22 “(10) All personal property that is used or intended to be used to commit or facilitate 23 prohibited conduct.

24 “SECTION 5. (1) A person who delivers property in obedience to an order or direction to 25 deliver the property under this section is not liable:

26 “(a) To any person on account of obedience to the order or direction; or 27 “(b) For any costs incurred on account of any contamination of the delivered property.

28 This includes, but is not limited to, any disposal costs for any property forfeited under sec-
29 tion 4 of this 2005 Act, any hazardous waste or material, any contraband or any other con-30 tamination contained in property seized under this section.

31 “(2) In addition to seizures authorized by ORS 133.535, a police officer may seize property 32 without a court order if the police officer has probable cause to believe that the property is 33 subject to criminal forfeiture.

34 “(3) Except as provided in section 6 of this 2005 Act, with regard to cash or other assets 35 that at the time of seizure are held in any form of account in a financial institution, if the 36 property is in whole or in part intangible, the person having control or custody of the prop-37 erty shall deliver the same over to the police officer.

38 “(4)(a) A police officer may seize property pursuant to an order of the court. Forfeiture 39 counsel or a seizing agency may apply for an ex parte order directing seizure of specified 40 property.

41 “(b) Application may be made to any judge as defined in ORS 133.525. The application 42 must be supported by one or more affidavits setting forth the facts and circumstances 43 tending to show where the objects of the seizure are to be found. The court shall issue the 44 order upon a finding of probable cause to believe that the described property is subject to 45 criminal forfeiture. The order may be set out on the face of a search warrant.

1       “(c) Except as provided in section 6 of this 2005 Act, with regard to cash or other assets 2 that at the time of seizure are held in any form of account in a financial institution, if the 3 property is in whole or in part intangible, the order shall direct any person having control 4 or custody of the property to deliver the same over to the seizing agency or to the court to 5 abide judgment.

6       “(5) Property may be constructively seized by posting notice of seizure for criminal 7 forfeiture on it or by filing notice of seizure for criminal forfeiture or notice of pending 8 criminal forfeiture in the public records that impart constructive notice of matters relating 9 to such property. A notice that is filed must include a description of the property that is the 10 subject of the seizure. Real property, including interests arising out of land sale contracts, 11 may be seized only upon recording a notice of seizure containing a legal description of the 12 property in the mortgage records of the county in which the real property is located.

13       “(6) Promptly upon seizure, the officer who seized the property shall make an inventory 14 of the property seized and shall deliver a receipt embodying the inventory to the person from 15 whose possession the property is taken or to the person in apparent control of the property
16 at the time it is seized. If the property is unoccupied or there is no one present in apparent 17 control, the officer shall leave the receipt suitably affixed to the property. If the property 18 is physically removed from the location of seizure and it is unoccupied or there is no one 19 present in apparent control, then the officer shall promptly file the receipt in the public re-20 cords of the seizing agency. Every receipt prepared under this subsection shall contain, in 21 addition to an inventory of the property seized, the following information:

22       “(a) The identity of the seizing agency; and

23       “(b) The address and telephone number of the office or other place where the person may 24 obtain further information concerning the criminal forfeiture.

25       “(7) In the event that property is seized from the possession of a person who asserts a 26 possessory lien over such property pursuant to applicable law, notwithstanding any other 27 provision of law, any lien of the person from whom the property was seized remains in effect 28 and is enforceable as fully as though the person had retained possession of the property.

29       “SECTION 6. (1)(a) Except as otherwise provided in sections 1 to 18 of this 2005 Act, 30 property seized for criminal forfeiture is not subject to replevin, conveyance, sequestration
31 or attachment. The seizure of property or the commencement of a criminal forfeiture pro-
32 ceeding under sections 1 to 18 of this 2005 Act does not abate, impede or in any way delay 33 the initiation or prosecution of a suit or action by a financial institution for the possession 34 of seized property in which the financial institution has or purports to have a lien or security 35 interest or for the foreclosure of such lien or security interest. A financial institution may 36 proceed with any suit or action involving property in which it has a lien or security interest 37 even though a seizure has occurred and criminal forfeiture proceedings have been or will be 38 commenced. If property that may be subject to criminal forfeiture is sold prior to the con-39 clusion of the forfeiture proceedings, the sheriff, trustee or other person who is conducting 40 the sale and who has actual notice of the forfeiture proceedings shall distribute the sale 41 proceeds as follows:

42       “(A) To the expenses of the sale;

43       “(B) To the payment of the obligations owed to the foreclosing financial institution that 44 are secured by the property and to any other person whose lien or security interest in the 45 property has been foreclosed in the suit or action in the order determined by the court; and

1       “(C) The surplus, if any, shall be distributed to the seizing agency, or to the court in 2 which the forfeiture proceedings are pending.

3       “(b) The sheriff, trustee or other person who distributes the sale proceeds as provided 4 in this subsection is not liable to any person who has or asserts an interest in the property.

5       “(2) Within 30 days following seizure of property for criminal forfeiture, the seizing 6 agency, in consultation with the district attorney of the county in which the property was 7 seized for forfeiture, shall determine whether it will seek the forfeiture of the property. If 8 the seizing agency elects not to seek forfeiture, it shall pay all costs and expenses relating 9 to towing and storage of the property, and shall cause to be discharged any possessory 10 chattel liens arising under ORS 87.152 to 87.162 that have attached to the property since its 11 seizure and release the property. The property may be released to a person other than the 12 person from whose custody or control the property was taken if the seizing agency or 13 forfeiture counsel first mails to the last-known addresses of all persons known to have an 14 interest in the property a notice of intent to release the property. The notice must specify 15 the person to whom the property is to be released and must detail the time and place of the 16 release. An agency that complies with the provisions of this subsection by paying costs and 17 expenses of towing and storage, discharging possessory liens, mailing any required notices 18 and releasing the property is not liable for its actions under this subsection or for any con-19 sequences thereof.

20       “(3) A seizing agency shall, pending criminal forfeiture and final disposition and subject 21 to the need to retain the property in any criminal proceeding, provide that property in the 22 physical custody of the seizing agency be serviced or maintained as may be reasonably ap-23 propriate to preserve the value of the property.

24       “(4) A seizing agency may, pending criminal forfeiture and final disposition and subject 25 to the need to retain seized property in any criminal proceeding:

26       “(a) Provide that the seized property be transferred for criminal forfeiture to any city, 27 county, state or federal agency with criminal forfeiture authority, provided that no such 28 transfer may have the effect of diminishing or reducing the rights of any third party under 29 sections 1 to 18 of this 2005 Act.

30       “(b) Apply to the court for an order providing that the seized property may be sold, 31 leased, rented or operated in the manner and on the terms that may be specified in the 32 court’s order. The court shall deny any application unless the sale, lease, rental or operation 33 of the property will be conducted in a commercially reasonable manner and will not result 34 in a material reduction of the property’s value. The court may enter an order only:

35       “(A) After notice and opportunity to be heard is provided to all persons known to have 36 or to claim an interest in the property; and 37       “(B) With the consent of all persons holding security interests of record in the property.

38       “(c) Provide that the seized property be removed to a storage area for safekeeping.

39       “(5) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the seizing agency shall hold the proceeds 40 of the sale, leasing, renting or operation under subsection (4) of this section and the rights 41 of holders of security interests of record in the property attach to the proceeds of the sale, 42 leasing, renting or operation in the same order of priority as interests attached to the 43 property.

44       “(6)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection and except for currency 45 with apparent or known intrinsic collector value, all cash seized for criminal forfeiture, to-

1    gether with all cash received from the sale, leasing, renting or operation of the property, 2    must be immediately deposited in an insured interest-bearing forfeiture trust account or 3    accounts maintained by the seizing agency exclusively for this purpose. Cash may be retained 4    as evidence in a criminal proceeding but must be deposited immediately when the need to 5    retain it as evidence is discharged.

6       “(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection, all cash seized for criminal forfei-7    ture that at the time of seizure is deposited in any form of account in a financial institution 8    may remain in the account in the financial institution. From the time of seizure until the 9    criminal forfeiture proceeding is abandoned, or until a court ultimately enters a judgment 10   granting or denying criminal forfeiture or enters a judgment of dismissal, all deposits except 11   the deposit of interest by the financial institution, withdrawals or other transactions in-12   volving the account are prohibited, unless approved by the court.

13       “(c) Subject to any court order, interest earned upon cash deposited in a forfeiture trust 14   account or held in an account in a financial institution under this subsection must be dis-15   bursed as follows:

16       “(A) If the criminal forfeiture proceeding is abandoned, or if the court ultimately enters 17   a judgment denying criminal forfeiture or a judgment of dismissal, the seizing agency shall 18   pay any interest earned, together with the cash deposited in the forfeiture trust account in 19   connection with the seizure in question, to the person from whom it was seized, and the 20   seizing agency shall release any interest earned, together with the cash deposited in an ac-21   count in a financial institution, to the person from whom it was seized.

22       “(B) If a judgment of criminal forfeiture is entered, but parties other than the seizing 23   agency establish rights to portions of the amount that are in the aggregate larger than or 24   equal to the cash on deposit plus interest earned thereon, the seizing agency shall disburse 25   the interest, together with the cash on deposit, to the parties in the order of their priority.

26       “(C) If a judgment of criminal forfeiture is entered and the total amount arising out of 27   the seizure that is on deposit in the forfeiture trust account or in an account in a financial 28   institution, including interest earned on moneys deposited, is greater than the aggregate 29   amount needed to satisfy the established interests of security interest holders, lienholders 30   and other claimants, the seizing agency shall retain the balance remaining after payment by 31   the seizing agency to parties.

32       “(7) If the property seized for criminal forfeiture consists of stocks, bonds, promissory 33   notes or other security or evidence of indebtedness, and the property is held in some form 34   of account in a financial institution, the property may remain in the account pending a final 35   decision in the criminal forfeiture proceedings. Unless otherwise allowed by order of the 36   court, no transactions involving the account may be permitted other than the deposit or 37   reinvestment of dividends or other normally recurring payments on the property. Any ac-38   crual to the value of the property during the pendency of criminal forfeiture proceedings 39   must be disbursed in the manner provided for the disbursement of interest under subsection 40   (6) of this section.

41       “(8) When property has been seized for criminal forfeiture or a notice of criminal forfei-42   ture has been filed, an owner of or interest holder in the property may file a motion seeking 43   an order to show cause. The motion must be filed no later than 15 days after the owner or 44   interest holder received notice or actual knowledge of the seizure, whichever is earlier. At 45   the time a person files a motion under this subsection, the person must serve a copy of the

1 motion on the forfeiture counsel and the defendant, if any. When a motion is filed under this 2 subsection, the court shall issue an order to show cause to the seizing agency for a hearing 3 on the sole issue of whether probable cause for criminal forfeiture of the property exists. If 4 the court finds that there is no probable cause for criminal forfeiture of the property, the 5 property seized for criminal forfeiture or subjected to the notice of criminal forfeiture must 6 be released pending the outcome of a judicial proceeding under section 12 of this 2005 Act.
7 As used in this subsection, 'owner' or 'interest holder' does not include the defendant.

8 "SECTION 7. (1) Whenever a seizing agency intends to forfeit any real property under 9 sections 1 to 18 of this 2005 Act, the seizing agency may have recorded by the county clerk 10 or other recorder of deeds of every county in which any part of the premises or real property 11 lies a notice of intent to forfeit real property under ORS 205.246. The notice must contain 12 the legal description of the real property, the common address of the property, if any, and 13 the name of the forfeiture counsel. From the time of recording the notice, and from that 14 time only, the intent to forfeit is notice to purchasers and holders of encumbrances of the 15 rights and equities in the premises of the party filing the notice. The notice must be recorded 16 in the same book and in the same manner in which mortgages are recorded and may be 17 discharged in like manner as mortgages are discharged, either by such party or the attorney 18 signing the notice.

19 "(2) Unless otherwise prescribed by law, a seizing agency recording a notice of intent to 37 include information regarding the right to file a claim under subsection (2) of this section, 38 if applicable, and the deadline for filing the claim. If the property is cash in the amount of 45 “(2) Except as otherwise provided in section 11 (1) to (3) of this 2005 Act, if notice of

1 seizure for criminal forfeiture:

2 “(a) Is given in a manner other than by publication, any person, other than the defend-3 ant, claiming an interest in the property must file a claim with the forfeiture counsel within 4 21 days after service of notice of seizure for criminal forfeiture.

5 “(b) Is published, any person, other than the defendant, claiming an interest in the 6 property must file a claim with the forfeiture counsel within 21 days after the last publica-7 tion date.

8 “(3) An extension for the filing of a claim under subsection (2) of this section may not 9 be granted. The claim must be signed by the claimant under penalty of perjury and must set 10 forth all of the following:

11 “(a) The true name of the claimant;

12 “(b) The address at which the claimant will accept future mailings from the court or the 13 forfeiture counsel; and 14 “(c) A statement that the claimant has an interest in the seized property.

15 “(4) If a seizing agency publishes notice of seizure for criminal forfeiture in a newspaper 16 in the manner provided by subsection (1) of this section, the agency may include in a single 17 publication as many notices of criminal forfeiture as the agency considers convenient. The 18 publication may contain a single statement of matters from the notices of criminal forfeiture 19 that are common to all of the notices and that would otherwise result in needless repetition.
20 The publication must contain for each notice of criminal forfeiture a separate copy of the 21 inventory prepared pursuant to section 5 of this 2005 Act, and a separate statement of the 22 identity of the person from whose custody the property was seized. The published inventory 23 need not contain estimates of value for the property seized.

24 “SECTION 9. (1) A person, other than the defendant, claiming an interest in property
25 seized under sections 1 to 18 of this 2005 Act may file a petition for an expedited hearing 26 within 15 days after notice of seizure for criminal forfeiture or within such further time as 27 the court may allow for good cause shown.

28 “(2) A petition for an expedited hearing must contain a claim if no claim has previously 29 been filed. The petition must reflect whether the petitioner seeks one or more of the fol-30 lowing:

31 “(a) A determination at the hearing that the petitioner is a bona fide purchaser for value 32 and did not acquiesce in the prohibited conduct.

33 “(b) An order restoring custody of seized property to the petitioner during the pendency 34 of the proceedings if the court finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that it is probable 35 that the property will remain available for forfeiture at the completion of the proceedings 36 and that there is a reasonable possibility that the petitioner will ultimately prevail in the 37 proceeding.

38 “(c) Appointment of a receiver.

39 “(3) A person filing a petition under this section shall serve a copy of the petition on all 40 persons known to have an interest. Service must be accomplished as provided in ORCP 7 D.
41 Service by publication is not required prior to an expedited hearing.

42 “(4) The court shall hold a hearing within 15 days after service of all persons known to 43 have an interest or at such later time as the court may allow for good cause shown. The 44 hearing is limited to:

45 “(a) Deciding whether the petitioner can prove that the petitioner is a bona fide pur-

1 chaser for value and did not acquiesce in the prohibited conduct;

2 “(b) Determining whether an order should be entered directing the return of the seized 3 property to the claimant during the pendency of the hearing; and 4 “(c) Determining whether an order should be entered directing the appointment of a re-5 ceiver to manage property seized pursuant to sections 1 to 18 of this 2005 Act pending a final 6 determination as to the disposition of the property, if the petitioner or the seizing agency 7 requests that order.

8 “(5) The parties to a proceeding under section 12 of this 2005 Act may at any time stip-9 ulate to the entry of an order restoring custody of seized property to a petitioner who claims 10 an interest in the property. The order must comply with the requirements of section 10 (1) 11 of this 2005 Act.

12 “SECTION 10. (1) An order restoring custody to a petitioner under section 9 of this 2005 13 Act shall:

14 “(a) Prohibit the petitioner from using the property in unlawful conduct of any kind, or 15 from allowing the property to be used by any other person in unlawful conduct;

16 “(b) Require the petitioner to service and maintain the property as may be reasonably 17 appropriate to preserve the value of the property; and

18 “(c) Require the petitioner to inform the court of the exact location of the property at 19 the time of any judicial proceeding under section 12 of this 2005 Act and to deliver the 20 property to the seizing agency immediately upon the issuance of a judgment of criminal 21 forfeiture.

22 “(2) An order restoring custody to a petitioner under section 9 of this 2005 Act may in-23 clude such other requirements as the court finds appropriate pending a final determination 24 as to the disposition of the property.

25 “(3) An order restoring custody to a petitioner under section 9 of this 2005 Act is en-26 forceable by a contempt proceeding brought on the relation of forfeiture counsel, by a fur-27 ther order directing the petitioner to deliver the property to the custody of the seizing 28 agency, by an order awarding to the seizing agency its reasonably incurred attorney fees, 29 costs and investigative expenses, and by such other remedies or relief as the court finds 30 appropriate.

31 “SECTION 11. (1)(a) A financial institution holding an interest in property seized under 32 sections 1 to 18 of this 2005 Act shall respond to a notice of seizure for criminal forfeiture 33 by filing an affidavit with the court establishing that the financial institution’s interest in 34 the property was acquired:

35 “(A) In the regular course of business as a financial institution;

36 “(B) For valuable consideration;

37 “(C) Without knowledge of the prohibited conduct;

38 “(D) In good faith and without intent to defeat the interest of any potential seizing 39 agency; and

40 “(E) With respect to personal property, prior to the seizure of the property, or with re-41 spect to real property, recorded prior to the recording of notice of the seizure of the real 42 property in the mortgage records of the county in which the real property is located.

43 “(b) Failure to file an affidavit constitutes a default. The affidavit must be filed within 44 30 days from the date of service under section 8 of this 2005 Act.

45 “(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, any person, other

1 than a financial institution, who transfers or conveys an interest in real property pursuant 2 to a contract for transfer or conveyance of an interest in real property as defined in ORS 3 93.905 and who retains an interest in the real property, or any successor in interest, may 4 respond to a notice of seizure for criminal forfeiture by filing an affidavit with the court 5 establishing that the person:

6 “(a) Received the interest in return for valuable consideration or by way of devise or 7 intestate succession;

8 “(b) Had no knowledge at the time of transfer or conveyance of the prohibited conduct;

9 “(c) Acted in good faith and without intent to defeat the interest of any potential seizing 10 agency;

11 “(d) Recorded the interest in the mortgage records of the county in which the real 12 property is located prior to the recording of any notice of intent to seize or notice of seizure; 13 and

14 “(e) Continued to hold the interest without acquiescing in the prohibited conduct.

15 “(3) The affidavit permitted by subsection (2) of this section must be filed within 30 days 16 from the date of service under section 8 of this 2005 Act. Failure to file an affidavit as set 17 forth in subsection (2) of this section constitutes a default.

18 “(4) In response to an affidavit filed under subsection (2) of this section, the seizing 19 agency may controvert any or all of the assertions made in the affidavit. The affidavit of the 20 seizing agency must be filed with the court within 20 days after the date the affidavit is filed 21 under subsection (2) of this section. The transferor, conveyer or successor in interest may 22 respond, within five days after the filing of the affidavit of the seizing agency, with a sup-23 plemental affidavit limited to the matters stated in the affidavit of the seizing agency. If the 24 seizing agency does not file an affidavit within the time allowed, the transferor, conveyer or 25 successor in interest is considered to be a financial institution for all purposes under 26 sections 1 to 18 of this 2005 Act.

27 “(5) If the seizing agency files an affidavit under subsection (4) of this section, the court 28 shall decide the issues raised in the affidavit in a proceeding under section 12 of this 2005 29 Act.

30 “SECTION 12. (1) If a district attorney decides to proceed with a criminal forfeiture, the 31 district attorney must present the criminal forfeiture to the grand jury for indictment. The 32 indictment must allege facts sufficient to establish that the property is subject to criminal 33 forfeiture and must comply with ORS 132.510, 132.540, 132.550, 132.557, 132.560 and 132.580.

34 “(2) If the grand jury returns an indictment for criminal forfeiture, the defendant may 35 admit or deny that the property is subject to criminal forfeiture. If the defendant fails to 36 admit or deny that the property is subject to forfeiture, the court shall enter a denial on 37 behalf of the defendant.

38 “(3) When the underlying criminal conduct is a Class A misdemeanor, a city or county 39 attorney may prosecute a criminal forfeiture by filing an information in the municipal or 40 justice court.

41 “(4) A criminal forfeiture proceeding and the underlying criminal case must be tried in 42 the same proceeding.

43 “(5) The criminal procedure laws of this state apply to criminal forfeiture proceedings.

44 “(6) The court shall enter a judgment of criminal forfeiture if the forfeiture counsel 45 proves beyond a reasonable doubt that the property for which forfeiture is sought is an

1 instrumentality or the proceeds of the crime of conviction or past prohibited conduct that 2 is similar to the crime of conviction.

3 “(7) Forfeiture counsel may move the court at any time for an order finding that the 4 defendant is a fugitive and in default. The court may enter an order finding the defendant 5 in default under this subsection and enter a judgment of criminal forfeiture if the court finds 6 that the defendant is not confined or held in custody by another jurisdiction, and that the 7 defendant, after notice or knowledge of the fact that a warrant has been issued for the de-8 fendant:

9 “(a) Purposely left the state to avoid prosecution;

10 “(b) Declines to return to the state and allow execution of the warrant; or 11 “(c) Otherwise evades the jurisdiction of the court issuing the warrant.

12 “(8) No later than 21 days after the entry of a judgment of criminal forfeiture under this 13 section, the forfeiture counsel shall notify by mail all persons who filed claims under section 14 8 of this 2005 Act or affidavits under section 11 of this 2005 Act of the judgment of criminal 15 forfeiture. The notice must inform the person of the requirements of subsection (9) of this 16 section.

17 “(9) If a person who receives notice under subsection (8) of this section wishes to assert 18 the person’s interest in the property but was not eligible to file an affidavit under section 19 11 of this 2005 Act, the person must file an affidavit with the trial court, and must serve the 20 forfeiture counsel with a copy of the affidavit, no later than 21 days after the date the notice
21 required by subsection (8) of this section was mailed. The person must allege facts in an af-22 fidavit filed under this subsection that if true would prove that the person took the property 23 or the interest that the person holds in the property:

24 “(a)(A) Before it was seized for criminal forfeiture; and 25 “(B) In good faith and without intent to defeat the interest of any seizing agency; or 26 “(b) As a bona fide purchaser for value without acquiescing in the prohibited conduct.

27 “(10)(a) If an affidavit is timely filed under subsection (9) of this section and the forfei-28 ture counsel:

29 “(A) Does not contest the affidavit, the forfeiture counsel shall submit a form of judg-30 ment to the court for entry under section 14 of this 2005 Act.

31 “(B) Does contest the affidavit, the forfeiture counsel shall request a hearing with the 32 trial court no later than 21 days after receiving the affidavit.

33 “(b) If no affidavit is filed under subsection (9) of this section but the seizing agency filed 34 an affidavit under section 11 (4) of this 2005 Act, the forfeiture counsel shall request a 35 hearing with the trial court no later than 21 days after the last date for receiving affidavits 36 under subsection (9) of this section.

37 “(11)(a) A hearing pursuant to subsection (10) of this section is an ancillary proceeding 38 and the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure apply. At the hearing:

39 “(A) Forfeiture counsel has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence 40 that the person claiming an interest in the property:

41 “(i) Took the property with the intent to defeat the interest of a seizing agency; or 42 “(ii) Is not a bona fide purchaser for value or acquiesced in the prohibited conduct.

43 “(B) Forfeiture counsel may present evidence and witnesses and cross-examine witnesses 44 who appear at the hearing.

45 “(C) The person claiming an interest in the property may testify, present evidence and 1 witnesses and cross-examine witnesses who appear at the hearing.

2 “(b) In addition to testimony and evidence presented at the hearing, the court shall 3 consider relevant portions of the record of the criminal case that resulted in the judgment 4 of criminal forfeiture.

5 “(c) The court shall amend the judgment of criminal forfeiture in accordance with its 6 determination if, after the hearing, the court determines that the claimant:

7 “(A) Did take the property before it was seized for criminal forfeiture and in good faith 8 and without intent to defeat the interest of the seizing agency; or 9 “(B) Is a bona fide purchaser for value of the right, title or interest in the property and 10 did not acquiesce in the prohibited conduct.

11 “(d) Notwithstanding ORS 19.255 (1), a person may file a notice of appeal within 30 days 12 after entry in the register of an order disposing of the matters at issue in the ancillary 13 proceeding. An appeal under this paragraph is governed by the provisions of ORS chapter 19 14 relating to appeals in civil actions.

15 “(12) When a court enters a judgment of criminal forfeiture under this section, the ju-16 risdiction of the court continues for purposes of subsection (11) of this section and the 17 property continues to be subject to the court’s jurisdiction.

18 “SECTION 13. (1) The court shall enter judgment to the extent that the property is pro-19 ceeds of the crime of conviction or of past prohibited conduct that is similar to the crime 20 of conviction.

21 “(2) With respect to property that is an instrumentality of the crime of conviction or of 22 past prohibited conduct that is similar to the crime of conviction, the court shall consider:

23 “(a) Whether the property constitutes the defendant’s lawful livelihood or means of 24 earning a living.

25 “(b) Whether the property is the defendant’s residence.

26 “(c) The degree of relationship between the property and the prohibited conduct, includ-27 ing the extent to which the property facilitated the prohibited conduct or could facilitate 28 future prohibited conduct.

29 “(d) The monetary value of the property in relation to the risk of injury to the public 30 from the prohibited conduct.

31 “(e) The monetary value of the property in relation to the actual injury to the public 32 from the prohibited conduct.

33 “(f) The monetary value of the property in relation to objective measures of the potential 34 or actual criminal culpability of the person or persons engaging in the prohibited conduct, 35 including:

36 “(A) The inherent gravity of the prohibited conduct;

37 “(B) The potential sentence for similar prohibited conduct under Oregon law;

38 “(C) The defendant’s prior criminal history; and 39 “(D) The sentence actually imposed on the defendant.

40 “(g) Any additional relevant evidence.

41 “SECTION 14. (1) If no financial institution has filed the affidavit described in section 11 42 (1) of this 2005 Act, and if the court has failed to uphold the claim or affidavit of any other 43 person claiming an interest in the property, the effect of the judgment is that:

44 “(a) Title to the property passes to the seizing agency free of any interest or 45 encumbrance thereon in favor of any person who has been given notice;

1       “(b) The seizing agency may transfer good and sufficient title to any subsequent pur-2 chaser or transferee, and all courts, the state and the departments and agencies of this 3 state, and any political subdivision shall recognize the title. In the case of real property, the 4 seizing agency shall warrant the title against constitutional defect. A warranty under this 5 paragraph is limited to the purchase price of the real property; and

6       “(c) Any department, agency or officer of this state or any political subdivision whose 7 official functions include the issuance of certificates or other evidence of title is immune 8 from civil or criminal liability when such issuance is pursuant to a judgment of criminal 9 forfeiture.

10       “(2) If an affidavit is filed by a financial institution under section 11 (1) of this 2005 Act, 11 or if a person files an affidavit under section 11 (2) of this 2005 Act:

12       “(a) The court shall foreclose all security interests, liens and vendor’s interests of fi-13 nancial institutions and claimants as to which the court determines that there is a legal or 14 equitable basis for foreclosure; and 15       “(b) All other interests applicable to the property that are not foreclosed or otherwise 16 eliminated through a judgment of foreclosure, if and to the extent that they are valid and 17 subsisting, remain in effect and the property remains subject to them upon completion of the 18 criminal forfeiture proceeding.

19       “(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if a financial institution or other person 20 has filed an affidavit described in section 11 of this 2005 Act, or if the court has upheld the 21 claim of any claimant, then as to each item of property seized:

22       “(a) If the court has determined that the property should not be forfeited and has not 23 foreclosed the security interests, liens or other interests covering the property, the court 24 shall render judgment in favor of the owner of the property, the property must be returned 25 to the owner and all security interests, liens and other interests applicable to the property 26 remain in effect as though the property had never been seized. Upon the return of the 27 property to the owner, the seizing agency shall pay all costs and expenses relating to towing 28 and storage of the property and shall cause to be discharged any possessory chattel liens on 29 the property arising under ORS 87.152 to 87.162 that have attached to the property since the 30 seizure.

31       “(b) If the court has determined that the property should not be forfeited and has fore-32 closed one or more interests covering the property, including security interests or liens 33 covering the property or contracts for the transfer or conveyance of the property, the seiz-34 ing agency shall pay all costs and expenses relating to towing and storage of the property 35 and shall cause to be discharged any possessory chattel liens on the property arising under 36 ORS 87.152 to 87.162 that have attached to the property since the seizure, and the court shall 37 order the property sold pursuant to a sheriff’s sale or other sale authorized by the court 38 within such time as may be prescribed by the court following entry of the judgment. If any 39 interests covering the property have not been foreclosed, including any liens or security in-40 terests of a claimant whose claim has been upheld, or of a financial institution that has filed 41 the affidavit described in section 11 of this 2005 Act, the property must be sold subject to 42 those interests. The judgment shall order the proceeds of the sale applied in the following 43 order:

44       “(A) To the payment of the costs of the sale;

45       “(B) To the satisfaction of the foreclosed liens, security interests and contracts in order

1 of their priority; and

2 “(C) The excess, if any, to the owner of the property.

3 “(c) If the court has determined that the property should be forfeited and has foreclosed 4 one or more security interests, liens, contracts or other interests covering the property, the 5 seizing agency shall pay all costs and expenses relating to towing and storage of the property 6 and shall cause to be discharged any possessory chattel liens on the property arising under 7 ORS 87.152 to 87.162 that have attached to the property since the seizure, and the court shall 8 order the property sold pursuant to a sheriff’s sale or other sale authorized by the court. If 9 any interest in the property was claimed by a financial institution or other claimant and the 10 interest was upheld but not foreclosed, the property must be sold subject to the interest. The 11 sale of the property must be held within such time as may be prescribed by the court fol-
12 lowing entry of the judgment. The judgment shall also order the proceeds of such sale applied 13 in the following order:

14 “(A) To the payment of the costs of the sale;

15 “(B) To the satisfaction of the foreclosed liens, security interests and contracts in the 16 order of their priority; and

17 “(C) The excess, if any, to the seizing agency to be disposed of as provided in section 16 18 or 17 of this 2005 Act.

19 “(d) If the court has determined that the property should be forfeited and has not fore-20 closed the interests of any party in the property, the seizing agency shall pay all costs and 21 expenses relating to towing and storage of the property and shall cause to be discharged any 22 possessory chattel liens on the property arising under ORS 87.152 to 87.162 that have at-23 tached to the property since the seizure. The court shall enter a judgment awarding the 24 property to the seizing agency, subject to the interests of any claimants whose claims or 25 affidavits were upheld by the court, and subject to the interests of any financial institutions 26 that filed affidavits under section 11 (1) of this 2005 Act, that remain in full force and effect.

27 “(4) The court may include in the judgment of criminal forfeiture an order that directs 28 the seizing agency to distribute to the victim of the crime of conviction a portion of any 29 proceeds from property received by the seizing agency if:

30 “(a) The crime of conviction was a person felony or person Class A misdemeanor as those 31 terms are defined by rule of the Oregon Criminal Justice Commission; and 32 “(b) The court included an order of restitution in the criminal judgment.

33 “(5) The seizing agency is not liable to any person as a consequence of obedience to a 34 judgment directing conveyance to a financial institution.

35 “(6) The forfeiture counsel shall send a copy of the judgment to the Asset Forfeiture 36 Oversight Advisory Committee.

37 “(7)(a) On entry of judgment for a claimant in any proceeding to forfeit property under 38 sections 1 to 18 of this 2005 Act, unless the court has foreclosed one or more security in-39 terests, liens or other interests covering the property, the property or interest in property 40 must be returned or conveyed immediately to the claimant designated by the court.

41 “(b) If it appears that there was reasonable suspicion that the property was subject to 42 criminal forfeiture, the court shall cause a finding to be entered and no claimant or financial 43 institution is entitled to damages nor is the person who made the seizure, the seizing agency
44 or forfeiture counsel liable to suit or judgment on account of the seizure or action. An order 45 directing seizure issued under section 5 of this 2005 Act constitutes a finding of reasonable

1 suspicion that the property was subject to criminal forfeiture.

2 “(8) Nothing in this section prevents a claimant or financial institution from obtaining 3 any deficiency to which the claimant or financial institution would otherwise be entitled.

4 “(9) Nothing in this section or in section 6 of this 2005 Act prevents a seizing agency from 5 entering into an agreement with a claimant or other person for the reimbursement of the 6 seizing agency for the costs and expenses relating to towing and storage of property or the 7 cost of discharging any possessory chattel lien on the property arising under ORS 87.152 to 8 87.162 that attached to the property in the period between the seizure of the property and 9 the release or criminal forfeiture of the property.

10 “SECTION 15. Distribution of property or proceeds in accordance with sections 1 to 18 11 of this 2005 Act must be made equitably and may be made pursuant to intergovernmental 12 agreement under ORS chapter 190. Intergovernmental agreements providing for such dis-
13 tributions and in effect on the effective date of this 2005 Act remain valid unless changed 14 by the parties. The equitable distribution of proceeds targeted for law enforcement must in-15 volve sharing the proceeds between the seizing agency and forfeiture counsel.

16 “SECTION 16. (1) After the seizing agency distributes property under section 14 of this

21 for further disposition in accordance with accepted practices for humane treatment of animals. This 22 subsection does not limit the right of the person or agency to whom rights are granted to resell or 23 otherwise make disposition of the animal. A transfer of rights under this subsection constitutes a 24 transfer of ownership.

25 “(3) In addition to and not in lieu of any other sentence it may impose, a court may order the 26 owner or person having custody of an animal to repay the reasonable costs incurred by any person 27 or agency in providing minimum care to the animal.

28 “(4) A court may order a person convicted under ORS 167.315 to 167.333 or 167.340 to partic-29 ipate in available animal cruelty prevention programs or education programs, or both, or to obtain 30 psychological counseling for treatment of mental health disorders that, in the court’s judgment, 31 contributed to the commission of the crime. The person shall bear any costs incurred by the person 32 for participation in counseling or treatment programs under this subsection.

33 “(5) Sections 1 to 18 of this 2005 Act do not apply to the forfeiture of an animal subjected 34 to a violation of ORS 167.315 to 167.333 or 167.340. Any such animal is subject to forfeiture 35 as provided in subsections (1) to (3) of this section.

36 “SECTION 29. Section 16a, chapter 801, Oregon Laws 2003, is amended to read:

37 “Sec. 16a. Notwithstanding sections 16 and 17[, chapter 666, Oregon Laws 2001] of this 2005
38 Act, if property forfeited under sections 1 to 18[, chapter 666, Oregon Laws 2001,] of this 2005 Act
39 consists of cigarettes forfeited because of a violation of [section 11 (2) of this 2003 Act] ORS 180.440
40 (2), the seizing agency shall destroy the cigarettes.

44 “SECTION 30. ORS 475A.080, as amended by section 9a, chapter 780, Oregon Laws 2001, is 45 amended to read:

1       “475A.080. [In all actions brought for forfeiture, the burden of persuasion shall lie upon the 2 claimant, provided that probable cause to believe that the property is subject to forfeiture shall first be 3 shown by the forfeiting agency.]

4       “(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, in all civil forfeiture actions the 5 forfeiting agency must prove that the claimant of the property has been convicted of a crime 6 that constitutes prohibited conduct, and that the property to be forfeited is:

7           “(a) Proceeds of the crime for which the claimant has been convicted;

8           “(b) Instrumental in committing or facilitating the crime for which the claimant has been 9 convicted;

10          “(c) Proceeds of one or more other crimes similar to the crime for which the claimant 11 was convicted; or

12          “(d) Instrumental in committing or facilitating one or more other crimes similar to the 13 crime for which the claimant was convicted.

14       “(2) A forfeiting agency may bring an action for civil forfeiture of property of a claimant 15 who has not been convicted of a crime if the forfeiting agency proves all elements of sub-16 section (1) of this section with respect to another person and:

17           “(a) That the claimant took the property with the intent to defeat forfeiture of the 18 property;

19           “(b) That the claimant knew or should have known that the property was proceeds of 20 prohibited conduct; or

21           “(c) That the claimant acquiesced in the prohibited conduct.

22       “(3) If the property to be forfeited in a civil forfeiture action is personal property, the 23 forfeiting agency must prove the elements specified in subsection (1) or (2) of this section 24 by a preponderance of the evidence. If the property to be forfeited in a civil forfeiture action 25 is real property, the forfeiting agency must prove the elements specified in subsection (1) or 26 (2) of this section by clear and convincing evidence.

27       “(4) For the purposes of subsection (2)(c) of this section, a person shall be considered to 28 have acquiesced in prohibited conduct if the person knew of the prohibited conduct and failed 29 to take reasonable action under the circumstances to terminate the prohibited conduct or 30 prevent use of the seized property to facilitate the prohibited conduct.

31       “SECTION 31. ORS 475A.035, as amended by section 5a, chapter 780, Oregon Laws 2001, is 32 amended to read:

33           “475A.035. Property may be seized for forfeiture as provided in this section.

34           “(1) Any person who delivers property in obedience to an order or direction to deliver the 35 property under this section shall not be liable:

36           “(a) To any person on account of obedience to the order or direction; or 37           “(b) For any costs incurred on account of any contamination of the delivered property. This in-38 cludes, but is not limited to, any disposal costs for any property forfeited under ORS 475A.020, any 39 hazardous waste or material, any contraband or any other contamination contained in property 40 seized under this section.

41           “(2) Property may be seized by any police officer without a court order if:

42           “(a) The property has been the subject of an earlier judgment in favor of any forfeiting agency 43 in an earlier civil in rem proceeding under this chapter;

44           “(b) There is probable cause to believe that property is subject to forfeiture, provided that the 45 property may constitutionally be seized without a warrant;

1 “(c) The seizure is in the course of a constitutionally valid criminal investigative stop, arrest 2 or search, and there is probable cause to believe that the property is subject to forfeiture;

3 “(d) The property is directly or indirectly dangerous to the health or safety of any person; or 4 “(e) An owner consents to the seizure.

5 “(3) Except as provided in ORS 475A.045, with regard to cash or other assets which at the time 6 of seizure are held in any form of account in a financial institution, if the property is in whole or 7 in part intangible, the person having control or custody of the property shall deliver the same over 8 to the police officer.

9 “(4)(a) Property may be seized by any police officer pursuant to an order of the court. Forfeiture 10 counsel or a seizing agency may apply for an ex parte order directing seizure of specified property.

11 “(b) Application shall be made to any judge as defined in ORS 133.525. The application shall be 12 supported by one or more affidavits setting forth the facts and circumstances tending to show where 13 the objects of the seizure are to be found. The court shall issue the order upon a finding of probable 14 cause to believe that the described property is subject to forfeiture. The order may be set out on 15 the face of a search warrant.

16 “(c) Except as provided in ORS 475A.045, with regard to cash or other assets which at the time 17 of seizure are held in any form of account in a financial institution, if the property is in whole or 18 in part intangible, the order shall direct any person having control or custody of the property to 19 deliver the same over to the seizing agency or to the court to abide judgment.

20 “(5) Property may be constructively seized by posting notice of seizure for forfeiture on it or 21 by filing notice of seizure for forfeiture or notice of pending forfeiture in the public records that 22 impart constructive notice of matters relating to such property. A notice which is filed must include 23 a description of the property that is the subject of the seizure. Real property, including interests 24 arising out of land sale contracts, shall be seized only upon recording notice of seizure containing 25 a legal description of the property in the mortgage records of the county in which the real property 26 is located.

27 “(6) Property which has been unconstitutionally seized may be subject to forfeiture if the basis 28 for forfeiture under this chapter is sustained by evidence which is not the fruit of the unconstitu-29 tional seizure.

30 “(7) Promptly upon seizure, the officer who seized the property shall make an inventory of the 31 property seized and shall deliver a receipt embodying the inventory to the person from whose pos-32 session they are taken or to the person in apparent control of the property at the time it is seized.
33 The officer may, in addition, provide an estimate of the value of the property seized and information 34 on the right to file a claim under ORS 475A.055 (2), and the deadline for filing that claim. If the 35 property is unoccupied or there is no one present in apparent control, the officer shall leave the 36 receipt suitably affixed to the property. If the property is physically removed from the location of 37 seizure and it is unoccupied or there is no one present in apparent control, then the officer shall 38 promptly file the receipt in the public records of the forfeiting agency. Every receipt prepared under 39 this subsection shall contain, in addition to an inventory of the property seized, the following in-40 formation:

41 “(a) The identity of the seizing agency; and 42 “(b) The address and telephone number of the office or other place where the person may obtain 43 further information concerning the forfeiture.

44 “(8) [In determining probable cause or reasonable suspicion for seizure, evidence that cash, weap- 45 ons or negotiable instruments were found in close proximity to controlled substances or to instrument-

1 alities of prohibited conduct gives rise to an inference that the cash, weapons or negotiable instruments
2 are subject to forfeiture. This inference is sufficient in itself to carry the forfeiting agency's initial 3 burden under ORS 475A.080.] A police officer has probable cause to believe that cash, weapons 4 or negotiable instruments are subject to forfeiture if the cash, weapons or negotiable in- 5 struments are found in close proximity to controlled substances or to instrumentalities of 6 prohibited conduct. Notwithstanding ORS 475A.080, if the forfeiting agency establishes in a 7 forfeiture action that cash, weapons or negotiable instruments were found in close proximity 8 to controlled substances or to instrumentalities of prohibited conduct, the burden is on any 9 person claiming the cash, weapons or negotiable instruments to prove by a preponderance 10 of the evidence that the cash, weapons or negotiable instruments are not proceeds of pro- 11 hibited conduct or an instrumentality of prohibited conduct.

12 “(9) In the event that property is seized from the possession of a person who asserts a 13 possessory lien over such property pursuant to applicable law, notwithstanding any other provision 14 of law, any lien of the person from whom the property was seized shall remain in effect and shall 15 be enforceable as fully as though the person had retained possession of the property.

16 “SECTION 32. ORS 475A.085, as amended by section 10a, chapter 780, Oregon Laws 2001, and 17 section 310, chapter 14, Oregon Laws 2003, is amended to read:

18 “475A.085. [(1) A claimant may plead as an affirmative defense that the claimant took the property 19 or the interest which the claimant holds therein:]

20 “[(a)(A) Before it was seized for forfeiture;]

21 “[(B) In good faith and without intent to defeat the interest of any forfeiting agency; and]

22 “[(C) Continued to hold the property or interest without acquiescing in the prohibited conduct; or]

23 “[(b) By coownership or cotenancy taken in good faith, without intent to defeat the interest of any 24 forfeiting agency and continued to hold the property or interest without acquiescing in the prohibited 25 conduct.]

26 “[(2)] (1) A claimant may plead as an affirmative defense that the property was seized in vio-
27 lation of ORS 475A.025.

28 “[(3)] (2) In any action brought against property subject to forfeiture under ORS 475A.020 (7), 29 a claimant may plead as an affirmative defense that the controlled substance was solely for personal 30 use.

31 “[(4)] (3) If, by a preponderance of the evidence, the claimant proves a defense under this sec-32 tion, then judgment shall be entered for the claimant as provided in ORS 475A.110 (7).

33 “[(5)] (4) This defense may not be asserted by a financial institution [which] that holds a secu-34 rity interest in the property.

35 “[(6) For the purposes of subsection (1) of this section, a person shall be considered to have 36 acquiesced in prohibited conduct if the person knew of the prohibited conduct and knowingly failed to 37 take reasonable action under the circumstances to terminate or avoid use of the property in the course 38 of prohibited conduct.]

43 “SECTION 34. ORS 475A.075, as amended by section 8a, chapter 780, Oregon Laws 2001, is 44 amended to read:

45 “475A.075. A civil action in rem may be brought as provided in this section in any case in which

1 forfeiture is sought. A civil action in rem must be brought if the property is real property, the 2 property is in whole or part a manufactured dwelling as defined in ORS 446.003, the property is a 3 floating home as defined in ORS 830.700 or [i/] the property is subject to an interest in favor of any 4 person known to have an interest, other than a person who engaged in prohibited conduct.

5 “(1) If a forfeiting agency has commenced proceedings under ORS 475A.055, then an action shall 6 be commenced by forfeiture counsel, within 15 days of receipt of a claim. If no proceedings have 7 been commenced under ORS 475A.055, then the action shall be commenced by forfeiture counsel
8 within 30 days of seizure. The property may be released by forfeiture counsel as provided in ORS 9 475A.045 (2).

10 “(2) An action is commenced by filing a complaint. Responses to a complaint shall conform to 11 the following procedure:

12 “(a) A person claiming an interest in the property shall respond as provided in the Oregon Rules
13 of Civil Procedure and, if a claim has not previously been filed, by filing a claim in the form set forth 14 in ORS 475A.055 (3) with the court and posting a bond with the court. The bond shall be a cash bond 15 in an amount equal to 10 percent of the value of the interest claimed by the person in the property.
16 Upon good cause shown by motion and affidavit filed with the initial appearance, the court may 17 waive or reduce the bond. Failure to file an appearance, claim and bond shall constitute a default.
18 The bond shall be returned to the claimant upon the entry of a final determination on the claim.

19 “(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection, a financial institution 20 holding an interest in the seized property shall respond to a complaint with an affidavit establishing 21 that the financial institution’s interest in the property was acquired:

22 “(A) In the regular course of business as a financial institution;

23 “(B) For valuable consideration;

24 “(C) Without knowledge of the prohibited conduct;

25 “(D) In good faith and without intent to defeat the interest of any potential forfeiting agency; 26 and

27 “(E) With respect to personal property, prior to the seizure of the property, or with respect to 28 real property, recorded prior to the recording of notice of the seizure of the real property in the 29 mortgage records of the county in which the real property is located. Failure to file an affidavit 30 shall constitute a default. The affidavit shall be filed within 30 days from the date of service.

31 “(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection, any person, other than 32 a financial institution, who transfers or conveys an interest in real property pursuant to a contract 33 for transfer or conveyance of an interest in real property as defined in ORS 93.905 and who retains 34 an interest in the real property, or any successor in interest, may respond to a complaint with an 35 affidavit establishing that the person:

36 “(A) Received the interest in return for valuable consideration or by way of devise or intestate 37 succession;

38 “(B) Had no knowledge at the time of transfer or conveyance of the prohibited conduct;

39 “(C) Acted in good faith and without intent to defeat the interest of any potential forfeiting 40 agency;

41 “(D) Recorded the interest in the mortgage records of the county in which the real property is 42 located prior to the recording of any notice of intent to seize or notice of seizure; and

43 “(E) Continued to hold the interest without acquiescing in the prohibited conduct.

44 “(d) For the purposes of paragraph (c) of this subsection, a person shall be considered to have 45 acquiesced in prohibited conduct if the person knew of the prohibited conduct and knowingly failed

1 to take reasonable action under the circumstances to terminate or avoid use of the property in the 2 course of prohibited conduct. For purposes of this section, 'reasonable action under the circum-3 stances' includes, but is not limited to:

4 "(A) Reporting the prohibited conduct to a police agency;

5 "(B) Commencing action that will assert the rights of the affiant as to the property interest;

6 "(C) Terminating a rental agreement; or

7 "(D) Seeking an abatement order under the provisions of ORS 105.505 to 105.520, or under the 8 provisions of ORS 105.550 to 105.600, or under any ordinance or regulation allowing abatement of 9 nuisances.

10 "(e) The affidavit permitted by paragraph (c) of this subsection shall be filed within 30 days from 11 the date of service of the summons and complaint. Failure to file an affidavit or to respond as set 12 forth in paragraph (a) of this subsection shall constitute a default.

13 "(f) In response to an affidavit filed pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection, the forfeiting 14 agency may controvert any or all of the assertions made in the affidavit. The affidavit of the for-15 feiting agency shall be filed within 20 days of the filing of the affidavit filed under paragraph (c) of 16 this subsection. The transferor, conveyer or successor in interest may respond, within five days of 17 the filing of the affidavit of the forfeiting agency, with a supplemental affidavit limited to the mat-
18 ters stated in the affidavit of the forfeiting agency. If the forfeiting agency does not file an affidavit 19 within the time allowed, the transferor, conveyer or successor in interest shall be considered a fi-20 nancial institution for all purposes under this chapter.

21 "(g)(A) If the forfeiting agency files an affidavit under paragraph (f) of this subsection, the court 22 shall determine from the affidavits whether there is a genuine issue of material fact with respect to 23 the assertions of the transferor, conveyer or successor in interest.

24 "(B) If the court determines that there is no genuine issue of material fact as to the truth of the 25 assertions in the affidavit filed under paragraph (f) of this subsection, the transferor, conveyer or 26 successor in interest shall be considered a financial institution for all purposes under this chapter.
27 The court shall order the forfeiting agency to pay the costs and disbursements, including attorney 28 fees, of the prevailing transferor, conveyer or successor in interest if the forfeiting agency does not 29 prevail.

30 "(C) If the court determines that there is a genuine issue of material fact as to the truth of the 31 assertions in the affidavit filed pursuant to paragraph (f) of this subsection, the transferor, conveyer 32 or successor in interest shall, within 15 days, respond as provided in paragraph (a) of this sub-
33 section. The court may order the transferor, conveyer or successor in interest to pay the attorney 34 fees of the forfeiting agency that were incurred in contesting the affidavit of the transferor, con-
35 veyor or successor in interest if the court determines that the affidavit of the transferor, conveyer 36 or successor in interest was frivolous.

37 "(3) All persons known to have an interest in the property, including any claimant, shall be 38 served with a true copy of the inventory of the property prepared pursuant to ORS 475A.035 and 39 475A.055, the summons and the complaint as provided in ORCP 5 and 7 D. Notice of the action shall 40 be published as provided in ORCP 7 D(6)(b) to (d) unless notice has previously been published in 41 accordance with ORS 475A.055 (1). In the event that a forfeiture involves a vehicle, and the notices 42 required by this statute have been given, and substitute service on the claimant is required because 43 personal service cannot be reasonably accomplished, service as authorized by ORCP 7 D(4) shall be 44 sufficient to establish jurisdiction over a registered owner or operator of a vehicle. If the property
45 is in whole or part a manufactured dwelling as defined in ORS 446.003 or a floating home as defined

1 in ORS 830.700, the forfeiting agency shall, in addition to serving all persons known to have an inter-2 est in the property, record a notice of seizure containing a description of the manufactured 3 dwelling or floating home in all public offices maintaining records that impart constructive notice 4 of matters relating to manufactured dwellings or floating homes.

5 “(4) Forfeiture counsel may move the court at any time after a response is made as 6 provided in subsection (2)(a) of this section for an order finding that the defendant is a fu- 7 gitive and in default. The court may enter an order finding the defendant in default under 8 this subsection and enter a judgment of civil forfeiture if the court finds that the defendant 9 is not confined or held in custody by another jurisdiction, and that the defendant, after no- 10 tice or knowledge of the fact that a warrant has been issued for the defendant:

11 “(a) Purposely left the state to avoid prosecution;

12 “(b) Declines to return to the state and allow execution of the warrant; or

13 “(c) Otherwise evades the jurisdiction of the court issuing the warrant.

14 “[4] (5) All judicial proceedings under this chapter shall be governed by the Oregon Rules of 15 Civil Procedure to the extent that they do not conflict with specific provisions of this chapter.

16 “[5(a)] (6)(a) The filing of criminal charges related to any civil proceeding for forfeiture may, 17 upon motion of forfeiture counsel or the district attorney or upon motion on behalf of defendant in 18 a related criminal proceeding, stay the civil forfeiture proceeding until the trial, plea or dismissal 19 of the related criminal proceeding. A motion for stay on behalf of the defendant in a related criminal 20 proceeding shall constitute a waiver of double jeopardy by the defendant as to the civil forfeiture 21 proceeding and any related criminal proceeding. Pursuant to subsection [(6)] (7) of this section, a 22 civil forfeiture proceeding stayed under this paragraph may be consolidated for trial or other re-23 solution with any related criminal proceeding.

24 “(b) The court may stay the civil forfeiture proceeding upon motion of a party and good cause 25 shown. Good cause may include a reasonable fear on the part of a claimant that the claimant could 26 be prosecuted for conduct arising out of the same factual situation which gave rise to the seizure 27 of property. Pursuant to subsection [(6)] (7) of this section, a civil forfeiture proceeding stayed under 28 this paragraph may be consolidated for trial or other resolution with any related criminal proceed-29 ing.

30 “[6] (7) Notwithstanding any stay entered pursuant to subsection [(5)(a)] (6)(a) or (b) of this 31 section, an action pursuant to this section may be consolidated with any other action pursuant to 32 this section relating to the same property or parties on motion by any party in any related action.
33 Upon motion by the state or a political subdivision of the state, or any criminal defendant who is 34 also a claimant, a civil forfeiture proceeding under this section may be consolidated for trial or 35 other resolution with any related criminal proceeding. Trial or other resolution of the civil forfeiture 36 action shall immediately follow the related criminal trial or other resolution, shall be part of the 37 same proceeding and shall be heard by the same trier of fact. Any objection by the defendant to 38 the consolidation or any motion by the defendant to sever the related criminal case from the civil 39 proceeding for forfeiture shall constitute a waiver of double jeopardy as to any related criminal 40 action and the civil forfeiture proceeding.

41 “[7] (8) The action shall be commenced and tried:

42 “(a) In the case of real property, in the circuit court in a county in which the property is situ-

4 that amount in the Illegal Drug Cleanup Fund established by ORS 475.495 for the purposes specified
5 in ORS 475.495 (5). The political subdivision shall sell as much property as may be needed to meet the 12 to the general fund of the political subdivision under paragraph (b) of this subsection and deposit that 13 amount in the Asset Forfeiture Oversight Account established by ORS 475A.160. The political subdivi-

14 sion shall sell as much property as may be needed to meet the requirements of this paragraph. De-
