Relating to professional real estate activity; creating new provisions; and amending ORS 696.026, 696.241, 696.301, 696.805, 696.810 and 696.990.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. ORS 696.026 is amended to read:

696.026. (1) A real estate broker or principal real estate broker may conduct business under the broker's name or may register a business name with the Real Estate Agency. Registering a business name allows the real estate broker or principal real estate broker to conduct professional real estate activity in the registered business name. The registered business name has no license standing independent of the broker registering the business.

(2) The agency by rule shall adopt a registration system for business names. The system shall allow the registration of any branch office of either a real estate broker or a principal real estate broker acting as a sole practitioner.

(3) A real estate broker or principal real estate broker operating under a business name registered by the broker need not be an owner or officer of any organization otherwise lawfully entitled to use the registered business name or have an ownership interest in the registered name. However, all professional real estate activity conducted by or on behalf of the broker must be conducted under the business name registered by the broker.

(4) A real estate broker or principal real estate broker may register two or more business names if the business names are for affiliated or subsidiary business organizations. If a real estate broker or principal real estate broker registers the business names for two or more affiliated or subsidiary business organizations, the broker may conduct professional real estate activity separately under each business name. A real estate broker or principal real estate broker must supervise and control the professional real estate activity conducted under the broker's name or registered business name.

(5) A real estate broker employed, engaged or supervised by a principal real estate broker for required training and supervision by the principal real estate broker may have an ownership interest in any business through which the principal broker conducts professional real estate activity, but may not control or supervise the professional real estate activity of the principal broker and may not interfere with or be responsible for the training and supervision of any other broker.

(6) A nonlicensed person may have an ownership interest in any business through which a real estate broker or principal real estate broker engages in professional real estate activity, but may not control or supervise the professional real estate activity of any real estate broker or principal real estate broker licensed to control or supervise the professional real estate activity of such business.

(7) A real estate business in which two or more real estate brokers engage in professional real estate activity may not have two or more principal real estate brokers who are jointly responsible for the supervision and control of the professional real estate activity conducted through the business, unless the principal brokers enter into a written agreement and have written office policies dividing control and supervision responsibilities.

(8) Two or more principal real estate brokers operating under the same registered business name who have engaged one or more real estate brokers for training or supervision or who have supervisory control over other principal real estate brokers may not be jointly responsible for the supervision and control of the real estate brokers engaged by them or the other principal real estate brokers under their supervision unless the principal brokers enter into a written agreement and have written office policies dividing control and supervision responsibilities.

(9) Two or more principal real estate brokers operating under the same registered business name who have engaged one or more real estate brokers to provide administrative or managerial services may not be jointly responsible for supervision and control of the real estate brokers providing administrative or managerial services unless the principal brokers enter into a written agreement and have written office policies dividing the responsibilities for control and supervision.

(10) Two or more real estate brokers operating under the same registered business name who do not exercise any administrative or supervisory control over one another are solely responsible for their own professional real estate activity.

(11) Notwithstanding any other provision of ORS 696.010 to 696.495, 696.600 to 696.785, 696.800 to 696.855, 696.990 and 696.995, a broker associated with a principal broker may create a corporation, limited liability company, limited liability partnership or any other lawfully constituted business organization for the purpose of receiving commission payments from the principal broker. A business organization created under this subsection may not be licensed under ORS 696.022 or conduct in its own name professional real estate activity requiring a real estate license.

SECTION 2. ORS 696.241 is amended to read:

696.241. (1) Each real estate broker who is a sole practitioner and each principal real estate broker shall maintain in this state one or more separate bank accounts that shall be designated a Clients' Trust Account in which all trust funds received or handled by the broker and the real estate licensees subject to the supervision of the broker on behalf of any other person shall be deposited unless, pursuant to written agreement of all parties having an interest in the trust funds, the trust funds are immediately placed in a neutral escrow depository in this state.

(2) Each real estate broker or principal real estate broker shall file with the Real Estate Agency, on forms approved by the Real Estate Commissioner, a statement identifying the name of the bank or banks, account number or account numbers, and name of account or accounts for each Clients' Trust Account maintained.

(3) Each real estate broker or principal real estate broker shall authorize the agency, by a form approved by the commissioner, to examine any Clients' Trust Account, by a duly authorized representative of the agency. The examination shall be made at such times as the commissioner may direct.

(4) If a real estate broker or principal real estate broker maintains a separate Clients' Trust Account in a branch office, a separate bookkeeping system shall be maintained in the branch office, provided a copy of the records required by the provisions of ORS 696.280 are maintained in the main office of the broker.

(5) Trust funds received by a real estate broker or principal real estate broker may be placed by the broker in a federally insured interest-bearing bank account, designated a Clients' Trust Account, but only with the prior written approval of all parties having an interest in the trust funds. The real estate broker or principal real estate broker shall select a qualified public benefit corporation to receive the interest earnings.

(7) A real estate broker or principal real estate broker is not entitled to any part of any interest earnings on trust funds deposited under subsection (5) of this section or to any part of the earnest money or other money paid to the broker in connection with any real estate transaction as part or all of the broker's commission or fee until the transaction has been completed or terminated. The question of the disposition of forfeited earnest money shall be negotiated between the real estate broker or principal real estate broker and the seller at the time of executing any listing agreement or earnest money agreement. The result of such negotiation shall be filled in on the agreement form at the time of signing by the seller and either separately initialed by the seller or placed immediately above the signature of the seller.

(8) Clients' Trust Account funds are not subject to execution or attachment on any claim against a real estate broker or principal real estate broker.

(9) No person shall knowingly keep or cause to be kept any funds or money in any bank under the heading of Clients' Trust Account or any other name designating such funds or money as belonging to the clients of any real estate broker or principal real estate broker, except actual trust funds deposited with the broker.

(10) The agency by rule shall establish a procedure for disbursement of disputed funds from a Clients' Trust Account to the person who delivered the funds to the real estate broker or principal real estate broker. The procedure shall allow disbursement not more than 20 days after a request is made for the disbursement. Any disbursement pursuant to the procedure does not affect the claim of any other person to the funds.

[(10)] (11) The agency may provide by rules for other records to be maintained and for the manner in which trust funds are deposited, held and disbursed.

SECTION 2a. If House Bill 2096 becomes law, section 2 of this 2005 Act (amending ORS 696.241) is repealed and ORS 696.241, as amended by section 18, chapter 116, Oregon Laws 2005 (Enrolled House Bill 2096), is amended to read:
