38 respect to the administration of any tax.

39 (b) Any person who is licensed by the State Board of Tax Practitioners or who is exempt from 40 such licensing requirement as provided for and limited by ORS 673.610 may represent a taxpayer

43 (c) Any shareholder of an S corporation, as defined in section 1361 of the Internal Revenue
44 Code, as amended and in effect on December 31, 2002, may represent the corporation in any pro-

1 were a partner and the S corporation were a partnership. The S corporation must designate in 2 writing a tax matters shareholder authorized to represent the S corporation.

3 (d) Any person who is licensed as a real estate broker or principal real estate broker under ORS
4 696.022 or is a state certified appraiser or state licensed appraiser under ORS 674.310 or is a reg-

6 department in any conference or proceeding with respect to the administration of any ad valorem 7 property tax.

8 (e) A general partner who has been designated by members of a partnership as their tax matters
9 partner under ORS 305.242 may represent those partners in any conference or proceeding with re-

11 [(f) In a small claims procedure, a taxpayer may be represented by any of the persons described

17 under rules or procedures adopted by the tax court shall be considered an authorized representative 18 by the department.

19 (3) A taxpayer represented by someone other than an attorney is bound by all things done by

23 partment, written notice shall be given by the magistrate or department to the taxpayer of the 24 provisions of [subsections (1)(f) and] subsection (3) of this section.

25 SECTION 5. ORS 305.392 is amended to read:

26 305.392. (1) This section applies to subpoenas issued under ORS 305.190 or 305.420 [(5)] (4) to 27 owners of industrial plants, as defined in ORS 308.408, for the production of books, papers, corre-
28 spondence or any other documents to be used in a judicial proceeding that involves the determi-29 nation of the value of a different industrial plant, for purposes of ad valorem property taxation. The 30 purpose of this section is to provide a process by which the parties may limit the scope of a 31 subpoena for the production of documents, if possible.

32 (2) Before any person or the Department of Revenue may issue a subpoena to which this section 33 applies, the person or department shall give written notice to the person or agency to be subpoenaed 34 that a subpoena will be issued no sooner than 60 days after the date the notice is received. The 35 notice shall state the general nature of the documents desired to be produced and the purpose for 36 which they will be used. The notice shall state that the person or agency to be subpoenaed may 37 request an informal meeting with the person or department giving notice to identify the nature and 38 form of documents the person or agency has and to verify the need for the documents desired to be 39 produced.

40 (3) If the person or agency receiving a notice given under subsection (2) of this section requests 41 an informal meeting as provided in the notice, the person or department giving notice shall meet 42 with the person or agency before issuing the subpoena. If the parties can agree that only specific 43 documents need to be produced, the subpoena may then be issued and shall be limited to those 44 documents.

45 (4) If the person or agency receiving a notice under subsection (2) of this section does not re-

1 quest a meeting, or if the parties cannot agree on the specific documents to be produced, the person
2 or department giving notice may issue the subpoena on or after the date specified in the notice.

3 (5) A person or agency given notice under subsection (2) of this section may not seek relief from 4 compliance with a subpoena or for protection of documents to be produced until a subpoena has 5 been issued.

6 SECTION 6. ORS 305.420 is amended to read:

7 305.420. (1) The judge, a magistrate or the clerk of the tax court, on the request of any party 8 to the proceeding, or the attorney of the party, shall issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of 9 and the giving of testimony by witnesses, and subpoenas duces tecum requiring the production of 10 any returns, books, papers, documents, correspondence and other evidence pertaining to the matter 11 under inquiry at any designated place of hearing in the manner prescribed by law in civil actions 12 in courts of this state.

13 (2) Any employee of the court designated in writing for the purpose by the judge may administer 14 oaths.

15 (3) Any party to the proceeding may cause the depositions of witnesses residing within or 16 without the state to be taken in the manner prescribed by law for like depositions in civil actions
17 in courts of this state. To that end, the party may compel the attendance of witnesses and the pro-18 duction of returns, books, papers, documents, correspondence and other evidence pertaining to the 19 matter under inquiry.

20 [(4) Subpoenas in a small claims procedure shall be issued only at the discretion of the court. The 21 court may not issue a subpoena that requires the witness to attend for examination at a place outside 22 the county in which the witness resides or is served, unless the residence or place of service of the 23 witness is within 100 miles of the place of examination.]

24 [(5)] (4) Subject to ORS 305.390 and 305.392, subpoenas in a proceeding involving the determi-
25 nation of the value of an industrial plant, as defined in ORS 308.408, for purposes of ad valorem
26 property taxation, may be issued as provided in subsection (1) of this section. However, upon peti-27 tion of the person subpoenaed, the court shall make an order determining if the evidence sought by 28 the subpoena is relevant to the pending proceeding and, if requested by the person subpoenaed, an 29 order as required in the interests of justice to protect the confidentiality of the information 30 subpoenaed.

31 SECTION 7. ORS 305.430 is amended to read:

32 305.430. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, hearings before the 33 judge or a magistrate of the tax court shall be open to the public. All proceedings in the regular 34 division of the tax court shall be reported unless waived by the parties with the consent of the 35 court. The expense of reporting shall be paid by the state from the appropriation for the court.
36 Proceedings before the magistrate division shall not be reported.

37 (2) If information is confidential under ORS 308.411 (4) or by court order under ORS 305.420 38 [(5)] (4), and is introduced into evidence in any hearing before the tax court, the court first shall 39 make such order or orders as are necessary to protect the confidentiality of the information.

40 (3) In any proceeding before a magistrate or before the tax court judge in which confidential
41 business records, tax returns or documents containing trade secrets are to be introduced into evi-42 dence, upon motion of a party to the proceeding, the magistrate or judge may make such protective 43 orders as may be necessary to protect the confidentiality of such records or the information con-44 tained therein. In determining whether such protective orders should be issued, the court shall 45 weigh the harm suffered by the disclosing party against any benefit received by the public as a re-

1 sult of the disclosure. Complaints, pleadings and other filings containing confidential business record 2 information, tax return information or trade secret information shall be subject to the provisions of 3 this subsection.

4 (4) In a matter involving a request for a protective order under subsections (2) and (3) of this 5 section, the decision of the judge or a magistrate of the tax court shall be a final order for purposes 6 of appeal to the Supreme Court. The parties may appeal the issue of the protective order to the 7 Supreme Court at any time after the protective order was granted or denied. Upon appeal to the 8 Supreme Court, the judge or a magistrate of the tax court may stay the case on the merits until a 9 resolution of the protective order issue is determined by the Supreme Court.

10 SECTION 8. ORS 305.490 is amended to read:

11 305.490. (1) Plaintiffs or petitioners filing a complaint or petition in the tax court shall pay a

 19 public corporation therein, nor any officer of any such public political division or corporation, ap-

 21 shall be required to pay the fee prescribed under this section. The party entitled to costs and dis-22 bursements on such appeal shall recover from the opponent of the party the amount so paid upon 23 order of the court, as in equity suits in the circuit court.

24 (3)(a) If, in any proceeding before the tax court judge involving taxes upon or measured by net
 25 income in which an individual taxpayer is a party, or involving inheritance taxes, the court grants 26 a refund claimed by the executor or taxpayer or denies in part or wholly an additional assessment
 27 of taxes claimed by the Department of Revenue to be due from the estate or taxpayer, the court 28 may allow the taxpayer, in addition to costs and disbursements, the following:

29 (A) Reasonable attorney fees for the proceeding under this subsection and for the prior pro-30 ceeding in the matter, if any, before the magistrate; and

31 (B) Reasonable expenses as determined by the court. Expenses include accountant fees and fees 32 of other experts incurred by the executor or individual taxpayer in preparing for and conducting the 34 magistrate.

35 (b) Payment of attorney fees or reasonable expenses under this subsection shall be made by the 36 Department of Revenue in the manner provided by ORS 305.790.

6 305.501. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, an appeal to the tax court shall 7 be heard by a tax court magistrate unless specially designated by the tax court judge for hearing
8 in the regular division. In any matter arising under the [ad valorem] property tax laws and involv-
9 ing a county or county assessor that is designated for hearing in the regular division, the Depart-
10 ment of Revenue shall be substituted for the county as a party.

11 (2) A party to the appeal may request mediation, or the tax court on its own motion may assign 12 the matter to mediation. If the mediation does not result in an agreed settlement within 60 days 13 after the date of the assignment, the appeal shall be assigned to a magistrate for hearing.

19 may be conducted in person or by telephone. Magistrates may confer with each other in order to 20 reach a decision on any matter.

21 (b) All written magistrate decisions shall be mailed to the parties to the appeal and to the De-22 partment of Revenue within five days after the date of entry of the written decision.

23 (5)(a) Any party dissatisfied with a written decision of a magistrate may appeal the decision to 24 the judge of the tax court by filing a complaint in the regular division of the tax court within 60 25 days after the date of entry of the written decision.

26 (b) If a decision of a magistrate involves any matter arising under the [ad valorem] property tax

12 (5) Costs incurred by the department or agency in the administration, enforcement, collection 13 and distribution of taxes under the agreements entered into under subsection (1) of this section shall 15 which is a party to the agreement.

16 (6) The Oregon Tax Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to review determinations of the De-

26 within 60 days after the notice of the determination of the Department of Revenue or the order of 27 the department or agency is sent to the taxpayer or the political subdivision. The filing of the 28 complaint in the Oregon Tax Court shall constitute perfection of the appeal. Service of the tax-

44 305.404 to 305.560.

45 SECTION 13. (1) The Legislative Assembly finds that:

1 (a) Principal and secondary industrial property that is appraised by the Department of 2 Revenue under ORS 306.126 and property that is centrally assessed by the department under 3 ORS 308.505 to 308.665 involve large amounts of property value and complex appraisal issues.

4 (b) Appeals of the value of principal and secondary industrial property or centrally as-

6 ment services because of the fiscal consequences of substantial tax refunds.

7 (c) The citizens of this state and the owners of industrial or centrally assessed property 8 are best served by the efficient resolution of property tax appeals related to these properties.

9 (2) The Legislative Assembly declares that it is the policy of this state to strongly en-
10 courage taxpayers, local governments, the department and the Oregon Tax Court to resolve 11 appeals related to the value of principal or secondary industrial property or centrally as-12 sessed property as quickly and efficiently as possible, in order to reduce the financial impacts 13 of lengthy appeal processes.

14 SECTION 14. The Department of Revenue shall consider the findings and declarations of 15 the Legislative Assembly under section 13 of this 2005 Act when adopting administrative 16 rules related to appeals to the Oregon Tax Court of the value of principal or secondary in-

20 305.403. (1) In the case of a taxpayer dissatisfied with the assessed or specially assessed value 21 of land or improvements of a principal or secondary industrial property, the taxpayer may elect 22 to proceed directly to the tax court. An appeal involving the assessed or specially assessed

24 be brought together in the same forum, whether the forum is the board of property tax ap- 25 peals or the tax court.

26 (2) Election shall be made by filing a complaint with the tax court in the manner as other 27 complaints are filed under ORS 305.560 within the time otherwise prescribed for filing an appeal to 29 taxpayer shall have no further right of appeal to the county board of property tax appeals.

30 (3)(a) The complaint shall be entitled in the name of the person filing the complaint as
