9 ment under section 4 of this 2005 Act and who have been issued a certified copy of their re-
10 reciprocal beneficiary agreement by the Director of Human Services under section 5 of this 11 2005 Act.

12 “(2) ‘Reciprocal beneficiary agreement’ means an agreement, in a form prescribed by the 13 director, between two adults to be reciprocal beneficiaries.

14 “SECTION 2. The purpose of sections 1 to 7 of this 2005 Act is to extend certain rights 15 and obligations to two adults who have entered into a reciprocal beneficiary agreement and 16 who are legally prohibited from marrying each other under ORS chapter 106.

17 “SECTION 3. (1) The Legislative Assembly finds that the people of Oregon have chosen 18 to preserve the tradition of marriage as a unique social institution between one man and one
19 woman. As such, marriages are subject to restrictions, such as the prohibition of a marriage
20 under ORS 106.020 between parties who are first cousins or any nearer of kin to each other.

21 “(2) However, the Legislative Assembly acknowledges that many individuals have signif-
22 icant personal, emotional and economic relationships with other individuals, but are prohib-
23 ited by law from marrying each other. Examples of such individuals include two individuals 24 who are related to each other, such as a widowed mother and her unmarried son, or two 25 unrelated adults of the same gender.

21 or any other benefits that result from the employment of the other reciprocal beneficiary.

22       “SECTION 7. (1) A party to a reciprocal beneficiary agreement may terminate the 23 agreement by filing a signed, notarized declaration of termination of reciprocal beneficiary 24 agreement with the Director of Human Services.

25       “(2) The director shall prescribe a form for the declaration of termination and shall set 26 and collect a fee for filing the declaration. The director shall submit the fee to the State 27 Treasurer for deposit in the General Fund.

28       “(3) Upon receipt of a signed, notarized declaration of termination and the filing fee, the 29 director shall register the declaration of termination and provide a certified copy of the

3 for deferral for one or more tax years succeeding the year in which property taxes were initially 4 deferred under ORS 311.666 to 311.701, then the individual may request that the Director of the 5 Department of Revenue grant a retroactive deferral of property taxes on the property. A spouse who 6 is eligible to make the election under ORS 311.688 may also request a grant of retroactive deferral
7 under this section. A reciprocal beneficiary, as defined in section 1 of this 2005 Act, who is

10           “(2) The director may, in the discretion of the director, grant or deny the retroactive deferral
11 of property taxes. No appeal from a decision of the director under this section may be made.

12           “(3) The director shall not grant a retroactive deferral of property taxes if, in any intervening 13 year between the year in which deferral was last granted to the property and the last year for which 14 retroactive deferral is being requested, the property would not have been eligible for deferral had 15 the claim for deferral been timely filed.

16           “(4) If the director grants a retroactive deferral of property taxes under this section, the de-17 partment shall pay to the county tax collector an amount equal to the deferred taxes for each year, 18 less three percent. Interest shall accrue on the actual amount of taxes advanced to the county.

24           “SECTION 21. ORS 311.688 is amended to read:

25           “311.688. (1) Notwithstanding ORS 311.684, when one of the circumstances listed in ORS 311.684
26 (1) to (3) occurs, the spouse or reciprocal beneficiary, as defined in section 1 of this 2005 Act,
27 who was not eligible to or did not file a claim jointly with the taxpayer may continue the property
28 in its deferred tax status by filing a claim within the time and in the manner provided under ORS 29 311.668 if:

30           “(a) The spouse or reciprocal beneficiary of the taxpayer is or will be 60 years of age or older
31 not later than six months from the day the circumstance listed in ORS 311.684 (1) to (3) occurs; and

32           “(b) The property is the homestead of the spouse or reciprocal beneficiary of the taxpayer and 33 meets the requirements of ORS 311.670 (2).

34           “(2) A spouse or reciprocal beneficiary who does not meet the age requirements of subsection
35 (1)(a) of this section but is otherwise qualified to continue the property in its tax-deferred status 36 under subsection (1) of this section may continue the deferral of property taxes deferred for previous 37 years by filing a claim within the time and in the manner provided under ORS 311.668. If a spouse 38 or reciprocal beneficiary eligible for and continuing the deferral of taxes previously deferred under 39 this subsection becomes 62 years of age prior to April 15 of any year, the spouse or reciprocal 40 beneficiary may elect to continue the deferral of previous years’ taxes deferred under this sub-41 section and may elect to defer the current assessment year’s taxes on the homestead by filing a 42 claim within the time and in the manner provided under ORS 311.668. Thereafter, payment of the 43 taxes levied on the homestead and deferred under this subsection and payment of taxes levied on 44 the homestead in the current assessment year and in future years may be deferred in the manner
45 provided in and subject to ORS 311.666 to 311.701.

1 “(3) Notwithstanding that ORS 311.668 requires that a claim be filed no later than April 15, if 2 the Department of Revenue determines that good and sufficient cause exists for the failure of a
3 spouse or reciprocal beneficiary to file a claim under this section on or before April 15, the claim
4 may be filed within 180 days after notice of taxes due and payable under ORS 311.686 is mailed or 5 delivered by the department to the taxpayer, [or] spouse or reciprocal beneficiary.

6 “SECTION 22. ORS 311.690 is amended to read:

7 “311.690. (1) All payments of deferred taxes shall be made to the Department of Revenue.

15 “(3) A person listed in subsection [(2)(b)] (2)(d) of this section may make such payments only if 16 no objection is made by the taxpayer within 30 days after the department deposits in the mail notice 17 to the taxpayer of the fact that such payment has been tendered.

18 “(4) Any payment made under this section shall be applied first against accrued interest and any 19 remainder against the deferred taxes. Such payment does not affect the deferred tax status of the 20 property. Unless otherwise provided by law, such payment does not give the person paying the taxes 21 any interest in the property or any claim against the estate, in the absence of a valid agreement to 22 the contrary.

23 “(5) When the deferred taxes and accrued interest are paid in full and the property is no longer 24 subject to deferral, the department shall prepare and record in the county in which the property is 34 and meets the requirements of ORS 311.706.

35 “(2) The election under subsection (1) of this section to continue the property in its deferred 36 status by the spouse or reciprocal beneficiary shall be filed in the same manner as a claim for 37 deferral is filed under ORS 311.704, not later than August 15 of the year following the calendar year
38 in which the circumstances listed in ORS 311.716 occur. Thereupon, the homestead with respect to 39 which the deferral is claimed shall continue to be subject to special assessment deferral and the 40 appropriate local officials shall cancel all actions taken under ORS 311.718 and make any necessary

43 “SECTION 24. ORS 311.722 is amended to read:

44 “311.722. (1) If the taxpayer who claimed the deferral of special assessment for local improve-45 ment dies, or if a spouse or reciprocal beneficiary, as defined in section 1 of this 2005 Act, who

1 continued the deferral under ORS 311.702 to 311.735 dies, the Department of Revenue may extend 2 the time for payment of the special assessment for local improvement and interest accruing with 3 respect to the special assessment for local improvement becoming due and payable under ORS 4 311.718 if:

5 “(a) The homestead property becomes property of an individual or individuals:

6 “(A) By inheritance or devise; or

7 “(B) If the individual or individuals are heirs or devisees, as defined under ORS 111.005, in the 8 course of settlement of the estate;

9 “(b) The individual or individuals commence occupancy of the property as a principal residence 10 on or before August 15 of the calendar year following the calendar year of death; and

11 “(c) The individual or individuals make application to the department for an extension of time
12 for payment of the deferred special assessment for local improvement and interest prior to August 13 15 of the calendar year following the calendar year of death.

14 “(2)(a) Subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection, an extension granted under this section shall 15 be for a period not to exceed five years after August 15 of the calendar year following the calendar
16 year of death. The terms and conditions under which the extension is granted shall be in accordance 17 with a written agreement entered into by the department and the individual or individuals.

18 “(b) An extension granted under this section shall terminate immediately if:

21 “(B) All of the heirs or devisees who are parties to the extension agreement cease to occupy the 22 property as a principal residence; or

23 “(C) The homestead property, a manufactured structure or floating home, is moved out of the 24 state.

25 “(3) If the department has reason to believe that the homestead property is not sufficient secu-
26 rity for the deferred special assessment for local improvement and interest the department may re-27 quire the individual or individuals to furnish a bond conditioned upon payment of the amount 28 extended in accordance with the terms of the extension. The bond shall not exceed in amount double 29 the special assessment for local improvement with respect to which extension is granted.

30 “(4) During the period of extension, and until paid the deferred special assessment for local im-
31 provement shall continue to accrue interest in the same manner and at the same rate as provided 32 under ORS 311.674 (3). No interest shall accrue upon interest.

33 “SECTION 25. ORS 311.723 is amended to read:

34 “311.723. (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, all or part of the amounts of deferred

2 been tendered.

3 “(3) Any payments made under this section shall be applied first against accrued interest and 4 any remainder against the deferred special assessment for local improvement. A payment made
5 pursuant to this section does not affect the deferred status of the homestead. Unless otherwise 6 provided by law, the payment does not give the person paying the deferred special assessment any 7 interest in the property or any claim against the estate, in the absence of a valid agreement to the 8 contrary.
