Oregonians are encouraged to join elected officials and citizen members of the Task Force to discuss options for reforming Oregon's tax and revenue system. The Task Force on Comprehensive Revenue Restructuring, created by the 2007 Legislature, has been meeting for a year. They will be seeking input on a draft report to be submitted to the 2009 Legislature as well as the public's ideas on how to make Oregon's tax system better serve the needs of its citizens.

The public meetings of the Task Force are scheduled for:

- November 13—Medford Jackson County Library 5pm-8pm
- November 19—Pendleton Vert Auditorium 5pm-8pm
- November 20—Redmond Deschutes Fair & Expo - North Sisters Conference Hall 5pm-8pm
- December 8—Newport Hatfield Marine Science Center - Main Auditorium 6pm-9pm
- December 12—Eugene Eugene School District Education Center Main Auditorium 6pm-9pm
- December 17—Tigard Tigard Public Library in the Community Room 6pm-9pm

The bipartisan Task Force on Comprehensive Revenue Restructuring consists of 21 citizen members appointed by the Governor, 8 members of the Legislature and the State Treasurer. The Task Force Chair and a subset of Task Force members will attend each meeting to receive public input. Public input will be included in the final Task Force report. The Task Force is particularly interested in the public's views concerning:

- Adequacy of the revenue system.
- Fairness of the tax system.
- Suggestions to improve the stability of the revenue system.
- Ways to use the revenue system to more effectively encourage economic growth.
