House Democrats to Host Regional Town Halls on State Budget

Citizens invited to share their priorities and personal stories

SALEM – Oregon House Democrats will hold a series of regional town halls on the state budget in early May. The events – scheduled for May 2nd in Beaverton, May 5th in Eugene and May 11th in Milwaukie – will feature budget Co-Chair Peter Buckley (D-Ashland) and will give the public a chance to share their priorities and personal stories with their state representatives.

“Our state is facing huge budget challenges, and we want to give Oregonians as many opportunities as possible to shape the decisions we will make. Two years ago, many of the decisions we made that helped us protect schools and other critical services came from the input we received at public hearings,” said Rep. Buckley. “I thank my House Democratic colleagues for inviting me to participate in these town halls.”
