storage and sale; and 25 “(B) Unpaid rent.

26 “(b) After deducting the amounts listed in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the landlord shall 27 remit the remaining proceeds, if any, to the county tax collector to the extent of any unpaid prop-28 erty taxes and assessments owed on the dwelling or home.

29 “(c) After deducting the amounts listed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, if applicable,
30 the landlord shall remit the remaining proceeds, if any, to any lienholder to the extent of any unpaid 31 balance owed on the lien on the personal property.

32 “(d) After deducting the amounts listed in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this subsection, if ap-33 plicable, the landlord shall remit to the tenant the remaining proceeds, if any, together with an 34 itemized accounting.

35 “(e) If the tenant cannot after due diligence be found, the landlord shall deposit the remaining 36 proceeds with the county treasurer of the county in which the sale occurred. If not claimed within 37 three years, the deposited proceeds revert to the general fund of the county and are available for 38 general purposes.

39 “(14) The county tax collector shall cancel all unpaid property taxes and assessments as pro-40 vided under ORS 311.790 only under one of the following circumstances:

41 “(a) The landlord disposes of the personal property after a determination described in subsection 42 (10)(b) of this section.

43 “(b) There is no buyer of the personal property at a sale described under subsection (11) of this 44 section.

45 “(c)(A) There is a buyer of the personal property at a sale described under subsection (11) of this

1 section;

2 “(B) The current market value of the personal property is $8,000 or less; and

3 “(C) The proceeds of the sale are insufficient to satisfy the unpaid property taxes and assess-
4 ments owed on the personal property after distribution of the proceeds pursuant to subsection (13) 5 of this section.

6 “(d)(A) The landlord buys the personal property at a sale described under subsection (11) of this 7 section;

8 “(B) The current market value of the personal property is more than $8,000;

9 “(C) The proceeds of the sale are insufficient to satisfy the unpaid property taxes and assess-
10 ments owed on the personal property after distribution of the proceeds pursuant to subsection (13) 11 of this section; and

12 “(D) The landlord disposes of the personal property.

13 “(15) The landlord is not responsible for any loss to the tenant or lienholder resulting from 14 storage of personal property in compliance with this section unless the loss was caused by the 15 landlord’s deliberate or negligent act. In the event of a deliberate and malicious violation, the 16 landlord is liable for twice the actual damages sustained by the tenant or lienholder.

17 “(16) Complete compliance in good faith with this section shall constitute a complete defense in 18 any action brought by a tenant or lienholder against a landlord for loss or damage to such personal 19 property disposed of pursuant to this section.

20 “(17) If a landlord does not comply with this section:

21 “(a) The tenant is relieved of any liability for damage to the premises caused by conduct that 22 was not deliberate, intentional or grossly negligent and for unpaid rent and may recover from the 23 landlord up to twice the actual damages sustained by the tenant;

24 “(b) A lienholder aggrieved by the noncompliance may recover from the landlord the actual 25 damages sustained by the lienholder. ORS 90.255 does not authorize an award of attorney fees to 26 the prevailing party in any action arising under this paragraph; and

27 “(c) A county tax collector aggrieved by the noncompliance may recover from the landlord the 28 actual damages sustained by the tax collector, if the noncompliance is part of an effort by the 29 landlord to defraud the tax collector. ORS 90.255 does not authorize an award of attorney fees to 30 the prevailing party in any action arising under this paragraph.

31 “(18) The provisions of this section regarding the rights and responsibilities of a tenant to the 32 abandoned personal property also apply to any lienholder, except that the lienholder may not sell 33 or remove the dwelling or home unless:

34 “(a) The lienholder has foreclosed the lien on the manufactured dwelling or floating home;

35 “(b) The tenant or a personal representative or designated person described in subsection (20) 36 of this section has waived all rights under this section pursuant to subsection (22) of this section; 37 or

38 “(c) The notice and response periods provided by subsections (6) and (8) of this section have 39 expired.

40 “(19)(a) Except as provided by subsection (20)(d) and (e) of this section, if a lienholder makes a 41 timely response to a notice of abandoned personal property pursuant to subsections (6) and (8) of 42 this section and so requests, a landlord shall enter into a written storage agreement with the 43 lienholder providing that the personal property may not be sold or disposed of by the landlord for 44 up to 12 months. A storage agreement entitles the lienholder to store the personal property on the 45 previously rented space during the term of the agreement, but does not entitle anyone to occupy the

1 personal property.

2 “(b) The lienholder’s right to a storage agreement arises upon the failure of the tenant or, in 3 the case of a deceased tenant, the personal representative, designated person, heir or devisee to 4 remove or sell the dwelling or home within the allotted time.

5 “(c) To exercise the right to a storage agreement under this subsection, in addition to contacting
6 the landlord with a timely response as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the lienholder 7 must enter into the proposed storage agreement within 60 days after the landlord gives a copy of 8 the agreement to the lienholder. The landlord shall give a copy of the proposed storage agreement
9 to the lienholder in the same manner as provided by subsection (4)(b) of this section. The landlord
10 may include a copy of the proposed storage agreement with the notice of abandoned property re-
11 quired by subsection (4) of this section. A lienholder enters into a storage agreement by signing a 12 copy of the agreement provided by the landlord and personally delivering or mailing the signed copy 13 to the landlord within the 60-day period.

14 “(d) The storage agreement may require, in addition to other provisions agreed to by the land-15 lord and the lienholder, that:

16 “(A) The lienholder make timely periodic payment of all storage charges, as described in sub-17 section (7)(b) of this section, accruing from the commencement of the 45-day period described in 18 subsection (6) of this section. A storage charge may include a utility or service charge, as described 19 in [ORS 90.510 (8)] section 6 of this 2005 Act, if limited to charges for electricity, water, sewer 20 service and natural gas and if incidental to the storage of personal property. A storage charge may 21 not be due more frequently than monthly;

22 “(B) The lienholder pay a late charge or fee for failure to pay a storage charge by the date re-23 quired in the agreement, if the amount of the late charge is no greater than for late charges imposed 24 on facility tenants;

25 “(C) The lienholder maintain the personal property and the space on which the personal prop-26 erty is stored in a manner consistent with the rights and obligations described in the rental agree-
27 ment that the landlord currently provides to tenants as required by ORS 90.510 (4); and

28 “(D) The lienholder repair any defects in the physical condition of the personal property that 29 existed prior to the lienholder entering into the storage agreement, if the defects and necessary re-30 pairs are reasonably described in the storage agreement and, for homes that were first placed on 31 the space within the previous 24 months, the repairs are reasonably consistent with facility stan-
32 dards in effect at the time of placement. The lienholder shall have 90 days after entering into the 33 storage agreement to make the repairs. Failure to make the repairs within the allotted time consti-
34 tutes a violation of the storage agreement and the landlord may terminate the agreement by giving 35 at least 14 days’ written notice to the lienholder stating facts sufficient to notify the lienholder of 36 the reason for termination. Unless the lienholder corrects the violation within the notice period, the 37 agreement terminates as provided and the landlord may sell or dispose of the property without fur-38 ther notice to the lienholder.

39 “(e) Notwithstanding subsection (7)(b) of this section, a landlord may increase the storage 40 charge if the increase is part of a facility-wide rent increase for all facility tenants, the increase is 41 no greater than the increase for other tenants and the landlord gives the lienholder written notice
42 consistent with the requirements of ORS 90.600 (1).

43 “(f) During the term of an agreement described under this subsection, the lienholder has the 44 right to remove or sell the property, subject to the provisions of the lien. Selling the property in-45 cludes a sale to a purchaser who wishes to leave the property on the rented space and become a

1 tenant, subject to the provisions of ORS 90.680. The landlord may condition approval for occupancy
2 of any purchaser of the property upon payment of all unpaid storage charges and maintenance costs.

3 “(g)(A) Except as provided in paragraph (d)(D) of this subsection, if the lienholder violates the 4 storage agreement, the landlord may terminate the agreement by giving at least 90 days’ written 5 notice to the lienholder stating facts sufficient to notify the lienholder of the reason for the termi-
6 nation. Unless the lienholder corrects the violation within the notice period, the agreement termi-7 nates as provided and the landlord may sell or dispose of the property without further notice to the 8 lienholder.

9 “(B) After a landlord gives a termination notice pursuant to subparagraph (A) of this paragraph 10 for failure of the lienholder to pay a storage charge and the lienholder corrects the violation, if the 11 lienholder again violates the storage agreement by failing to pay a subsequent storage charge, the 12 landlord may terminate the agreement by giving at least 30 days’ written notice to the lienholder
13 stating facts sufficient to notify the lienholder of the reason for termination. Unless the lienholder 14 corrects the violation within the notice period, the agreement terminates as provided and the land-15 lord may sell or dispose of the property without further notice to the lienholder.

16 “(C) A lienholder may terminate a storage agreement at any time upon at least 14 days’ written 17 notice to the landlord and may remove the property from the facility if the lienholder has paid all 18 storage charges and other charges as provided in the agreement.

19 “(h) Upon the failure of a lienholder to enter into a storage agreement as provided by this 20 subsection or upon termination of an agreement, unless the parties otherwise agree or the lienholder 21 has sold or removed the property, the landlord may sell or dispose of the property pursuant to this 22 section without further notice to the lienholder.

23 “(20) If the personal property is considered abandoned as a result of the death of a tenant who 24 was the only tenant, this section applies, except as follows:

25 “(a) The provisions of this section regarding the rights and responsibilities of a tenant to the 26 abandoned personal property shall apply to any personal representative named in a will or appointed 27 by a court to act for the deceased tenant or any person designated in writing by the tenant to be 28 contacted by the landlord in the event of the tenant’s death.

29 “(b) The notice required by subsection (3) of this section must be:

30 “(A) Sent by first class mail to the deceased tenant at the premises; and

31 “(B) Personally delivered or sent by first class mail to any personal representative or designated 32 person if actually known to the landlord.

33 “(c) The notice described in subsection (5) of this section must refer to any personal represen-34 tative or designated person, instead of the deceased tenant, and must incorporate the provisions of 35 this subsection.

36 “(d) If a personal representative, designated person or other person entitled to possession of the 37 property, such as an heir or devisee, responds by actual notice to a landlord within the 45-day period
38 provided by subsection (6) of this section and so requests, the landlord shall enter into a written 39 storage agreement with the representative or person providing that the personal property may not 40 be sold or disposed of by the landlord for up to 90 days or until conclusion of any probate pro-
41 ceedings, whichever is later. A storage agreement entitles the representative or person to store the 42 personal property on the previously rented space during the term of the agreement, but does not 43 entitle anyone to occupy the personal property. If such an agreement is entered, the landlord may 44 not enter a similar agreement with a lienholder pursuant to subsection (19) of this section until the 45 agreement with the personal representative or designated person ends.

1 “(e) If a personal representative or other person requests that a landlord enter into a storage
2 agreement, subsection (19)(c) to (e) and (g)(C) of this section applies, with the representative or 3 person having the rights and responsibilities of a lienholder with regard to the storage agreement.

4 “(f) During the term of an agreement described under paragraph (d) of this subsection, the rep-
5 resentative or person has the right to remove or sell the property, including a sale to a purchaser 6 or a transfer to an heir or devisee where the purchaser, heir or devisee wishes to leave the property 7 on the rented space and become a tenant, subject to the provisions of ORS 90.680. The landlord also 8 may condition approval for occupancy of any purchaser, heir or devisee of the property upon pay-9 ment of all unpaid storage charges and maintenance costs.

10 “(g) If the representative or person violates the storage agreement, the landlord may terminate 11 the agreement by giving at least 30 days’ written notice to the representative or person stating facts
12 sufficient to notify the representative or person of the reason for the termination. Unless the rep-13 resentative or person corrects the violation within the notice period, the agreement terminates as 14 provided and the landlord may sell or dispose of the property without further notice to the repre-
15 sentative or person.

16 “(h) Upon the failure of a representative or person to enter into a storage agreement as pro-17 vided by this subsection or upon termination of an agreement, unless the parties otherwise agree 18 or the representative or person has sold or removed the property, the landlord may sell or dispose 19 of the property pursuant to this section without further notice to the representative or person.

20 “(21) If a governmental agency determines that the condition of personal property abandoned 21 under this section constitutes an extreme health or safety hazard under state or local law and the 22 agency determines that the hazard endangers others in the facility and requires quick removal of 23 the property, the landlord may sell or dispose of the property pursuant to this subsection. The 24 landlord shall comply with all provisions of this section, except as follows:

25 “(a) The date provided in subsection (6) of this section by which a tenant, lienholder, personal 26 representative or designated person must contact a landlord to arrange for the disposition of the 27 property must be not less than 15 days after personal delivery or mailing of the notice required by 28 subsection (3) of this section.

29 “(b) The date provided in subsections (8) and (9) of this section by which a tenant, lienholder, 30 personal representative or designated person must remove the property must be not less than seven 31 days after the tenant, lienholder, personal representative or designated person contacts the landlord.

32 “(c) The notice required by subsection (3) of this section must be as provided in subsection (5) 33 of this section, except that:

34 “(A) The dates and deadlines in the notice for contacting the landlord and removing the prop-35 erty must be consistent with this subsection;

36 “(B) The notice must state that a governmental agency has determined that the property con-37 stitutes an extreme health or safety hazard and must be removed quickly; and 38 “(C) The landlord shall attach a copy of the agency’s determination to the notice.

39 “(d) If the tenant, a lienholder or a personal representative or designated person does not re-40 move the property within the time allowed, the landlord or a buyer at a sale by the landlord under 41 subsection (11) of this section shall promptly remove the property from the facility.

42 “(e) A landlord is not required to enter into a storage agreement with a lienholder, personal 43 representative or designated person pursuant to subsection (19) of this section.

44 “(22)(a) A landlord may sell or dispose of a tenant’s abandoned personal property without com-
45 plying with the provisions of this section if, after termination of the tenancy or no more than seven

1 days prior to the termination of the tenancy, the following parties so agree in a writing entered into 2 in good faith:

3 “(A) The landlord;

4 “(B) The tenant, or for an abandonment as the result of the death of a tenant who was the only 5 tenant, the personal representative, designated person or other person entitled to possession of the 6 personal property, such as an heir or devisee, as described in subsection (20) of this section; and

7 “(C) Any lienholder.

8 “(b) A landlord may not, as part of a rental agreement, as a condition to approving a sale of 9 property on rented space under ORS 90.680 or in any other manner, require a tenant, a personal 10 representative, a designated person or any lienholder to waive any right provided by this section.

11 “(23) Until personal property is conclusively presumed to be abandoned under subsection (9) of 12 this section, a landlord does not have a lien pursuant to ORS 87.152 for storing the personal prop-13 erty.

14 “SECTION 23. ORS 90.725 is amended to read:

15 “90.725. (1) A landlord or a landlord’s agent may enter onto a rented space, not including the 16 tenant’s manufactured dwelling or floating home or an accessory building or structure, in order to 17 inspect the space, make necessary or agreed repairs, decorations, alterations or improvements, sup-18 ply necessary or agreed services, perform agreed yard maintenance, equipment servicing or grounds 19 keeping or exhibit the space to prospective or actual purchasers of the facility, mortgagees, tenants, 20 workers or contractors. The right of access of the landlord or landlord’s agent is limited as follows:

21 “(a) A landlord or landlord’s agent may enter upon the rented space without consent of the 22 tenant and without notice to the tenant for the purpose of serving notices required or permitted 23 under this chapter, the rental agreement or any provision of applicable law.

24 “(b) In case of an emergency, a landlord or landlord’s agent may enter the rented space without 25 consent of the tenant, without notice to the tenant and at any time. ‘Emergency’ includes but is not 26 limited to a repair problem that, unless remedied immediately, is likely to cause serious damage to 27 the premises. If a landlord or landlord’s agent makes an emergency entry in the tenant’s absence, 28 the landlord shall give the tenant actual notice within 24 hours after the entry, and the notice shall 29 include the fact of the entry, the date and time of the entry, the nature of the emergency and the 30 names of the persons who entered.

31 “(c) If the tenant requests repairs or maintenance in writing, the landlord or landlord’s agent, 32 without further notice, may enter upon demand, in the tenant’s absence or without consent of the 33 tenant, for the purpose of making the requested repairs until the repairs are completed. The tenant’s 34 written request may specify allowable times. Otherwise, the entry must be at a reasonable time. The 35 authorization to enter provided by the tenant’s written request expires after seven days, unless the 36 repairs are in progress and the landlord or landlord’s agent is making a reasonable effort to com-37 plete the repairs in a timely manner. If the person entering to do the repairs is not the landlord, 38 upon request of the tenant, the person must show the tenant written evidence from the landlord 39 authorizing that person to act for the landlord in making the repairs.

40 “(d)(A) If a written agreement requires the landlord to perform yard maintenance, equipment 41 servicing or grounds keeping for the space:

42 “(i) A landlord and tenant may agree that the landlord or landlord’s agent may enter for that 43 purpose upon the space, without notice to the tenant, at reasonable times and with reasonable fre-44 quency. The terms of the right of entry must be described in the rental agreement or in a separate 45 written agreement.

1 “(ii) A tenant may deny consent for a landlord or landlord’s agent to enter upon the space 2 pursuant to this paragraph if the entry is at an unreasonable time or with unreasonable frequency.
3 The tenant must assert the denial by giving actual notice of the denial to the landlord or landlord’s 4 agent prior to, or at the time of, the attempted entry.

5 “(B) As used in this paragraph:

6 “(i) ‘Yard maintenance, equipment servicing or grounds keeping’ includes, but is not limited to, 7 servicing individual septic tank systems or water pumps, weeding, mowing grass and pruning trees 8 and shrubs.

9 “(ii) ‘Unreasonable time’ refers to a time of day, day of the week or particular time that conflicts 10 with the tenant’s reasonable and specific plans to use the space.

11 “(e) In all other cases, unless there is an agreement between the landlord and the tenant to the 12 contrary regarding a specific entry, the landlord shall give the tenant at least 24 hours’ actual no-13 tice of the intent of the landlord to enter and the landlord or landlord’s agent may enter only at 14 reasonable times. The landlord or landlord’s agent may not enter if the tenant, after receiving the 15 landlord’s notice, denies consent to enter. The tenant must assert this denial of consent by giving 16 actual notice of the denial to the landlord or the landlord’s agent prior to, or at the time of, the 17 attempt by the landlord or landlord’s agent to enter.

18 “(2) A landlord shall not abuse the right of access or use it to harass the tenant. A tenant shall 19 not unreasonably withhold consent from the landlord to enter.

20 “(3) A landlord has no other right of access except:

21 “(a) Pursuant to court order;

22 “(b) As permitted by ORS 90.410 (2); [or]

23 “(c) As permitted under section 10 of this 2005 Act; or 24 “[c] (d) When the tenant has abandoned or relinquished the premises.

25 “(4) If a landlord is required by a governmental agency to enter a rented space, but the landlord 26 fails to gain entry after a good faith effort in compliance with this section, the landlord shall not 27 be found in violation of any state statute or local ordinance due to the failure.

28 “(5) If the tenant refuses to allow lawful access, the landlord may obtain injunctive relief to 29 compel access or may terminate the rental agreement pursuant to ORS 90.630 (1) and take pos-30 session in the manner provided in ORS 105.105 to 105.168. In addition, the landlord may recover 31 actual damages.

32 “(6) If the landlord makes an unlawful entry or a lawful entry in an unreasonable manner or 33 makes repeated demands for entry otherwise lawful but that have the effect of unreasonably har-34 assing the tenant, the tenant may obtain injunctive relief to prevent the reoccurrence of the conduct 35 or may terminate the rental agreement pursuant to ORS 90.620 (1). In addition, the tenant may re-36 cover actual damages not less than an amount equal to one month’s rent.

37 “SECTION 24. ORS 446.515 is amended to read:

38 “446.515. (1) It is the policy of the State of Oregon:

39 “(a) To encourage mobile home and manufactured dwelling park residents and mobile home and 40 manufactured dwelling park owners and managers to settle disputes among themselves without re-41 course, if possible, to either the court system or intervention by a state agency. [It is the policy of 42 the State of Oregon]

43 “(b) To assist mobile home and manufactured dwelling park residents and mobile home and 44 manufactured dwelling park owners and managers to develop alternative dispute resolution tech-45 niques including, but not limited to, providing technical advice in the area of mediation.

1           “(c) To educate mobile home and manufactured dwelling park residents, owners and 2 managers about issues and laws that affect mobile home and manufactured dwelling park 3 tenancies for the purpose of assisting those persons in resolving disputes.

4           “(2) The Legislative Assembly recognizes that a significant percentage of its citizens are mobile 5 home and manufactured dwelling park residents, owners or managers and that a proposal which 6 reduces the necessity of court resolution of certain disputes between these residents, owners and 7 managers may help these citizens avoid the expense of going to court.

8           “(3) All citizens of this state benefit when the courts are reserved for the resolution of the types 9 of disputes for which no alternative dispute resolution exists.

10          “SECTION 25. (1) The Housing and Community Services Department may not assess a 11 civil penalty under section 4 of this 2005 Act for a violation of section 2 of this 2005 Act that 12 occurs before 30 days after the effective date of this 2005 Act.

13          “(2) The Housing and Community Services Department may not impose a civil penalty 14 under section 4 of this 2005 Act for a violation of section 3 of this 2005 Act that occurs before 15 the completion date of the first continuing education class offered under section 3 of this 16 2005 Act.

17          “(3) Section 14 of this 2005 Act applies to tenancies that commence on or after the ef-18 fective date of this 2005 Act.

19          “SECTION 26. Sections 2 to 4 of this 2005 Act are repealed January 2, 2012.”.
