17 party in the manner provided by ORCP 7, and after notice to the Division of Child Support when 18 required under subsection (9) of this section:

19 “(a) Set aside, alter or modify any portion of the judgment that provides for the appointment and

21 children and the children attending school, as defined in ORS 107.108, including any health or life
22 insurance provisions, for the support of a party or for life insurance under ORS 107.820 or 107.830;

23 “(b) Make an order, after service of notice to the other party, providing for the future custody,

25 were not residents of the state, or were unknown to the court or were erroneously omitted from the 26 judgment;

27 “(c) Terminate a duty of support toward any minor child who has become self-supporting,
28 emancipated or married;

29 “(d) After service of notice on the child in the manner provided by law for service of a summons, 30 suspend future support for any child who has ceased to be a child attending school as defined in 31 ORS 107.108; and

32 “(e) Set aside, alter or modify any portion of the judgment that provides for a property award
33 based on the enhanced earning capacity of a party that was awarded before October 23, 1999. A 34 property award may be set aside, altered or modified under this paragraph:

35 “(A) When the person with the enhanced earning capacity makes a good faith career change 36 that results in less income;

37 “(B) When the income of the person with the enhanced earning capacity decreases due to cir-38 cumstances beyond the person’s control; or

39 “(C) Under such other circumstances as the court deems just and proper.

40 “(2) When a party moves to set aside, alter or modify the child support provisions of the judg-41 ment:

42 “(a) The party shall state in the motion, to the extent known:

43 “(A) Whether there is pending in this state or any other jurisdiction any type of support pro-
44 ceeding involving children of the marriage, including one brought under ORS 25.287, 107.431,

3 aside, alter or modify.

4 “(b) The party shall include with the motion a certificate regarding any pending support pro-
5 ceeding and any existing support order other than the judgment the party is moving to set aside,
6 alter or modify. The party shall use a certificate that is in a form established by court rule and in-
7 clude information required by court rule and paragraph (a) of this subsection.

8 “(3) In a proceeding under this section to reconsider the spousal or child support provisions of 9 the judgment, the following provisions apply:

10 “(a) A substantial change in economic circumstances of a party, which may include, but is not 11 limited to, a substantial change in the cost of reasonable and necessary expenses to either party, is 12 sufficient for the court to reconsider its order of support, except that an order of compensatory
13 spousal support may only be modified upon a showing of an involuntary, extraordinary and unan-
14 ticipated change in circumstances that reduces the earning capacity of the paying spouse.

15 “(b) If the judgment provided for a termination or reduction of spousal support at a designated 16 age in anticipation of the commencement of pension, Social Security or other entitlement payments,
17 and if the obligee is unable to obtain the anticipated entitlement payments, that inability is suffi-
18 cient change in circumstances for the court to reconsider its order of support.

19 “(c) If Social Security is considered in lieu of spousal support or partial spousal support, the 20 court shall determine the amount of Social Security the party is eligible to collect. The court shall 21 take into consideration any pension, retirement or other funds available to either party to effect an 22 equitable distribution between the parties and shall also take into consideration any reduction of 23 entitlement caused by taking early retirement.

24 “(4) In considering under this section whether a change in circumstances exists sufficient for the 25 court to reconsider spousal or child support provisions of a judgment, the following provisions apply:

26 “(a) The court or administrator, as defined in ORS 25.010, shall consider income opportunities 27 and benefits of the respective parties from all sources, including but not limited to:

28 “(A) The reasonable opportunity of each party, the obligor and obligee respectively, to acquire 29 future income and assets.

30 “(B) Retirement benefits available to the obligor and to the obligee.

31 “(C) Other benefits to which the obligor is entitled, such as travel benefits, recreational benefits 32 and medical benefits, contrasted with benefits to which the obligee is similarly entitled.

33 “(D) Social Security benefits paid to a child, or to a representative payee administering the 34 funds for the child’s use and benefit, as a result of the obligor’s disability or retirement if the ben-35 efits:

36 “(i) Were not previously considered in the child support order; or 37 “(ii) Were considered in an action initiated before May 12, 2003.

38 “(E) Apportioned Veterans’ benefits or Survivors’ and Dependents’ Educational Assistance under 39 38 U.S.C. chapter 35 paid to a child, or to a representative payee administering the funds for the 40 child’s use and benefit, as a result of the obligor’s disability or retirement if the benefits:

41 “(i) Were not previously considered in the child support order; or 42 “(ii) Were considered in an action initiated before May 12, 2003.

43 “(b) If the motion for modification is one made by the obligor to reduce or terminate support,
44 and if the obligee opposes the motion, the court shall not find a change in circumstances sufficient
45 for reconsideration of support provisions, if the motion is based upon a reduction of the obligor’s

1 financial status resulting from the obligor's taking voluntary retirement, partial voluntary retire-
2 ment or any other voluntary reduction of income or self-imposed curtailment of earning capacity, if 3 it is shown that such action of the obligor was not taken in good faith but was for the primary
4 purpose of avoiding the support obligation. In any subsequent motion for modification, the court
5 shall deny the motion if the sole basis of the motion for modification is the termination of volun-
6 tarily taken retirement benefits and the obligor previously has been found not to have acted in good 7 faith.

8 "(c) The court shall consider the following factors in deciding whether the actions of the obligor
9 were not in 'good faith':

10 "(A) Timing of the voluntary retirement or other reduction in financial status to coincide with 11 court action in which the obligee seeks or is granted an increase in spousal support.

12 "(B) Whether all or most of the income producing assets and property were awarded to the 13 obligor, and spousal support in lieu of such property was awarded to the obligee.

14 "(C) Extent of the obligor's dissipation of funds and assets prior to the voluntary retirement or 15 soon after filing for the change of circumstances based on retirement.

16 "(D) If earned income is reduced and absent dissipation of funds or large gifts, whether the 17 obligor has funds and assets from which the spousal support could have been paid.

18 "(E) Whether the obligor has given gifts of substantial value to others, including a current 19 spouse, to the detriment of the obligor's ability to meet the preexisting obligation of spousal support.

20 "(5) Upon terminating a duty of spousal support, a court shall make specific findings of the basis 21 for the termination and shall include the findings in the judgment order.

22 "(6) Any modification of child or spousal support granted because of a change of circumstances 23 may be ordered effective retroactive to the date the motion for modification was served or to any 24 date thereafter.

25 "(7) The judgment is final as to any installment or payment of money that has accrued up to the 26 time the nonmoving party, other than the state, is served with a motion to set aside, alter or modify 27 the judgment. The court may not set aside, alter or modify any portion of the judgment that provides 28 for any payment of money, either for minor children or for the support of a party, that has accrued
29 before the motion is served. However:

30 "(a) The court may allow a credit against child support arrearages for periods of time, excluding 31 reasonable parenting time unless otherwise provided by order or judgment, during which the obligor, 32 with the knowledge and consent of the obligee or pursuant to court order, has physical custody of 33 the child; and

34 "(b) The court may allow, as provided in the rules of the Child Support Program, a dollar-for-
35 dollar credit against child support arrearages for any lump sum Social Security or Veterans' benefits 36 paid retroactively to the child, or to a representative payee administering the funds for the child's 37 use and benefit, as a result of an obligor's disability or retirement.

38 "(8) In a proceeding under subsection (1) of this section, the court may assess against either 39 party a reasonable attorney fee and costs for the benefit of the other party. If a party is found to 40 have acted in bad faith, the court shall order that party to pay a reasonable attorney fee and costs 41 of the defending party.

42 "(9) Whenever a motion to establish, modify or terminate child support or satisfy or alter sup-43 port arrearages is filed and the child support rights of one of the parties or of a child of both of the 44 parties have been assigned to the state, a true copy of the motion shall be served by mail or per-
45 sonal delivery on the Administrator of the Division of Child Support of the Department of Justice

1 or on the branch office providing support services to the county in which the motion is filed.

2 “(10)(a) Except as provided in ORS 109.701 to 109.834, the courts of Oregon, having once ac-
3 quired personal and subject matter jurisdiction in a domestic relations action, retain such jurisdic-
4 tion regardless of any change of domicile.

5 “(b) The courts of Oregon, in a proceeding to establish, enforce or modify a child support order,
6 shall recognize the provisions of the federal Full Faith and Credit for Child Support Orders Act (28
7 U.S.C. 1738B).

8 “(11) In a proceeding under this section to reconsider provisions in a judgment relating to cus-
9 tody or parenting time, the court may consider repeated and unreasonable denial of, or interference 10 with, parenting time to be a substantial change of circumstances.

11 “(12) In a proceeding under this section to reconsider provisions in a judgment relating 12 to parenting time, the court may suspend or terminate a parent’s parenting time with a child
13 if the court finds that the parent has abused a controlled substance and that the parenting
14 time is not in the best interests of the child. If a court has suspended or terminated a 15 parent’s parenting time with a child for reasons described in this subsection, the court may 16 not grant the parent future parenting time until the parent has shown that the reasons for 17 the suspension or termination are resolved and that reinstated parenting time is in the best 18 interests of the child.

19 “[~~12~~] (13) Within 30 days after service of notice under subsection (1) of this section, the party 20 served shall file a written response with the court.

21 “~~13~~ (14)(a) It is the policy of this state:

22 “(A) To encourage the settlement of cases brought under this section; and 23 “(B) For courts to enforce the terms of settlements described in paragraph (b) of this subsection 24 to the fullest extent possible, except when to do so would violate the law or would clearly 25 contravene public policy.

26 “(b) In a proceeding under subsection (1) of this section, the court may enforce the terms set 27 forth in a stipulated order or judgment signed by the parties, an order or judgment resulting from 28 a settlement on the record or an order or judgment incorporating a settlement agreement:

29 “(A) As contract terms using contract remedies;

30 “(B) By imposing any remedy available to enforce an order or judgment, including but not lim-31 ited to contempt; or

32 “(C) By any combination of the provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this paragraph.

33 “(c) A party may seek to enforce an agreement and obtain remedies described in paragraph (b) 34 of this subsection by filing a motion, serving notice on the other party in the manner provided by 35 ORCP 7 and, if a remedy under paragraph (b)(B) of this subsection is sought, complying with the 36 statutory requirements for that remedy. All claims for relief arising out of the same acts or omis-37 sions must be joined in the same proceeding.

38 “(d) Nothing in paragraph (b) or (c) of this subsection limits a party’s ability, in a separate 39 proceeding, to file a motion to modify an order or judgment under subsection (1) of this section or 40 to seek enforcement of an ancillary agreement to the order or judgment.

41 “SECTION 7. ORS 475.996 is amended to read:

42 “475.996. (1) A violation of ORS 475.992 or sections 14 to 38 of this 2005 Act shall be classified
43 as crime category 8 of the sentencing guidelines grid of the Oregon Criminal Justice Commission if:

44 “(a) The violation constitutes delivery or manufacture of a controlled substance and involves 45 substantial quantities of a controlled substance. For purposes of this paragraph, the following

1 amounts constitute substantial quantities of the following controlled substances:

10 “SECTION 42. ORS 90.400 is amended to read:

11 “90.400. (1)(a) Except as provided in this chapter, if there is a material noncompliance by the 12 tenant with the rental agreement, a noncompliance with ORS 90.325 materially affecting health and 13 safety, a material noncompliance with a rental agreement regarding a program of recovery in drug
14 and alcohol free housing or a failure to pay a late charge pursuant to ORS 90.260 or a utility or 15 service charge pursuant to ORS 90.315 (4), the landlord may deliver a written notice to the tenant
16 terminating the tenancy for cause as provided in this subsection. The notice shall specify the acts 17 and omissions constituting the breach and shall state that the rental agreement will terminate upon 18 a date not less than 30 days after delivery of the notice. If the breach is remediable by repairs, 19 payment of damages, payment of a late charge or utility or service charge, change in conduct or 20 otherwise, the notice shall also state that the tenant can avoid termination by remedying the breach 21 within 14 days.

22 “(b) If the breach is not remedied in 14 days, the rental agreement shall terminate as provided 23 in the notice subject to paragraphs (c) and (d) of this subsection.

24 “(c) If the tenant adequately remedies the breach before the date for remedying the breach as 25 specified in the notice, the rental agreement does not terminate.

26 “(d) If substantially the same act or omission that constituted a prior noncompliance of which 27 notice was given pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection reoccurs within six months after the 28 date specified in that notice as the date for remedying the prior noncompliance, the landlord may 29 terminate the rental agreement upon at least 10 days’ written notice specifying the breach and the 30 date of termination of the rental agreement. The tenant does not have a right to cure this subse-
31 quent breach. The date of termination specified in the 10-day notice given pursuant to this para-
32 graph may not be sooner than the date of termination specified in the 30-day notice of the prior 33 noncompliance given pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection. A landlord may not terminate a 34 rental agreement pursuant to this paragraph if the only breach is a failure to pay the current 35 month’s rent.

36 “(e) In the case of a week-to-week tenancy, the notice periods in:

37 “(A) Paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be changed from 30 days to seven days and from 14
38 days to four days;

39 “(B) Paragraph (b) of this subsection shall be changed from 14 days to four days; and 40 “(C) Paragraph (d) of this subsection shall be changed from 10 days to four days.

41 “(f) This subsection does not apply to a tenancy governed by ORS 90.505 to 90.840.

42 “(2) The landlord may immediately terminate the rental agreement for nonpayment of rent and 43 take possession of the dwelling unit in the manner provided in ORS 105.105 to 105.168 after written 44 notice, as follows:

45 “(a) In the case of a week-to-week tenancy, by delivering to the tenant at least 72 hours’ written

1 notice of nonpayment and the landlord's intention to terminate the rental agreement if the rent is 2 not paid within that period. The landlord shall give this notice no sooner than on the fifth day of 3 the rental period, including the first day the rent is due.

4 "(b) In the case of all other tenancies, by delivering to the tenant:

5 "(A) At least 72 hours' written notice of nonpayment and the landlord's intention to terminate
6 the rental agreement if the rent is not paid within that period. The landlord shall give this notice
7 no sooner than on the eighth day of the rental period, including the first day the rent is due; or

8 "(B) At least 144 hours' written notice of nonpayment and the landlord's intention to terminate
9 the rental agreement if the rent is not paid within that period. The landlord shall give this notice
10 no sooner than on the fifth day of the rental period, including the first day the rent is due.

11 "(c) The notices described in this subsection shall also specify the date and time by which the 12 tenant must pay the rent to cure the nonpayment of rent.

13 "(d) Payment by a tenant who has received a nonpayment of rent notice under this subsection 14 is timely if mailed to the landlord within the period of the notice unless:

15 "(A) The nonpayment of rent notice is served on the tenant:

16 "(i) By personal delivery as provided in ORS 90.155 (1)(a); or 17 "(ii) By first class mail and attachment as provided in ORS 90.155 (1)(c); 18 "(B) A written rental agreement and the nonpayment of rent notice expressly state that payment

19 is to be made at a specified location that is either on the premises or at a place where the tenant 20 has made all previous rent payments in person; and

21 "(C) The place so specified is available to the tenant for payment throughout the period of the 22 notice.

23 "(3) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the landlord, after at least 24 hours'
24 written notice specifying the acts and omissions constituting the cause and specifying the date and 25 time of the termination, may immediately terminate the rental agreement and take possession in the 26 manner provided in ORS 105.105 to 105.168, if:

27 "(a) The tenant, someone in the tenant's control or the tenant's pet seriously threatens to inflict 28 substantial personal injury, or inflicts any substantial personal injury, upon a person on the prem-
29 ises other than the tenant;

30 "(b) The tenant or someone in the tenant's control recklessly endangers a person on the prem-
31 ises other than the tenant by creating a serious risk of substantial personal injury;

32 "(c) The tenant, someone in the tenant's control or the tenant's pet inflicts any substantial 33 personal injury upon a neighbor living in the immediate vicinity of the premises;

34 "(d) The tenant or someone in the tenant's control intentionally inflicts any substantial damage 35 to the premises or the tenant's pet inflicts substantial damage to the premises on more than one 36 occasion;

37 "(e)(A) The tenant intentionally provided substantial false information on the application for the 38 tenancy within the past year;

39 "(B) The false information was with regard to a criminal conviction of the tenant that would 40 have been material to the landlord's acceptance of the application; and

41 "(C) The landlord terminates the rental agreement within 30 days after discovering the falsity 42 of the information;

43 "(f) The tenant has vacated the premises, the person in possession is holding contrary to a 44 written rental agreement that prohibits subleasing the premises to another or allowing another 45 person to occupy the premises without the written permission of the landlord, and the landlord has

1 not knowingly accepted rent from the person in possession; or

2 “(g) The tenant, someone in the tenant’s control or the tenant’s pet commits any act that is 3 outrageous in the extreme, on the premises or in the immediate vicinity of the premises. An act that 4 is ‘outrageous in the extreme’ is an act not described in paragraphs (a) to (e) of this subsection, but 5 is similar in degree and is one that a reasonable person in that community would consider to be so 6 offensive as to warrant termination of the tenancy within 24 hours, considering the seriousness of 7 the act or the risk to others. Such an act is more extreme or serious than an act that warrants a 8 30-day termination under subsection (1) of this section. An act that is ‘outrageous in the extreme’
9 includes, but is not limited to, the following acts by a person:

10 “(A) Prostitution or promotion of prostitution, as described in ORS 167.007 and 167.012;

11 “(B) Manufacture, delivery or possession of a controlled substance, as described in ORS 475.005, 12 but not including:

13 “(i) The medical use of marijuana in compliance with ORS 475.300 to 475.346;

14 “(ii) Possession of, or delivery for no consideration of, less than one avoirdupois ounce of 15 marijuana as described in [ORS 475.992 (2)(b) or (4)(f)] section 31 or 33 of this 2005 Act; or 16 “(iii) Possession of prescription drugs;

17 “(C) Intimidation, as described in ORS 166.155 and 166.165; or 18 “(D) Burglary as described in ORS 164.215 and 164.225.

19 “(4) If the cause for a termination notice given pursuant to subsection (3)(a), (c), (d) or (g) of this 20 section is based upon the acts of the tenant’s pet, the tenant may cure the cause and avoid termi-
21 nation of the tenancy by removing the pet from the premises prior to the end of the notice period.
22 The notice shall describe the right of the tenant to cure the cause. If the tenant returns the pet to 23 the premises at any time after having cured the violation, the landlord, after at least 24 hours’
24 written notice specifying the subsequent presence of the offending pet, may terminate the rental
25 agreement and take possession in the manner provided in ORS 105.105 to 105.168. The tenant does 26 not have a right to cure this subsequent violation.

27 “(5) Someone is in the tenant’s control, as that phrase is used in subsection (3) of this section, 28 when that person enters or remains on the premises with the tenant’s permission or consent after 29 the tenant reasonably knows or should know of that person’s act or likelihood to commit any act 30 of the type described in subsection (3)(a) to (d) and (g) of this section.

31 “(6) The landlord’s 24 hours’ written notice given under subsection (3)(f) of this section is not 32 an admission by the landlord that the individual occupying the premises is a lessee or sublessee of 33 the landlord.

34 “(7) With regard to ‘acts outrageous in the extreme’ as described in subsection (3)(g) of this 35 section, an act can be proven to be outrageous in the extreme even if it is one that does not violate 36 a criminal statute. In addition, notwithstanding the reference in subsection (3) of this section to 37 existing criminal statutes, the landlord’s standard of proof in an action for possession under sub-38 section (3) of this section remains the civil standard, proof by a preponderance of the evidence.

39 “(8) If a good faith effort by a landlord to terminate a tenancy pursuant to subsection (3)(g) of 40 this section and to recover possession of the rental unit pursuant to ORS 105.105 to 105.168 fails 41 by decision of the court, the landlord may not be found in violation of any state statute or local 42 ordinance requiring the landlord to remove that tenant upon threat of fine, abatement or forfeiture 43 as long as the landlord continues to make a good faith effort to terminate the tenancy.

44 “(9) If a tenant living for less than two years in drug and alcohol free housing uses, possesses
45 or shares alcohol, illegal drugs, controlled substances or prescription drugs without a medical pre-

1 description, the landlord may deliver a written notice to the tenant terminating the tenancy for cause
2 as provided in this subsection. The notice shall specify the acts constituting the drug or alcohol
3 violation and shall state that the rental agreement will terminate in not less than 48 hours after 4 delivery of the notice, at a specified date and time. The notice shall also state that the tenant can 5 cure the drug or alcohol violation by a change in conduct or otherwise within 24 hours after deliv-
6 ery of the notice. If the tenant cures the violation within the 24-hour period, the rental agreement
7 does not terminate. If the tenant does not cure the violation within the 24-hour period, the rental
8 agreement shall terminate as provided in the notice. If substantially the same act that constituted 9 a prior drug or alcohol violation of which notice was given reoccurs within six months, the landlord
10 may terminate the rental agreement upon at least 24 hours' written notice specifying the violation 11 and the date and time of termination of the rental agreement. The tenant does not have a right to 12 cure this subsequent violation.

13 “(10) Except as provided in this chapter, a landlord may pursue any one or more of the remedies
14 listed in this section, simultaneously or sequentially.

15 “(11) Except as provided in this chapter, the landlord may recover damages and obtain 16 injunctive relief for any noncompliance by the tenant with the rental agreement or ORS 90.325 or 17 90.740.

18 “SECTION 43. ORS 105.555 is amended to read:

19 “105.555. (1) The following are declared to be nuisances and shall be enjoined and abated as 20 provided in ORS 105.550 to 105.600:

21 “(a) Any place that, as a regular course of business, is used for the purpose of prostitution and 22 any place where acts of prostitution occur;

23 “(b) Any place which is used and maintained for profit and for the purpose of gambling or a
24 lottery, as defined in ORS 167.117, by any person, partnership or corporation organized for profit
25 and wherein take place any of the acts or wherein are kept, stored or located any of the games, 26 devices or things which are forbidden by or made punishable by ORS 167.108 to 167.164; and

27 “(c) Any place where activity involving the unauthorized delivery, manufacture or possession
28 of a controlled substance, as defined in ORS 475.005, occurs or any place wherein are kept, stored
29 or located any of the devices, equipment, things or substances used for unauthorized delivery, man-30 ufacture or possession of a controlled substance. As used in this subsection ‘devices, equipment and 31 things’ does not include hypodermic syringes or needles. This subsection shall not apply to acts 32 which constitute violations under [ORS 475.992 (2)(b) and (4)(f)] section 31 or 33 of this 2005 Act.

33 “(2) Nothing in ORS 105.550 to 105.600, 166.715 and 167.158 applies to property to the extent
34 that the devices, equipment, things or substances that are used for delivery, manufacture or pos-
35 session of a controlled substance are kept, stored or located in or on the property for the purpose 36 of lawful sale or use of these items.

37 “SECTION 44. ORS 133.619 is amended to read:

38 “133.619. (1) A warrant authorizing the installation or tracking of a mobile tracking device shall 39 be executed as provided in this section.

40 “(2) The officer need not inform any person of the existence or content of the warrant prior to 41 its execution.

42 “(3) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the officer need not deliver or leave a 43 receipt for things seized or observations made under authority of the warrant.

44 “(4) Within five days of the execution of the warrant, or, in the case of an ongoing investigation,
45 within such additional time as the issuing judge may allow upon application, the officer shall mail

1 a receipt for things seized or observations made under authority of the warrant to the following:

2 “(a) If the mobile tracking device has been affixed to a vehicle, to the registered owner; and

3 “(b) To such other persons as the court may direct in the warrant.

4 “(5) The receipt provided for in subsection (4) of this section shall include the dates and times
5 during which the officer monitored or attempted to monitor the mobile tracking device.

6 “(6) A warrant authorizing the installation or tracking of a mobile tracking device shall only 7 be issued based upon the submission of an affidavit or oral statement as set forth in ORS 133.545,
8 which affidavit or statement demonstrates that probable cause exists to believe that an individual 9 is committing or is about to commit a particular felony of murder, kidnapping, arson, robbery or 10 other crime dangerous to life and punishable as a felony, any crime punishable as a felony arising 11 under ORS 475.992 or sections 14 to 38 of this 2005 Act, bribery, extortion, burglary or unau-12 thorized use of a motor vehicle punishable as a felony, or any conspiracy to commit any of the 13 crimes listed in this subsection.

14 “SECTION 45. ORS 133.724 is amended to read:

15 “133.724. (1) An ex parte order for the interception of wire, electronic or oral communications
16 may be issued by any circuit court judge upon written application made upon oath or affirmation
17 of the individual who is the district attorney or a deputy district attorney authorized by the district
18 attorney for the county in which the order is sought. The application shall include:

19 “(a) The name of the district attorney or the deputy district attorney making the application and 20 the authority of the district attorney or the deputy district attorney to make the application;

21 “(b) The identity of the investigative or law enforcement officer making the application and the 22 officer authorizing the application;

23 “(c) A statement demonstrating that there is probable cause to believe that an individual is 24 committing, has committed or is about to commit, a particular felony of murder, kidnapping, arson,
25 robbery, bribery, extortion or other crime dangerous to life and punishable as a felony, or a crime
26 punishable as a felony under ORS 475.992 or 475.995 or sections 14 to 38 of this 2005 Act or as 27 a misdemeanor under ORS 167.007, or any conspiracy to commit any of the foregoing crimes;

28 “(d) A statement of the details, if known, of the particular crime alleged under paragraph (c)
29 of this subsection;

30 “(e) A particular description of the nature and location of the facilities from which or the place 31 where the wire, electronic or oral communication is to be intercepted, if known;

32 “(f) A particular description of the type of wire, electronic or oral communication sought to be 33 intercepted;

34 “(g) The identity of the person, if known, suspected of committing the crime and whose wire, 35 electronic or oral communications are to be intercepted;

36 “(h) A full and complete statement as to whether or not other investigative procedures have 37 been tried and failed or why they reasonably appear to be unlikely to succeed if tried or are likely 38 to be too dangerous;

39 “(i) A statement of the period of time for which the interception is required to be maintained.
40 If the nature of the investigation is such that the authorization for interception should not auto-
41 matically terminate when the described type of wire, electronic or oral communication has been first 42 obtained, a description of facts establishing probable cause to believe that additional communi-43 cations of the same type will occur thereafter;

44 “(j) A statement as to whether any prior application has been made to intercept wire, electronic 45 or oral communications from the same person and, if such prior application exists, a statement of

1 the current status of that application; and

2 “(k) Where the application is for the extension of an existing order, a statement setting forth 3 the results thus far obtained from the interception, or a reasonable explanation of the failure to 4 obtain such results.

5 “(2) The judge may require the applicant to furnish further testimony or documentary evidence
6 in support of the application.

7 “(3) Upon examination of such application and evidence the judge may enter an ex parte order,
8 as requested or as modified, authorizing or approving interception of wire, electronic or oral com-
9 munications within the state if the judge determines on the basis of the facts submitted by the ap-10 plicant that:

11 “(a) There is probable cause for belief that an individual is committing, has committed or is 12 about to commit a particular crime described in subsection (1)(c) of this section;

13 “(b) There is probable cause for belief that particular communications concerning that crime 14 will be obtained through such interception;

15 “(c) Normal investigative procedures have been tried and have failed or reasonably appear to 16 be unlikely to succeed if tried or are likely to be too dangerous; and 17 “(d) There is probable cause for belief that the facilities from which, or the place where, the 18 wire, electronic or oral communications to be intercepted are being used, or are about to be used,

19 in connection with the commission of that crime are leased to, listed in the name of, or commonly 20 used by the individual suspected.

21 “(4) Each order authorizing or approving the interception of any wire, electronic or oral com-
22 munication shall specify:

23 “(a) The identity of the person, if known, whose communications are to be intercepted;

24 “(b) The nature and location of the communications facilities as to which, or the place where,
25 authority to intercept is granted;

26 “(c) A particular description of the type of communication sought to be intercepted, and a 27 statement of the particular crime to which it relates;

28 “(d) The identity of the agency authorized to intercept the communications and of the person 29 authorizing the application;

30 “(e) The period of time during which such interception is authorized, including a statement as 31 to whether or not the interception shall automatically terminate when the described communication 32 has been first obtained; and

33 “(f) The name of the applicant, date of issuance, and the signature and title of the issuing judge.

34 “(5) No order entered pursuant to this section shall authorize or approve the interception of any 35 wire, electronic or oral communication for any period longer than is necessary to achieve the ob-
36 jective of authorization, nor in any event longer than 30 days. Extensions of any order may be 37 granted, but only when application for an extension is made in accordance with subsection (1)(k) of 38 this section and the court makes the findings required by subsection (3) of this section. The period
39 of extension shall be no longer than the authorizing judge deems necessary to achieve the purpose
40 for which it is granted and in no event for longer than 30 days. Every order and extension thereof
41 shall contain a provision that the authorization to intercept shall be executed as soon as practicable,
42 shall be conducted in such a way as to minimize the interception of communications not otherwise 43 subject to interception, and must terminate upon attainment of the authorized objective, or in any 44 event in 30 days.

45 “(6) Whenever an order authorizing interception is entered pursuant to this section, the order

1 may require reports to be made to the judge who issued the order showing what progress has been 2 made toward achievement of the authorized objective and the need for continued interception. Such 3 reports shall be made at such intervals as the judge may require.

4 “SECTION 46. ORS 133.726 is amended to read:

5 “133.726. (1) Notwithstanding ORS 133.724, under the circumstances described in this section, a 6 law enforcement officer is authorized to intercept an oral communication to which the officer or 7 someone under the direct supervision of the officer is a party, without obtaining an order for the 8 interception of a wire, electronic or oral communication under ORS 133.724.

9 “(2) For purposes of this section and ORS 133.736, a person is a party to an oral communication
10 if the oral communication is made in the person’s immediate presence and is audible to the person 11 regardless of whether the communication is specifically directed to the person.

12 “(3) An ex parte order for intercepting an oral communication in any county of this state under 13 this section may be issued by any judge as defined in ORS 133.525 upon written application made 14 upon oath or affirmation of the district attorney or a deputy district attorney authorized by the 15 district attorney for the county in which the order is sought or upon the oath or affirmation of any 16 peace officer as defined in ORS 133.005. The application shall include:

17 “(a) The name of the applicant and the applicant’s authority to make the application;

18 “(b) A statement demonstrating that there is probable cause to believe that a person whose oral 19 communication is to be intercepted is engaged in committing, has committed or is about to commit
20 a particular felony, or a misdemeanor under ORS 167.007, and that intercepting the oral communi-21 cation will yield evidence thereof; and

22 “(c) The identity of the person, if known, suspected of committing the crime and whose oral 23 communication is to be intercepted.

24 “(4) The judge may require the applicant to furnish further testimony or documentary evidence
25 in support of the application.

26 “(5) Upon examination of the application and evidence, the judge may enter an ex parte order,
27 as requested or as modified, authorizing or approving the interception of an oral communication 28 within the state if the judge determines on the basis of the facts submitted by the applicant that:

29 “(a) There is probable cause to believe that a person is engaged in committing, has committed 30 or is about to commit a particular felony, or a misdemeanor under ORS 167.007; and

31 “(b) There is probable cause to believe that the oral communication to be obtained will contain

34 section must specify:

35 “(a) The identity of the person, if known, whose oral communication is to be intercepted;

36 “(b) A statement identifying the particular crime to which the oral communication is expected 37 to relate;

38 “(c) The agency authorized under the order to intercept the oral communication;

44 “(7) An order under ORS 133.724 or this section is not required when a law enforcement officer 45 intercepts an oral communication to which the officer or someone under the direct supervision of

1 the officer is a party if the oral communication is made by a person whom the officer has probable
2 cause to believe has committed, is engaged in committing or is about to commit:

3 “(a) A crime punishable as a felony under ORS 475.992 or 475.995 or sections 14 to 38 of this
4 2005 Act or as a misdemeanor under ORS 167.007; or

5 “(b) Any other crime punishable as a felony if the circumstances at the time the oral communi-
6 cation is intercepted are of such exigency that it would be unreasonable to obtain a court order
7 under ORS 133.724 or this section.

8 “(8) A law enforcement officer who intercepts an oral communication pursuant to this section
9 may not intentionally fail to record and preserve the oral communication in its entirety. A law 10 enforcement officer, or a person under the direct supervision of the officer, who is authorized under 11 this section to intercept an oral communication is not required to exclude from the interception an 12 oral communication made by a person for whom probable cause does not exist if the officer or per-13 son under the officer’s direct supervision is a party to the oral communication.

14 “(9) A law enforcement officer may not divulge the contents of an oral communication inter-15 cepted under this section before a preliminary hearing or trial in which an oral communication is

22 “(10) A law enforcement officer may intercept an oral communication under this section only 23 when acting within the scope of the officer’s employment and as a part of assigned duties.

24 “(11) As used in this section, ‘law enforcement officer’ means an officer employed by the United 25 States, this state or a municipal government within this state, or a political subdivision, agency, 26 department or bureau of those governments, to enforce criminal laws.

27 “(12) Violation of subsection (9) of this section is a Class A misdemeanor.

28 “SECTION 47. ORS 161.570 is amended to read:

29 “161.570. (1) As used in this section, ‘nonperson felony’ has the meaning given that term in the 32 475.992 [(4)(a)] (3)(a) or section 33 (2) of this 2005 Act as a Class A misdemeanor. The election 33 must be made by the district attorney orally or in writing at the time of the first appearance of the 34 defendant. If a district attorney elects to treat a Class C felony or a violation of ORS 475.992

35 [(4)(a)] (3)(a) or section 33 (2) of this 2005 Act as a Class A misdemeanor under this subsection,
36 the court shall amend the accusatory instrument to reflect the charged offense as a Class A 37 misdemeanor.

38 “(3) If, at some time after the first appearance of a defendant charged with a Class C nonperson
39 felony or a violation of ORS 475.992 [(4)(a)] (3)(a) or section 33 (2) of this 2005 Act, the district
40 attorney and the defendant agree to treat the charged offense as a Class A misdemeanor, the court
41 may allow the offense to be treated as a Class A misdemeanor by stipulation of the parties.

42 “(4) If a Class C felony or a violation of ORS 475.992 [(4)(a)] (3)(a) or section 33 (2) of this 2005
43 Act is treated as a Class A misdemeanor under this section, the court shall clearly denominate the 44 offense as a Class A misdemeanor in any judgment entered in the matter.

45 “(5) If no election or stipulation is made under this section, the case proceeds as a felony.

1 “(6) Before a district attorney may make an election under subsection (2) of this section, the 2 district attorney shall adopt written guidelines for determining when and under what circumstances
3 the election may be made. The district attorney shall apply the guidelines uniformly.

4 “(7) Notwithstanding ORS 161.635, the maximum fine that a court may impose upon conviction
5 of a misdemeanor under this section may not exceed the amount provided in ORS 161.625 for the 6 class of felony receiving Class A misdemeanor treatment.

7 “SECTION 48. ORS 161.705 is amended to read:

8 “161.705. [(1)] Notwithstanding ORS 161.525, the court may enter judgment of conviction for a 9 Class A misdemeanor and make disposition accordingly when:

10 “(1)(a) A person is convicted of any Class C felony; [or]

11 “(b) A person is convicted of a Class B felony pursuant to [ORS 475.992 (2)(a)] section 31 (2)

16 section, or of a Class A felony pursuant to ORS 166.720, has successfully completed a sentence of 17 probation; and

18 “[e)] (2) The court, considering the nature and circumstances of the crime and the history and 19 character of the defendant, believes that it would be unduly harsh to sentence the defendant for a 20 felony.

21 “[2) This section does not apply, however, in cases subject to ORS 475.995.]

22 “SECTION 49. ORS 165.663 is amended to read:

23 “165.663. Any police officer may apply to the circuit court in which judicial district the targeted 39 yield evidence relevant to the crime.

40 “SECTION 50. ORS 165.667 is amended to read:

41 “165.667. (1) Upon application made under ORS 133.545, the court shall enter an ex parte order

45 “(A) A particular felony of murder, kidnapping, arson, robbery, bribery, extortion or other crime

1 dangerous to life and punishable as a felony;

29 court.

30 “SECTION 51. ORS 181.085 is amended to read:

34 obtained from analysis of such samples;

35 “(b) Analyze such samples for the purpose of establishing the genetic profile of the donor or

37 laboratories to conduct that analysis;

38 “(c) Maintain a criminal identification database containing information derived from blood and 39 buccal analyses;

40 “(d) Utilize such samples to create statistical population frequency databases, provided that ge-41 netic profiles or other such information in a population frequency database shall not be identified 42 with specific individuals; and

43 “(e) Adopt rules establishing procedures for obtaining, transmitting and analyzing blood and 44 buccal samples and for storing and destroying blood and buccal samples and other physical evidence
45 and criminal identification information obtained from such analysis. Procedures for blood and buccal

2 establishing identity, including but not limited to, analysis of DNA (deoxyribonucleic acid), antigen
3 antibodies, polymorphic enzymes or polymorphic proteins.

4 “(2) If the department is unable to analyze all samples due to lack of funds, the department shall 5 analyze samples in the following order:

6 “(a) The department shall first analyze samples from persons convicted of:

7 “(A) Rape, sodomy, unlawful sexual penetration, sexual abuse, public indecency, incest or using 8 a child in a display of sexually explicit conduct, as those offenses are defined in ORS 163.355 to 18 “(J) Criminally negligent homicide, as defined in ORS 163.145;

19 “(K) Conspiracy or attempt to commit any felony listed in subparagraphs (A) to (J) of this par-

22 “(b) After analyzing samples from persons described in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the de-
23 partment shall analyze samples from persons convicted of a felony under ORS 475.992, 475.993, 24 475.995 or 475.999 or sections 14 to 38 of this 2005 Act.

25 “(c) After analyzing samples from persons described in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, 26 the department shall analyze samples from persons convicted of any other felony.

27 “(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2) of this section, the department may analyze a sample from 28 a lower priority before all samples in higher priorities are analyzed if required in a particular case 29 for law enforcement purposes.

30 “(4) The department may not transfer or disclose any sample, physical evidence or criminal
31 identification information obtained, stored or maintained under authority of this section, ORS 32 137.076, 161.325 or 419C.473 (1) except:

33 “(a) To a law enforcement agency as defined in ORS 181.010, a district attorney or the Criminal

35 in the course of a criminal investigation or proceeding;

36 “(b) To a party in a criminal prosecution or juvenile proceeding pursuant to ORS 419C.005 if 37 discovery or disclosure is required by a separate statutory or constitutional provision; or

38 “(c) To a court or grand jury in response to a lawful subpoena or court order when the evidence 39 is not otherwise privileged and is necessary for criminal justice purposes.

40 “(5) The department may not transfer or disclose any sample, physical evidence or criminal
41 identification information under subsection (4) of this section unless the public agency or person 42 receiving the sample, physical evidence or criminal identification information agrees to destroy the 43 sample, physical evidence or criminal identification information if notified by the department that 44 a court has reversed the conviction, judgment or order that created the obligation to provide the 45 blood or buccal sample.

1 “(6) Any public agency that receives a sample, physical evidence or criminal identification in-
2 formation under authority of subsection (4) of this section may not disclose it except as provided in 3 subsection (4) of this section.

4 “(7) Notwithstanding subsections (4) and (6) of this section, any person who is the subject of a 5 record within a criminal identification database maintained under the authority of this section may,
6 upon request, inspect that information at a time and location designated by the department. The 7 department may deny inspection if it determines that there is a reasonable likelihood that such in-
8 spection would prejudice a pending criminal investigation. In any case, the department is not re-
9 quired to allow the person or anyone acting on the person’s behalf to test any blood or buccal
10 sample or other physical evidence. The department shall adopt procedures governing the inspection
11 of records and samples and challenges to the accuracy of records. The procedures shall accommo-12 date the need to preserve the materials from contamination and destruction.

13 “(8)(a) Whenever a court reverses the conviction, judgment or order that created an obligation
14 to provide a blood or buccal sample under ORS 137.076 (2), 161.325 or 419C.473 (1), the person who 15 provided the sample may request destruction of the sample and any criminal identification record 16 created in connection with that sample.

17 “(b) Upon receipt of a written request for destruction pursuant to this section and a certified 18 copy of the court order reversing the conviction, judgment or order, the department shall destroy 19 any sample received from the person, any physical evidence obtained from that sample and any

21 person has otherwise become obligated to submit a blood or buccal sample as a result of a separate
22 conviction, juvenile adjudication or finding of guilty except for insanity for an offense listed in ORS
23 137.076 (1). When the department destroys a sample, physical evidence or criminal identification 24 record under this paragraph, the department shall notify any public agency or person to whom the 25 sample, physical evidence or criminal identification information was transferred or disclosed under 26 subsection (4) of this section of the reversal of the conviction, judgment or order.

27 “(c) The department is not required to destroy an item of physical evidence obtained from a
28 blood or buccal sample if evidence relating to another person subject to the provisions of ORS
29 137.076, 161.325, 181.085, 419A.260 and 419C.473 (1) would thereby be destroyed. Notwithstanding 30 this subsection, no sample, physical evidence or criminal identification record is affected by an order
31 to set aside a conviction under ORS 137.225.

32 “(9) As used in this section, ‘convicted’ includes a juvenile court finding of jurisdiction based 33 on ORS 419C.005.

34 “SECTION 52. ORS 342.143 is amended to read:

35 “342.143. (1) No teaching, personnel service or administrative license shall be issued to any

6 16, 17, 20, 21, 22, 25, 27, 30, 31, 32, 33 (4), 35 or 37 of this 2005 Act;

8 subparagraph (A) of this paragraph; or

9 “(C) Has been convicted in another jurisdiction of a crime that is substantially equivalent, as 10 defined by rule, to any of the crimes listed in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this paragraph.

11 “(b) The Teacher Standards and Practices Commission may refuse to issue a license or regis-
12 tration to any person who has been convicted of a crime involving the illegal use, sale or possession 13 of controlled substances.

14 “(4) In denying the issuance of a license or registration under this section, the commission shall 16 “(5) The Department of Education shall provide school districts and public charter schools a 17 copy of the list contained in subsection (3) of this section.

34 of this 2005 Act and unless the juvenile department determines that it would be inappropriate in 35 the particular case:

36 “(A) Require the youth to participate in a diagnostic assessment and an information or treat-

23 offender’s participation in the program based upon the ability of the parent to pay. The petition shall 24 be dismissed by the court upon written certification of the youth offender’s successful completion 25 of the program from the designated agency or organization providing the information and treatment.

26 “(2) Monitoring the youth offender’s progress in the program shall be the responsibility of the 27 diagnostic assessment agency or organization. It shall make a report to the court stating the youth 28 offender’s successful completion or failure to complete all or any part of the program specified by 29 the diagnostic assessment. The form of the report shall be determined by agreement between the 30 court and the diagnostic assessment agency or organization. The court shall make the report a part 31 of the record of the case.

32 “(3) The court is not required to make the disposition required by subsection (1) of this section 33 if the court determines that the disposition is inappropriate in the case or if the court finds that the 35 (1)(i).

36 “SECTION 56. ORS 475.245 is amended to read:

37 “475.245. Whenever any person pleads guilty to or is found guilty of possession of a controlled
