HOUSE REPUBLICAN LEADER COMMENTS ON LOSS OF REP. SUMNER

SALEM— House Republican Leader Wayne Scott (R-Canby) had the following to say regarding the passing of former Rep. Mac Sumner (R-Molalla).

“The House Republican Caucus mourns the loss of one of its own. Mac Sumner was very well-respected within our caucus, and we will miss his leadership and his friendship. I spoke with Sandy last night and offered our condolences and assistance during this very difficult time. Our deepest sympathies go out to Sandy and her family as they mourn Mac’s passing.”

Inquiries regarding services for Rep. Sumner can be made to Tootie Smith, 503-949-5667.
